Flashforward:

Flashforward Robert J. Sawyer, 2014-05-06 Robert J. Sawyer's award winning science fiction has garnered both popular and critical acclaim. The New York Times Book Review called Frameshift filled to bursting with ideas, characters and incidents. His novels are fixtures on the Hugo and Nebula ballots. Sawyer now brings us Flashforward, the story of a world shattering discovery. In pursuit of an elusive nuclear particle, an experiment goes incredibly awry and for a few moments the consciousness of the entire human race is thrown ahead by about twenty years. As the implications truly hit home, the pressure to repeat the experiment builds. Everyone wants a glimpse of their future, a chance to flashforward and see their successes or learn how to avoid their failures. Winner of the Aurora Award and the basis for the hit ABC television series At the Publisher's request, this title is being sold without Digital Rights Management Software (DRM) applied. Die Übertragbarkeit von US-amerikanischen Serienformaten Angela Boldt, Benjamin Hänisch, 2012-04-26 Wir leben in einer Zeit des ständig wachsenden Medienangebotes. Um sich als TV-Sender bemerkbar zu machen, spielt die TV-Programmplanung eine wichtige Rolle. Zentraler Aspekt der Arbeit ist, wie TV-Formate vor dem Programmeinkauf geprüft werden können. Im wissenschaftlich-theoretischen Teil werden der US-amerikanische und der deutsche Markt betrachtet. Eine weitere Grundlage für den empirischen Teil bildet die Betrachtung der Erfolgsfaktoren und Systemforschung. Die Autoren beschränken die Untersuchung auf das Genre Science Fiction und zwei ausgewählte Serien. Im empirischen Teil erstellen die Autoren ein Modell, mit dem eine Funktion zur Vorhersage des Serienerfolgs erstellt wird. Dieses Modell wird in mehreren Schritten auf die Gegebenheiten angepasst und bildet das Forschungsergebnis. Schmerzen behandeln mit EMDR Jonas Tesarz, Günter H. Chick TV Yael Levy, 2022-03-14 Tony Soprano Don Draper and Walter White ushered in the era of the television antihero with compelling narratives and complex characters While critics and academics celebrated these characters the antiheroines who populated television screens in the twenty first century were pushed to the margins and dismissed as chick TV In this volume Yael Levy advances antiheroines to the forefront of television criticism revealing the varied and subtle ways in which they perform feminist resistance Offering a retooling of gendered media analyses Levy finds antiheroism not only in the morally questionable cop and tormented lawyer but also in the housewife and nurse who inhabit more stereotypical feminine roles By analyzing Girls Desperate Housewives Nurse Jackie Being Mary Jane Grey s Anatomy Six Feet Under Sister Wives and the Real Housewives franchise Levy explores the narrative complexities of chick TV and the radical feminist potential of these shows Besides the Screen V. Discourse Organization in the Comprehension of Narrative Texts Keisuke Ohtsuka, William F. Brewer, 1988 Time, Technology and Narrative Form in Contemporary US Television Drama JP Kelly, 2017-10-09 This book examines how television has been transformed over the past twenty years by the introduction of new viewing technologies including DVDs DVRs and streaming services such as Netflix Hulu and Amazon Prime It shows that these platforms have profoundly altered the ways we access and watch television enabling viewers to pause rewind record and archive the once irreversible flow of broadcast TV JP Kelly argues that changes in the technological landscape of television has encouraged the production of narrative forms that both explore and embody new industrial temporalities Focusing on US television but also considering the role of TV within a global marketplace the author identifies three distinct narrative temporalities acceleration 24 Prison Break complexity Lost FlashForward and retrospection Mad Men Through industrial textual analysis of television shows this cross disciplinary study locates these narrative temporalities in their socio cultural contexts and examines connections between production distribution and narrative form in the contemporary television industry Serielle Überbietung Andreas

Time and Space in Literacy Research Catherine Compton-Lilly, Erica Halverson, 2014-04-24 Literacy researchers interested in how specific sites of learning situate students and the ways they make sense of their worlds are asking new questions and thinking in new ways about how time and space operate as contextual dimensions in the learning lives of students, teachers, and families. These investigations inform questions related to history, identity, methodology in school and out of school spaces, and local/global literacies. An engaging blend of methodological, theoretical, and empirical work featuring well-known researchers on the topic, this book provides a conceptual framework for extending existing conceptions of context and provides unique and ground-breaking examples of empirical research.

LOST in Media Benjamin Beil, Lorenz Engell, Jens Schröter, Herbert Schwaab, Daniela Wentz, 2018-02-21 The television series LOST initiated a wide-ranging academic debate which centered on its narrative and temporal complexity while also addressing the massive expansion into other media and consequently crossing established genre categories. This expansion poses the essential question about the status of the original medium television within recent multiple media configurations. Can LOST be regarded as a symptom of television in the process of media change? What is the relation between LOST's temporality and that of television in general? And how can LOST be understood as a phenomenon of mediatized worlds? The contributions in this book examine these questions. The book's editors are members of the project TV Series as Reflection and Projection of Change, which is part of the DFG Priority Program 1505 Mediatized Worlds Series. Time in Twenty-First-Century British and American Literature Sonia Front, 2025-06-20 This book investigates representations of time in twenty-first-century Anglo-American literature. In the digital era, characterized by a new regime of time fiction, offers revisions of prevalent oppressive notions of time that can serve as productive political strategies to reclaim the agency of the subject. This book discusses literary texts that craft innovative temporal structures out of sync with the new time logic: suspended temporality (Chapter 1), time as a conflation of phenomenological experience and cosmological laws (Chapter 2), previewing the future (Chapter 3), and networked memory (Chapter 4). The proposed politically productive temporalities, such as deep presence or resonance, compatibilism, contingency, and the use of narrative as a chronologizing strategy, ground a vision of change and suggest a way out of the crisis of time. Identifying new timeframes in twenty-first-century fiction by an array of writers, this book demonstrates that literature remains a valid medium for theorizing and representing time.

The Prison of Time Elisa Pezzotta,2022-08-25 We are imprisoned in circadian rhythms as well as in our life reviews that follow chronological and causal links For the majority of us our lives are vectors directed toward aims that we strive to reach and delimited by our birth and death Nevertheless we can still experience fleeting moments during which we forget the past and the future as well as the very flow of time During these intense emotions we burst out laughing or crying or we scream with pleasure or we are mesmerized by a work of art or just by eyes staring at us Similarly when we watch a film the screening time has a well defined beginning and end and screening and diegetic time and their relations together with narrative and stylistic techniques determine a time within the time of our life with its own rules and exceptions Through the close analysis of Stanley Kubrick s Adrian Lyne s Michael Bay s and Quentin Tarantino s oeuvres this book discusses the overall dominating time of their films and the moments during which this ruling time is disrupted and we momentarily forget the run toward the diegetic future suspense or the past curiosity and surprise It is in these very moments as well as in our own lives that the prison of time through which the film is constructed and that is constructed by the film itself crumbles displaying our role as spectators our deepest relations with the film
