Jesus and Mel Gibson's The Passion of the Christ Kathleen E. Corley, Robert L. Webb, 2004-08-25 An exciting and engaging book that will appeal not only to academics but to the film viewing public educated lay persons and students Not only will the book aid this audience in a greater appreciation of the film The Passion of the Christ but perhaps more importantly it will enable the reader to distinguish between both the contents of the film and the contents of the Gospels and between the contents of the film and what may be historically reconstructed about Jesus Furthermore the book will aid the reader to appreciate the contributions that the study of the Gospels and the historical study of Jesus can make to the discussion of the film The Passion of the Christ Jesus and Mel Gibson's The Passion of the Christ is edited by Kathleen E Corley Oshkosh Northwestern Distinguished Professor and Professor of New Testament at the University of Wisconsin Oshkosh Wisconsin and Robert L Webb an independent scholar living near Toronto Ontario Canada The other contributors are Dr John Dominic Crossan Professor Emeritus of religious Studies at DePaul University Illinois Dr Helen K Bond Lecturer in New Testament Language Literature and Theology at New College University of Edinburgh UK Dr Craig A Evans Payzant Distinguished Professor of New Testament at Acadia Divinity College Nova Scotia Canada Dr Mark Goodacre Senior Lecturer in New Testament at the Department of Theology University of Birmingham UK Dr Glenna S Jackson Associate Professor in the Department of Religion and Philosophy at Otterbein College Westerville Ohio Dr Scot McKnight Karl A Olsson Professor in Religious Studies at North Park University Chicago Illinois Dr Mark Allan Powell Professor of New Testament at Trinity Lutheran Seminary in Columbus Ohio Alan F Segal Professor of Religion and Ingeborg Rennert Professor of Jewish Studies at Barnard College Columbia University New York Dr W Barnes Tatum Professor of Religion and Philosophy at Greensboro College North Carolina David J Goa Curator Emeritus at the Provincial Museum of Alberta and a Fellow of the M V Dimic Institute for the Study of Culture at the University of Alberta

Flashbacks in Film Maureen Turim, 2013-12-17 The flashback is a crucial moment in a film narrative one that captures the cinematic expression of memory and history This author's wide ranging account of this single device reveals it to be an important way of creating cinematic meaning Taking as her subject all of film history the author traces out the history of the flashback illuminating that history through structuralist narrative theory psychoanalytic theories of subjectivity and theories of ideology From the American silent film era and the European and Japanese avant garde of the twenties from film noir and the psychological melodrama of the forties and fifties to 1980s art and Third World cinema the flashback has interrogated time and memory making it a nexus for ideology representations of the psyche and shifting cultural attitudes

Flashbacks in Film Adriana Gordejuela, 2021-04-26 Flashbacks in Film examines film flashback as a rich multimodal narrative device analyzing the cognitive underpinnings of film flashbacks and the mechanisms that lead viewers to successfully comprehend them Combining a cognitive film theory approach with the theoretical framework proposed by blending theory which claims that human beings general ability for conceptual integration underlies most of our daily activities this book argues that flashbacks make sense to the viewer as they are specifically designed for the viewer's cognitive understanding Through a mixture of analysis and dozens of case studies this book demonstrates that successful film flashbacks appeal to the spectator's natural perceptual and cognitive abilities which spectators exercise daily This book will serve as a valuable resource for scholars interested in film studies media studies and cognitive linguistics

Introduction to The Last of Us (TV series) Gilad James, PhD, The Last of Us is an upcoming TV series adaptation of the popular video game developed by Naughty Dog and published by Sony Computer Entertainment The game was released in 2013 and quickly gained a strong following for its narrative characters and gameplay It takes place in a post apocalyptic world where humanity has been decimated by a fungal outbreak that turns people into zombie like creatures The story follows Joel a smuggler and Ellie a teenage girl as they journey across the United States in search of safety The TV series will be produced by HBO with Neil Druckmann who was the writer and creative director of the game serving as one of the executive producers Craig Mazin who wrote and produced the critically acclaimed Chernobyl will be the showrunner The series is highly anticipated by fans of the game who are eager to see how the story and characters will be adapted for television So far there is no release date for the series but it is expected to premiere sometime in 2022

Minding Movies David Bordwell, Kristin Thompson, 2011-04-15 David Bordwell and Kristin Thompson are two of America's preeminent film scholars You would be hard pressed to find a serious student of the cinema who hasn't spent at least a few hours huddled with their seminal introduction to the field Film Art now in its ninth edition or a cable television junkie unaware that the Independent Film Channel sagely christened them the Critics of the Naughts Since launching their blog Observations on Film Art in 2006 the two have added web virtuosos to their growing list of accolades pitching unconventional long form pieces engaged with film artistry that have helped to redefine cinematic storytelling for a new age and audience Minding Movies presents a selection from over three hundred essays on genre movies art films animation and the business of Hollywood that have graced Bordwell and Thompson's blog Informal pieces conversational in tone but grounded in three decades of authoritative research the essays gathered here range from in depth analyses of individual films such as Slumdog Millionaire and Inglourious Basterds to adjustments of Hollywood media claims and forays into cinematic humor For Bordwell and Thompson the most fruitful place to begin is how movies are made how they work and how they work on us Written for film lovers these essays on topics ranging from Borat to blockbusters and back again will delight current fans and gain new enthusiasts Serious but not solemn vibrantly informative without condescension and above all illuminating reading Minding Movies offers ideas sure to set film lovers thinking and keep them returning to the silver screen

Putnam,1997-08-08 Illustrates the critical association between pathological dissociation and trauma and provides a clear synthesis of what is known about the psychobiology of dissociative disorders and the effects of pathological dissociation on cognition and memory Amply illustrated with clinical vignettes it also offers an array of diagnostic and treatment techniques The Difficult-to-Treat Psychiatric Patient Mantosh J. Dewan,Ronald W. Pies,2008-08-13 Why do some psychiatric patients fail to get better even when in the care of competent clinicians Treatment refractory conditions are all too common in everyday clinical practice Treatment resistance occurs across the full spectrum of psychiatric disorders incurring enormous emotional economic and social costs In the United States treatment of depression alone costs more than 40 billion annually and as many as 40% of patients with depression have a treatment refractory form of the illness This groundbreaking clinical guide starts where standard textbooks end focusing on clinical strategies to be used after all basic treatment options such as medication and psychotherapy have failed In this book expert contributors address the sequential clinical steps in treating difficult to treat psychiatric patients by offering a blend of evidence based clinical recommendations detailed case vignettes treatment algorithms and when necessary to go beyond the reach of evidence the clinical wisdom of leaders in the field The chapters in this user friendly practical guide are organized by major disorder Each chapter offers concrete recommendations on what to do when the usual first steps in therapy are ineffective including evidence for biopsychosocial treatments alone versus in combination generic versus specific therapies and literature reviews and the latest expert wisdom A sampling includes The management of the complex and often refractory bipolar disorder which involves replacing or combining lithium treatment with anticonvulsants or atypical antipsychotic agents with adjuncts such as benzodiazepines thyroid hormone and electroconvulsive therapy but also above all with careful attention to the therapeutic alliance The importance of combined therapeutic modalities for patients with schizophrenia especially given managed care s cost cutting strategies which deprive many schizophrenic patients of effective treatment modalities such as family therapy or early use of an atypical antipsychotic Combination treatments for anxiety with medications adjusted over time as symptoms wax and wane and early and appropriate interventions to mitigate internal and external environmental stressors The emphasis on common sense optimism a sense of humor and an iron constitution as the most important tools for clinicians wishing to work with the most severely ill patients with borderline personality disorder The importance of individual differences in biological vulnerability emotionality and expressiveness cognitive schemas and beliefs prior traumatic experience resilience and coping strategies for successful treatment of posttraumatic stress disorder Packed with up to date information of immediate relevance this volume will prove invaluable in both classroom and clinical practice for everyone from beginning interns and residents to experienced psychiatric and medical practitioners and social workers A Dictionary of Hallucinations Jan Dirk Blom,2009-12-08 A Dictionary of Hallucinations is designed to serve as a reference manual for neuroscientists psychiatrists psychiatric residents psychologists neurologists historians of psychiatry general practitioners and academics dealing professionally with concepts of hallucinations and other sensory deceptions Resurrection After Rape Matt Atkinson,2008-06 A top selling best reviewed book about women s recovery from rape trauma Resurrection After Rape is an ideal resource for counselors treatment centers college course texts and survivors of rape Resolving Childhood Trauma Catherine Cameron,2000-02-17 Based on a 12 year study with 60 survivors of child sexual abuse Catherine Cameron sets out to understand their early trauma and its impact over subsequent years and to monitor their progress toward recovery The difficult but rewarding process of their recovery unfolded over time along with increasing societal awareness of the problem In 1998 a final survey provided the epilogue for their story Cameron grounds their personal stories by citing parallels to the larger field of national and international trauma The result is a compelling and deeply human story of trauma and triumph Witness Frederik Tygstrup,Ulrik Ekman,2008 Offers a complex anthology of essays respecting the notion of the witness and phenomena of witnessing in Western culture since the Holocaust This book presents a body of work in the field by an international collective of scholars concerned with resituating witnessing in its specifically contemporary problematic Reading Skills Mini-Lessons Sara Gruver,2003-04-14 Improve students reading skills one strategy at a time with brief lessons on prediction sequence cause and effect and more Each mini lesson includes a complete lesson plan reproducible student activity pages and suggestions for additional practice Also included are silent reading practice pages and suggested literature activities to reinforce the skills Dissociation and the Dissociative Disorders Paul F. Dell,John A. O'Neil,2010-11 Winner of ISSTD s 2009 Pierre Janet Writing Award for the best publication on dissociation in 2009 Dissociation and the Dissociative Disorders is a book that has no real predecessor in the dissociative disorders field It reports the most recent scientific findings and conceptualizations about dissociation defines and establishes the boundaries of current knowledge in the dissociative disorders field identifies and carefully articulates the field s current points of confusion gaps in knowledge and conjectures clarifies the different aspects and implications of dissociation and sets forth a research agenda for the next decade In many respects Dissociation and the Dissociative Disorders both defines and redefines the field Handbook of Dissociation

Larry K. Michelson, William J. Ray, 2013-06-29 Within the last decade there has been a tremendous explosion in the clinical theoretical and empirical literature related to the study of dissociation Not since the work done at the turn of the century by Pierre Janet Morton Prince William James and others have the psychological and medical communities shown this great an interest in describing and understanding dissociative phenomena This volume is the result of this significant expansion Presently interest in the scientific and clinical progress in the field of dissociation is indicated by the following 1 The explosion of conferences workshops and seminars devoted to dissociative disorders treatment and research 2 The emergence of NIMH supported investigations that focus on dissociation 3 The burgeoning literature on dissociation According to a 1992 bibliographic analysis of the field by Goettman et al 1992 72% of all writings on the topic have appeared in the past decade with about 1000 published papers scattered across diverse disciplines and journals 4 Current interest in dissociation as reflected in the appearance of major articles and special issues in respected psychology and psychiatry journals 5 The initiation of a journal entitled Dissociation Richard Kluft MD Editor devoted to the area
