

RESEARCH PROPOSAL TEMPLATE

When preparing an application for entry into a research higher degree program it is necessary to supply a clear statement describing the proposed area of research (a research proposal). Consultation with a faculty or school academic staff member in the research area of interest is recommended prior to submission of an application. Liaising with an academic allows you to frame the proposal to align with established disciplines and areas of supervisor capacity.

You must write your own research proposal and reference accordingly. The exception is when your potential supervisor finalises the research proposal with you, for a specific research project that has already been defined. Please visit the University's Academic Integrity pages and policy

General

- Length: From one to three pages is often suitable, depending on the area of research.
- Detail: The following outline may be used as a guide. You should consider each of the areas that will be relevant to your research.
- Minimum: The recommended minimum requirements are identified with an asterisk (*).

Research topic/title*

An initial working title should be provided and should describe the content and direction of your project. For example: A template for assisting research students in the development of a research proposal

PROJECT DESCRIPTION

Background

What is already known or unknown? Set the scene.

Aims*

What do you want to know, prove, demonstrate, analyse, test, investigate or examine? List your project aims in a logical sequence. For example:
The aim of this project is to:

- Provide an outline of a research proposal
- Enable a prospective student to prepare a research proposal

Methodology*

How do you anticipate you will achieve these aims?
What do you need? (specify any special equipment, software or material) Can you access necessary data or expertise?
Do you require particular resources?
Are there barriers or pitfalls?
Does the project involve human ethics, animal ethics or safety implications?
Is travel or fieldwork required? If so, where to, how long and at what intervals?

Expected outcomes, significance or rationale

Why is it important?
What do you expect it will deliver?
What are the expected outcomes?
Establish the importance of your project by highlighting its originality or why it is worth pursuing. Highlight the benefits, positive expected outcomes or innovative applications of knowledge.

Timetable*

Indicate the timeframe for each broad stage considering literature surveys, data collection, production, modelling, review, analysis, testing, reporting, chapter and thesis writing, and thesis submission date.

Yaghjian, 2015-09-24 A working guide for students conducting theological writing and research on theology and biblical studies courses this book integrates the disciplines of writing rhetoric and theology to provide a standard text for the teaching and mentoring of writing across the theological curriculum As a theological rhetoric it also encourages excellence in theological writing in the public domain by helping to equip students for their wider vocations as writers preachers and communicators in a variety of ministerial and professional contexts This 2nd Edition includes new chapters on Writing Theology in a New Language which explores the linguistic and cultural challenges of writing theology well in a non native language and Writing and Learning Theology in an Electronic Age addressed to distance learning students learning to write theology well from online courses and dealing with the technologies necessary to do so

Quality Research Papers Nancy Jean Vyhmeister, Terry Dwain Robertson, 2014-02-11 This updated third edition of Quality Research Papers fast becoming a standard reference textbook for writing research papers in the fields of religion and theology gives improvements and added material for such things as the expanding field of online research and doing church related research in a professional manner Because so many new developments have taken place in the field of research especially in terms of electronic research this handy reference explores the ways to do research on the internet including how to document such research Quality Research Papers offers great opportunities to students today especially in distant learning situations to determine which resources can be used and which should be rejected For this reason Nancy Vyhmeister brought in Terry Robertson Seminary Librarian at Andrews University and professor of the seminary master's level research courses His expertise in library computers and the Internet are invaluable to the book In addition to substantial current information on electronic resources and online research this third edition preserves all of the features of the original editions now presented in a newly revised more logical order

Normativity and Empirical Research in Theology Johannes A. van der Ven, Michael Scherer-Rath, 2004-11-01 The idea for this volume originates from the first meeting of the International Society of Empirical Research in Theology ISERT in 2002 at the Radboud University Nijmegen In this volume researchers and academics from South Africa Great Britain Switzerland Germany and the Netherlands debate about the fundamental question of the role of theological normativity in empirical research in theological fields In fourteen contributions this book would like to illuminate the significance of this central topic for the discipline of practical theology The first part of the book provides a discussion about the empirical character of practical theology and the consequences for scientific research in theological fields The second part deals with the normative implications of empirical research It is shown with the help of concrete research projects that empirical research is possible in practical theology and that theology works normatively in empirical research Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. Varieties of Personal Theology Professor David T

Gortner,2013-07-28 Varieties of Personal Theology starts from the premise that all human beings are folk theologians active not only in constructing selves but also in constructing worlds and guiding philosophies of life Through fascinating indepth interviews and surveys David Gortner looks specifically at emerging adults aged 18 25 as young theologians who regardless of religious background wrestle with fundamental questions of place purpose ultimate cause and ultimate aims in life This book charts the subtle and significant influences of social class family school work peer relationships religion and intrinsic attitudes and dispositions on young adults personal theologies and traces the ways their personal theologies connect with choices they make in their daily lives in education jobs leisure and relationships Intentionally crossing boundaries between religious and social science fields Gortner combines perspectives from both to demonstrate how theological diversity persists in America despite some clear culturally dominant trends This book reveals how American young adults are active theologians forging diverse ways of seeing and being in the world shaped by their experiences and in turn continuing to shape their choices in life

Research in the Social Scientific Study of Religion, Volume 12,2021-10-01 The purpose of this book is to provide an outlet for original research articles examining the role and value of religious and spiritual constructs across the social sciences The aim of the series is to include an international and interfaith voice to this research dialogue An effort is made to be interdisciplinary and academically eclectic The articles in the current volume represent a wide array of perspectives and research projects Most of the articles report the findings of quantitative or qualitative investigations but some deal with methodology theory or applications of social science studies in the field of religion and some are applied demonstrating the relevance of the social sciences to religious organizations and their clergy The value of the volume is that it gives to researchers in this area a broad perspective on the issues and methods of religious research across a spectrum of academic disciplines The aim of the book is to stimulate a creative integrative dialogue that will enhance interdisciplinary research

Church and Civil Society Michael Walker,2017-07-31 Germany and South Africa experienced drastic social transitions with the fall of the Berlin Wall in 1986 and the end of Apartheid in 1994 This book consists of a collection of essays from German and South African theologians who analyse the role that religious communities had and are still playing within the respective civil societies The concept and texture of civil society are analysed case studies are presented theological perspectives are given on the relation between church state and civil society and guidelines are provided for the healing role that Christian religious communities can play in Germany and South Africa This book is mainly directed at theologians and scholars in religious studies however sociologists and political philosophers may also find the essays informative Besides the wide variety of theological approaches sociological and empirical data and practical theological perspective the book also yields interesting comparative analysis on two societies in transition

Post-Materialist Religion Mika T. Lassander,2014-08-28 Post Materialist Religion discusses the transformations of the individual s worldview in contemporary modern societies and the role general societal value change plays in these In doing so Mika Lassander brings into conversation sociological theories of secularisation and social psychological theories of interpersonal relations the development of morality and the nature of basic human values The long term decline of traditional religiosity in Europe and the emerging ethos that can be described as post secular have brought religion and values back into popular discussion One important theme in these discussions is about the links between religion and values with the most common assumption being that religions are the source of individuals values This book argues for the opposite view suggesting that religions or people s worldviews in general reflect the individual s priorities Mika Lassander argues that the transformation of the individual s worldview is a direct consequence of the social and economical changes in European societies since the Second World War He suggests that the decline of traditional religiosity is not an indication of linear secularisation or of forgetting traditions but an indication of the loss of relevance of some aspects of the traditional institutional religions Furthermore he argues that this is not an indication of the loss of ethical value base but rather a change in the value base and consequently the transformation of the legitimating framework of this value base

Comparative Approaches to Law and Religion Renae Barker, Camilla Baasch Andersen, Mohammad Rasmi

Alumari, 2025-06-03 Comparative Approaches to Law and Religion examines the methodological challenges of studying the interplay between law and religion across diverse jurisdictions This volume fills a critical gap in the literature by focusing on how to conduct comparative research offering both theoretical foundations and practical applications Scholars from varied legal and cultural backgrounds contributed chapters that showcase innovative methodologies tailored to specific issues in law and religion The book is divided into three parts Part I explores the foundational theories methods and frameworks of comparative research in law and religion addressing state religion models legal pluralism and the inclusion of minors in research Part II applies these approaches through comparative case studies tackling topics such as medical treatment for minors religious freedom in the EU and judicial populism in religion related cases Part III provides a critical evaluation of the methodologies employed encouraging reflection and dialogue on their strengths limitations and broader applicability This volume is an essential resource for scholars of law and religion and comparative law By offering a blend of theoretical insights and practical examples it equips researchers with the tools to navigate the complexities of interdisciplinary and comparative legal studies across varied jurisdictions and traditions Journal of Biblical and Theological Studies Daniel S.

Diffey, Ryan A. Brandt, 2016-10-12 The Journal of Biblical and Theological Studies JBTS is an academic journal focused on the fields of Bible and Theology from an inter denominational point of view The journal is comprised of an editorial board of scholars that represent several academic institutions throughout the world JBTS is concerned with presenting high level original scholarship in an approachable way Academic journals are often written by scholars for other scholars They are technical in nature assuming a robust knowledge of the field There are fewer journals that seek to introduce biblical and theological scholarship that is also accessible to students JBTS seeks to provide high level scholarship and research to both scholars and students which results in original scholarship that is readable and accessible As an inter denominational journal JBTS is broadly evangelical We accept contributions in all theological disciplines from any evangelical perspective In particular we encourage articles and book reviews within the fields of Old Testament New Testament Biblical Theology Church History Systematic Theology Practical Theology Philosophical Theology Philosophy and Ethics

Evolution, Cognition, and the History of Religion: A New Synthesis Anders Klostergaard Petersen, Gilhus Ingvid Sælid, Luther H. Martin, Jeppe Sinding Jensen, Jesper Sørensen, 2018-10-08 Evolution Cognition and the History of Religion A New Synthesis comprises 41 chapters that push for a new way of conducting the study of religion thereby transforming the discipline into a genuine science of religion The recent resurgence of evolutionary approaches on culture and the increasing acknowledgement in the natural and social sciences of culture s and religion s evolutionary importance calls for a novel epistemological and theoretical framework for studying these two areas The chapters explore how a new scholarly synthesis founded on the triadic space constituted by evolution cognition cultural and ecological environment may develop Different perspectives and themes relating to this overarching topic are taken up with a main focus on either evolution cognition and or the history of religion

The Church System, or The Preponderances of Mr. K. Tomasz Polak, The preponderances of Mr K in the title of this book refers to the short anecdotal stories written by Bertolt Brecht The author invited Mr K to introduce his comprehensive analyses of the church system i e the inner raison d tre of Christian communities cultures or institutions His book presents six insights into the origins nature and functioning of the church system Each of them is explained and illustrated with vivid erudite references to texts and actions that reveal the very viscera of that system This book s central metaphor is that of the core and shells of the church system
