Reporting Conflict New Directions In Peace Journalism:

Reporting Conflict Jake Lynch, Johan Galtung, 2010 Introducing a compelling new series that offers leading international thinking on conflict and peacebuilding Journalists control our access to news By pitching stories from particular angles the media decides the issues for public debate

Reporting Immigration Conflict Mariely Valentin-Llopis, 2021-08-26 In Reporting Immigration Conflict Opportunities for Peace Journalism Mariely Valentin Llopis examines the role of American and Mexican media in promoting harsh views against Central American migrants This examination focuses on the U S southwestern border crossing conflict in 2014 and 2019 both separate consequential periods in time Valentin Llopis contextualizes migrants plight with careful consideration to unaccompanied minor migrants and the family separation crisis As a counterpoint the author also takes the news content analysis through a historical journey to when news reporters seemingly bent traditional journalism principles to protect Cuban children refugees fleeing the Castro regime and communism showing that it is possible to provide fair depictions of migrants and their struggles Valentin Llopis challenges journalism s traditional approach to news production by introducing the peace journalism rubric to immigration reporting Scholars of international relations journalism history and minority studies will find this book particularly useful while media practitioners in the field can also find practical approaches to transforming their work for the benefit of peace solutions to pressing transnational conflicts

Reporting Human Rights, Conflicts, and Peacebuilding Ibrahim Seaga Shaw, Senthan Selvarajah, 2019-04-09 This book focuses on the reporting of human rights in broadly defined times of conflict It brings together scholarly and professional perspectives on the role of the media in constructing human rights and peacebuilding options in conflict and post conflict environments drawing on case studies from Europe Latin America the Middle East Africa and South Asia It also provides critical reflections on the challenges faced by journalists and explores the implications of constructing human rights and peacebuilding options in their day to day professional activities The chapters embrace a variety of theoretical empirical and methodological approaches and will benefit students scholars and media professionals alike

Reporting Conflicts, Humanitarian Crises and Peace Processes Tedla Desta, 2024-01-15 This book analyses how humanitarian crises conflicts and peace processes in the Horn of Africa HoA were covered by two different media outlets the Daily Nation DN and the Integrated Regional Information Network IRIN currently known as The New Humanitarian The author develops a new framework called the Four Part Framework and examines the coverage of humanitarian crises conflicts and peace processes particularly conflicts and peace processes in Kenya Sudan and South Sudan Regional conflict and media situations are also discussed in the book as well as important recommendations that could be applicable in similar situations in other locations

A Global Standard for Reporting Conflict Jake Lynch, 2013-09-05 A Global Standard for Reporting Conflict constructs an argument from first principles to identify what constitutes good journalism It explores and synthesises key concepts from political and communication theory to delineate the role of journalism in public spheres And it shows how these concepts relate to ideas from peace research in the form of Peace Journalism Thinkers whose contributions are examined along the way include Michel Foucault Johan Galtung John Paul Lederach Edward Herman and Noam Chomsky Manuel Castells and Jurgen Habermas The book argues for a critical realist approach considering critiques of correspondence theories of representation to propose an innovative conceptualisation of journalistic epistemology in which social truths can be identified as the basis for the journalistic remit of factual reporting If the world cannot be accessed as it is then it can be assembled as agreed so long as consensus on important meanings is kept under constant review These propositions are tested by extensive fieldwork in four countries Australia the Philippines South Africa and Mexico

Revisiting Peace Journalism in the Kenyan News Landscape Cecilia Arregui Olivera, 2025-02-25 This book revisits the concept of peace journalism a framework that emerged to question and redefine the professional ethos of conflict reporting by challenging traditional news values such as the focus on negativity violence and the elites to emphasise reconciliation and dialogue contextualisation of conflicts and giving voice to all involved parties The author argues that in a globalised and diverse world the notion of peace journalism continues to mutate and evolve every time it enters specific contexts and for that matter it cannot be regarded as a one size fits all approach The book reviews and challenges the dominant ways in which peace journalism has been studied and understood to date before exploring the multiple tensions and relationships between notions of peace journalism and journalistic roles and practices in the reporting of electoral conflict and terrorism by legacy newspapers in Kenya After deconstructing this complex concept and tracing its motions mutations and evolutions in a specific setting peace journalism is redefined as a dynamic concept that is continuously negotiated between the particulars of context and a shared essence that circles around the values of peace non violence and reconciliation This book will interest journalism and media studies scholars educators and graduate students in particular those interested in or specialising in peace journalism or conflict reporting or the East African or Kenyan news media scene

Zwischen Gegebenem und Möglichem Ricarda Drüeke, Susanne Kirchhoff, Thomas Steinmaurer, Martina Thiele, 2015-11-15 Der Anspruch Kommunikationswissenschaft als kritische Gesellschaftsanalyse zu betreiben verbindet die Beiträge des Bandes in ihrer Auseinandersetzung mit Strukturen und Akteur_innen journalistischer Praxis Statt sich mit dem Gegebenen abzufinden werden angebliche Gewissheiten Kategorisierungen und Dualismen hinterfragt Das ermöglicht andere Perspektiven auf Medien und Öffentlichkeit Journalismus Geschlechter oder soziale Ungleichheit und zielt darauf ab Handlungsspielräume zwischen Gegebenem und Möglichem sichtbar werden zu lassen

Susan Dente Ross, Majid Tehranian, 2011-12-31 Amid the ongoing and volatile debate over the nature and potential of peace journalism this volume presents visionary insights from some of the most prominent scholars in the field The significant empirical studies included here will provide foundation data for communication studies The contributors broaden the purview and terrain of peace journalism to include new media and offers essays on the eff ects and the content of global communications In sum the thirteenth volume of Peace and Policy deepens our empirical knowledge of the nature and effects of conflict while underscoring the increase in numbers of participants and breadth of communications For the past half decade these contributors have worked independently and collaboratively to increase systematic understanding of the value of peace journalism and communication to civil society The group has contributed to a complex articulation of the various frames of conflict coverage In so doing they have clarified the structural systemic and cultural aspects of global violence In turn this has helped create institutions programs and strategies for enhancing constructive peace communication that will increase mutual understanding cooperation reconciliation and transform conflict Peace journalism has reframed understanding of conflict from a tug of war between two parties in which one side's gain is the other's loss to the terms of relationships between various sides It considers the context and the need to identify a range of stakeholders broader than the sides directly engaged in violent confrontation In sum it leads to understanding of the distinction between stated demands and underlying objectives so as to identify voices working for creative and non violent solutions and finding ways to transform and transcend the lines of conflict

Understanding Contemporary Journalism Tatah Mentan,2022-01-03
Journalism is one of the most important professions today Without it large swaths of the world similarly might have remained dark impoverished tortured because few people would have been aware of the nature and depth of the atrocities therein You can't fix what you can't find Indeed we have only to look at places today where journalists must risk their lives to do their jobs places such as Central Europe the Philippines Mexico Myanmar Russia Turkey Democratic Republic of Congo Rwanda Cameroun Afghanistan and too many others to appreciate anew what an incalculable difference the media make reporting on wars famines genocide and the tyrants who green light them But saving the world apparently is not enough I have included a chapter on Peace Journalism because it uses conflict analysis and transformation to update the concept of balance fairness and accuracy in reporting This approach provides a new road map tracing the connections between journalists their sources the stories they cover and the consequences of their reporting the ethics of journalistic intervention to play a role in global peace rather than fuelling conflicts
