Safe As Houses Eric Walters:

Safe As Houses Eric Walters, 2009-01-06 Based on true accounts of the night of Hurricane Hazel in 1954 the story tells three brave and resourceful children against all odds got themselves to the relative safety of a slippery rooftop just in time to escape drowning only to have to escape again into the water as the house is torn from its foundations by the furious churning flood

To Stand and Fight Together Steve Pitt, 2008-02-08 In 1812 a 67 year old black United Empire Loyalist named Richard Pierpoint helped raise a corps of Coloured Men to stand and fight together against the Americans who were threatening to invade the tiny British colony of Upper Canada Pierpoint's unique fighting unit would not only see service throughout the War of 1812 it would also be the first colonial military unit reactivated to quash the Rebellion of 1837 It would go on to serve as a police force keeping the peace among the competing Irish immigrant gangs during the construction of the Welland Canal Pierpoint and the Coloured Corps are the central focus but the sidebars featuring fascinating facts about the rise and fall of slavery in North America and the state of African Canadians in early Canada provide an entertaining and informative supplement Among other tidbits readers will find out why Good Queen Bess launched the British slave industry and how Scottish pineapples are connected to the American Declaration of Independence
