

- The people factor
 - An engineer is primarily concerned with tasks while an engineering manager is concerned with people, whether they are within one's direct control or not
 - Engineers find this wasteful of time and would rather do things themselves, something which the engineering manager must never do
 - Managers must delegate technical tasks.
 - Reviews and discussions with staff should not be limited to tasks, but should cover personnel issues as well, such as development
 - A manager cannot poach staff from another department
 - Engineering managers must plan for product failure and be able to reorganize their team when it occurs
