Race in Society Margaret L. Andersen, 2021-03-12 Comprehensive yet concise Margaret Andersen's Race in Society Second Edition is a topical introduction to race and ethnicity organized around four key questions: What does the idea of race mean and where does it come from? What are the consequences of the social construction of race? How is racial inequality structured into social institutions? What are different policies and approaches for change toward racial justice? In her accessible student-friendly style, Andersen introduces readers to the current scholarship on race, including recent studies conducted during the COVID-19 pandemic and the protests following the murder of George Floyd. New to this edition: New coverage of the effects of COVID-19 included throughout the book, including its impact on anti-Asian racism, violent crime, racial disparities in health care, and people of color in low-wage service jobs. Expanded discussion of immigration, including US politics about immigration and national borders, displays the connection between immigration and racialization. Updated discussion of policing, police violence, and both historical and contemporary acts of vigilante justice against people of color. Updated information on residential and educational segregation, including new material on the racial achievement gap and the effects of school closures during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Intercultural Communication Kathryn Sorrells, 2020-12-23 Winner of the 2022 Textbook Excellence Award from the Textbook Academic Authors Association (TAA), Intercultural Communication: Globalization and Social Justice introduces students to the study of communication among cultures within the broader context of globalization. Author Kathryn Sorrells highlights history, power, and global institutions as central to understanding the relationships and contexts that shape intercultural communication. Promoting critical thinking, reflection, and action, the text's social justice approach equips students with the knowledge and skills to create a more equitable world through communication. The Third Edition includes new case studies, updated examples and statistics, and expanded discussions on timely topics like the rise of ethnonationalism and white nationalism and the impact of new media on global communication.

Provocateur Anthony J. Cortese, 2015-10-01 In the fourth edition of Provocateur, sociologist Anthony J. Cortese offers an up-to-date critical analysis of modern advertising. Though we often hear that we live in a period of unprecedented gender and racial equality, both racism and sexism persist in a most telling area: the ads with which we are inundated every day in newspapers and magazines and online. Cortese examines the ideologies surrounding gender and race by delving into the presentation of women, ethnic minorities, children, and anyone who is qualified as "other" in society. Featuring a fresh selection of nearly 400 advertisements, this edition includes new scholarship from gender, racial, and cultural studies; new chapters on gay and lesbian marketing and aggression and violence in the media; an expanded chapter on race in advertising; and more. This edition is ideal for sociology, communication, and gender and ethnic studies courses, as well as for use as a go-to reference.
