Urban Studies and Entrepreneurship

Muhammad Naveed Iftikhar, Jonathan B. Justice, David B. Audretsch, 2019-05-02 This book attempts to advance critical knowledge and practices for fostering a variety of entrepreneurship at a city level The book aims to connect scholarship and policy practice in two disciplines Urban Studies and Entrepreneurship The book has included contributions from developed emerging and developing countries The chapters are clubbed under five main sections I Startups and Entrepreneurial Opportunities II

Knowledge Spillover III Social and Bureaucratic Entrepreneurialism IV Demography and Informal Entrepreneurs V Perspectives from Emerging and Developing Economies In this regard the book explores a number of questions such as what are the important varieties of entrepreneurship how can they be observed and measured and how does each variety emerge and operate under various conditions of infrastructure and opportunity Which type s of entrepreneurship should a city prefer What can cities do to stimulate desirable forms of entrepreneurship or is it more of a spontaneous phenomenon Why do policies that enhance entrepreneurship in some contexts seem instead to promote crony capitalism and rent seeking in other contexts Should cities focus on growing their own entrepreneurs and entrepreneurial enterprises or on luring them from other cities and countries How can a collective action in a city promote or hinder entrepreneurship The contributions in the present volume address head on these questions at the intersection of urban studies economic theory and the practicalities of economic development and urban governance in a genuinely global range of places and applications The Contemporary Museum Simon Knell,2018-10-11 The Contemporary Museum issues a challenge to those who view the museum as an artefact of history constrained in its outlook as much by professional institutional and disciplinary creed as by the collections it accumulated in the distant past Denying that the museum can locate its purpose in the pursuit of tradition or in idealistic speculation about the future the book asserts that this can only be found through an ongoing and proactive negotiation with the present the contemporary This volume is not concerned with any present but with the peculiar circumstances of what it refers to as the global contemporary the sense of living in a globally connected world that is preoccupied with the contemporary To situate the museum in this world of real and immediate need and action beyond the reach of history the book argues is to empower it to challenge existing dogmas and inequalities and sweep aside old hierarchies As a result fundamental questions need to be asked about such things as the museum s relationship to global time and space to systems and technologies of knowing to the life well lived to the movement and rights of people and to the psychology permanence and organisation of culture Incorporating diverse viewpoints from around the world The Contemporary Museum is a follow up volume to Museum Revolutions and as such should be essential reading for students in the fields of museum and heritage studies cultural studies communication and media studies art history and social policy Academics and museum professionals will also find this book a source of inspiration Advances in Production Management Systems.
