The Psychology Major's Handbook Tara L. Kuther, 2024-02-19 Research shows that today's students are unique. Whether anxious, overwhelmed, or too busy to ask for help, modern students trust and turn to the resources at their fingertips for guidance. Tara Kuther created The Psychology Major's Handbook for this purpose to bridge the gap between advisor and manual. Created to support and follow along with a student through college, this text provides the support of an advisor as students navigate choosing a major, learning how to study, writing papers, and deciding what to do after college. Within each chapter, Kuther supports learners in applying concepts to their own lives through embedded exercises. The updated Sixth Edition encourages students to take an active role in their education and explains all of the ways that students can influence their own college experiences. Three individual chapters emphasize academics and cover crucial study and college skills such as writing a review paper and an APA Style empirical paper. The final four chapters of the text focus on bachelor's and graduate opportunities to help students look past graduation.

Reflective Practice, Third Edition Sara Horton-Deutsch, Gwen Sherwood, 2023-10-31 The third edition of Reflective Practice depicts the concept of reimagining in such a brilliant way and is a must-have resource for nurses. Portia Janine Jordan, PhD, MBA, MCUR, RN, FANSA, Professor, Department of Nursing and Midwifery, Faculty of Medicine and Health Sciences, Stellenbosch University. This incredible edition of a professional masterpiece pulls together global leaders, creative thinkers, entrepreneurs, educators, and practitioners to support and guide us as healthcare professionals. A joy to read and a must-read for all professionals who are reflexive.

Thomas Kearns, EdD, MEd, BNS, RGN, RPN, RNT, FAAN, FFMRC, SI, Past Executive Director, Dean, Faculty of Nursing and Midwifery, RCSI, University of Medicine and Health Sciences, Dublin, Co. Director, Global Innovation and Leadership Academy, Faculty of Nursing and Midwifery, RCSI. In this outstanding book, Sara Horton-Deutsch and Gwen Sherwood provide an invaluable resource for nurse educators and their students. Reflective Practice: Reimagining Ourselves. Reimagining Nursing takes a complex topic and makes it accessible for learners across all levels. This should be required reading in all nursing programs.

Pamela R. Jeffries, PhD, RN, FAAN, ANEF, FSSH, Dean of Nursing, Valere Potter, Professor of Nursing, Vanderbilt School of Nursing. A nurse's work is multifaceted, medically complex, technically precise, and physically demanding. But nursing, the act of caring, is also social, emotional, impactful, and personal. Because nursing education programs prioritize the importance of the technical and physical aspects of nursing, that is what they teach. This leaves practicing nurses poorly equipped to understand the science of caring and unprepared for the constant stream of emotional and psychological stressors that come with this profoundly important work. The unintended consequences of this omission include burnout, toxic work environments, and exodus from the profession. In this highly anticipated and particularly timely third edition of Reflective Practice, authors Sara Horton-Deutsch and Gwen Sherwood invite readers to reflect, recalibrate, reimagine, rethink, and reframe the work of nursing care and their various roles and relationships within it. This book focuses first on the individual then practice settings and finally systems and communities while providing supporting theoretical frameworks practical applications and opportunities for personal and shared reflection along the way Reflective Practice guides nurses to emotional and psychological fulfillment in all aspects of care

Writing Elena L. Grigorenko, Elisa Mambrino, David D. Preiss, 2012-05-04 This book captures the diversity and richness of writing as it relates to different forms of abilities skills competencies and expertise Psychologists educators researchers and practitioners in neighboring areas are interested in exploring how writing develops and in what manner this development can be fostered but they lack a handy unified and comprehensive source of information to satisfy their interest The goal of this book is to fill this void by reflecting on the phenomenon of writing from a developmental perspective. It contains an integrated set of chapters devoted to issues of writing: how writing develops, how it is and should be taught, and how writing paths of development differ across writing genres. Specifically, the book addresses typologies of writing pathways, the development of writing skills, stages of the development of writing, individual differences in the acquisition of writing skills, writing ability and disability, teaching writing, and the development and demonstration of expertise in writing.

The Meaningful Writing Project Michele Eodice, Anne Ellen Geller, Neal Lerner, 2017-03-01. In the face of the continuing discourse of crisis in US education, The Meaningful Writing Project offers readers an affirming story of writing in higher education that shares students' experiences in their own voices. In presenting the results of a three-year study consisting of surveys and interviews of university seniors and their faculty across three diverse institutions, authors Michele Eodice, Anne Ellen Geller, and Neal Lerner consider students' perceptions of their meaningful writing experiences, the qualities of those experiences, and instructors' perspectives on assignment design and delivery. This study confirms that meaningful assignments offer students opportunities to engage with instructors, peers, and texts and are relevant to past experiences and passions as well as to future aspirations and identities. Meaningful writing occurs across majors in both required and elective courses and beyond students' years at college. Additionally, the study makes clear that faculty across the curriculum devote significant care and attention to creating writing assignments that support student learning as they understand writing performance to be a developmental process connected to overall cognitive and social development, student engagement with learning, and success in a wide variety of disciplines and professions. The Meaningful Writing Project provides writing center directors, WPAs, other composition scholars, and all faculty interested in teaching and learning with writing an unprecedented look into the writing projects students find meaningful.

The Person of the Therapist Training Model Harry J. Aponte,Karni

Kissil,2016-01-08 The Person of the Therapist Training Model presents a model that prepares therapists to make active and purposeful use of who they are personally and professionally in all aspects of the therapeutic process relationship assessment and intervention The authors take a process that seems vague and elusive the self of the therapist work and provide a step by step description of how to conceptualize structure and implement a training program designed to facilitate the creation of effective therapists who are skilled at using their whole selves in their encounters with clients This book looks to make conscious and planned use of a therapist's race gender culture values life experience and in particular personal vulnerabilities and struggles in how he or she relates and works with clients This evidence supported resource is ideal for clinicians supervisors and training programs

Whiteness and White Privilege in Psychotherapy Andrea Dottolo, Ellyn Kaschak, 2018-02-02 This unprecedented interdisciplinary collection focuses on gender whiteness and white privilege and sheds light on this understudied subject matter in the context of clinical psychology in both theories and applications Psychologists especially therapists are often trained to look for issues that are not readily visible cannot be spoken and that are commonly taken for granted Feminist and multi cultural researchers and practitioners further seek to expose the power structures that benefit them or that unfairly advantage some groups over others Whiteness has been investigated by sociologists and critical race theorists but has been largely overlooked by psychologists and psychotherapists even those who deal with feminist and multi cultural issues This volume explores the ways in which gender whiteness and white privilege intersect in the therapy room bringing to light that which is often unseen and thus unnamed while examining issues of epistemology theory supervision and practice in feminist therapies The various contributions encompass theory history empirical research personal reflections and practical teaching strategies for the classroom The authors remind us that whiteness and other forms of privilege are situated among multiple other forces structures identities and experiences and cannot be examined alone without context This book was originally published as a special issue of Women Therapy
