Aging in the Global South Maria Carinnes P. Alejandria, Subharati Ghosh, Nicolas Sacco, 2018-12-18 This book is a collection of work on aging and development from authors from the global south Aging is steadily evolving as a public health and social crisis for which countries of the global south are ill prepared The forces of development and improved public health services have ensured that human beings live longer But there is enough evidence that such longevity does not commensurate with good health As such many countries of the global south are seeing a booming population who are aging in poor health without the necessary safety net to ensure quality of life This book discusses work from Asia Africa and South America to explore the challenges facing older adults Topics include aging in institutions living arrangements of older adults food insecurity social isolation end of life migration and policy papers This is the first book to bring together varied perspectives on the situation of older adults and the challenges and opportunities that lie in developing innovative sustainable programs to support elderly care services

Practical Theology and Majority World Epistemologies Alfred Brunson, Calida Chu, 2024-11-08 This book offers insights into the thinking of majority world practical theologians and introduces the reader to faith realities previously unknown in a quest to create a more inclusive and welcoming practical theological network Practical theologians are situated in all corners of the globe attempting to make sense of their lived experiences and of those around them from a faith perspective Historically practical theology tended to be constructed from academics situated in the West and indirectly marginalized those in and from the majority world Against this backdrop this book is a deliberate attempt to empower practical theological voices from the further corners of the global village based upon the conviction that sharing epistemologies creates an opportunity not only to learn about others and the contexts in which they live but from them enhancing the meaning making of practical theology in the present Cognisant that epistemology as a formal discipline does not always centre lived experience practical theology has historically prioritised the importance of wisdom worldview and a way of life for individual and collective knowing The diverse issues addressed in this work offers insights into the thinking of mainly Asian and African practical theologians and introduces readers to the faith realities previously unknown to create a more inclusive and welcoming practical theological network This book was originally published as a special issue of the journal Practical Theology

Conviviality and Survival Sacha Darke, 2018-07-16 Brazilian authorities continuously fail to comply with international norms on minimal conditions of incarceration Brazil's prison population has risen ten fold since the country's return to democracy in the 1980s Its prisons typically operate at double official capacity and with 100 prisoners for each guard on duty At the same time however the average Brazilian prison is not as disorderly or its staff inmate relations so conflictual as our established theories on prison life might predict This monograph explores the means by which Brazilian prisons function in the absence of guards More specifically the means by which prison security and inmate discipline is negotiated between prison managers gangs and the wider inmate body While fragile and varied this historical tradition of co produced governance has for decades kept most prisons in better order and enabled most prisoners to better survive

Migration and Remittances in Latin America and the Caribbean Ms. Kimberly Beaton, Ms. Svetlana Cerovic, Misael Galdamez, Metodij Hadzi-Vaskov, Franz Loyola, Zsoka Koczan, Mr. Bogdan Lissovolik, Mr. Jan Kees Martijn, Ms. Yulia Ustyugova, Joyce Wong, 2017-06-29 Outward migration has been an important phenomenon for countries in Latin American and the Caribbean LAC particularly those in Central America and the Caribbean This paper examines recent trends in outward migration from and remittances to LAC as well as their costs and benefits For the home country the negative impact from emigration on labor resources and productivity seems to outweigh growth gains from remittances notably for the Caribbean However given emigration remittance flows play key financing and stabilizing

roles in Central America and the Caribbean They facilitate private consumption smoothing support financial sector stability and fiscal revenues and help reduce poverty and inequality without strong evidence for harmful competitiveness effects through shifts in the real exchange rate Strong Patronage, Weak Parties: The Case For Electoral System Redesign In The Philippines Paul Hutchcroft,2020-01-13 The current combination of electoral systems in the Philippines essentially guarantees the perpetuation of weak and incoherent political parties As long as parties are weak and lacking in coherence the primary focus of political contention is much more likely to be on patronage and pork than on policies and programs As political reformers seek to address these fundamental problems of the Philippine polity there is no better place to start than through a well constructed set of changes to the electoral system In this volume expert contributors survey major types of electoral systems found throughout the world explain their powerful influence on both democratic quality and development outcomes and explore the comparative political dynamics of reform processes A recurring theme is the virtue of a mixed electoral system involving some element of closed list proportional representation known internationally as one of the most effective means of building stronger and more coherent political parties This in turn can be expected to encourage the emergence of a more policy oriented and less patronage driven polity Discrete and Computational Geometry, Graphs, and Games Jin Akiyama,Reginaldo M. Marcelo,Mari-Jo P. Ruiz,Yushi Uno,2021-10-28 This book constitutes the thoroughly refereed post conference proceedings of the 21st Japanese Conference on Discrete and Computational Geometry and Graphs JCDCGGG 2018 held in Quezon City Philippines in September 2018 The total of 14 papers included in this volume was carefully reviewed and selected from 25 submissions The papers feature advances made in the field of computational geometry and focus on emerging technologies new methodology and applications graph theory and dynamics

Asia's Quest for Balance Jay L. Batongbacal, Elliot Brennan, Tetsuo Kotani, Evan A. Laksmana, Joseph Chinyong Liow, Hunter Marston, Rory Medcalf, Sylvia Mishra, C. Raja Mohan, Prashanth Parameswaran, Tran Truong Thuy, Ha Anh Tuan, 2018-10-15 In recent years the narrative surrounding China s peaceful rise has given way to a more ominous story of friction ambition and great power rivalry As Chinese foreign policy has grown more nationalist and assertive its intensifying competition with the U S has assumed center stage The impact on China s neighbors by contrast and their evolving responses have received comparatively less attention The Realist theory of international relations suggests the rapid accumulation of power by one nation state will prompt its neighbors and peers to adopt Balancing strategies They will strive enhance their internal defense capabilities and forge new external security partnerships to hedge against this potential new threat Have these predictions rung true Are key Indo Pacific capitals Balancing and drawing closer to the U S as insurance against Chinese aggression Or is China a new breed of rising power challenging traditional theories of international relations in a newly globalized economically interdependent world In Asia s Quest for Balance China s Rise and Balancing in the Indo Pacific leading author experts from Australia India Indonesia Japan Malaysia Myanmar the Philippines Singapore and Vietnam explore these questions and more decoding China s complex and evolving relationships with its neighbors and exploring how their responses are altering the security landscape of the region Contributions by Jay L Batongbacal Elliot Brennan Tetsuo Kotani Evan A Laksmana Joseph Chinyong Liow Hunter Marston Rory Medcalf Sylvia Mishra C Raja Mohan Prashanth Parameswaran Jeff M Smith Tran Truong Thuy and Ha Anh Tuan

Environmental Health Perspectives , 2004-07 The Political Impossibility of Modern Counterinsurgency M.L.R. Smith, David Martin Jones, 2015-05-19 The counterinsurgency COIN paradigm dominates military and political conduct in contemporary Western strategic thought It assumes future wars will unfold as low intensity conflicts within rather than between states requiring specialized military training and techniques COIN is understood as a logical effective and democratically palatable method for confronting insurgency a discrete set of practices that through the actions of knowledgeable soldiers and under the guidance of an expert elite creates lasting results Through an extensive investigation into COIN s theories methods and outcomes this book undermines enduring claims about COIN s success while revealing its hidden meanings and effects Interrogating the relationship between counterinsurgency and war the authors question the supposed uniqueness of COIN's attributes and try to resolve the puzzle of its intellectual identity. Is COIN a strategy, a doctrine, a theory, a military practice, or something else? Their analysis ultimately exposes a critical paradox within COIN while it ignores the vital political dimensions of war: it is nevertheless the product of a misplaced ideological faith in modernization.
