E. J. Josey Renate L. Chancellor, 2020-02-07 This work provides a comprehensive examination of the life and professional career of E J Josey within the broader historical and political landscape of the civil rights movement In the era of Jim Crow Josey rose to prominence in the library profession by challenging the American Library Association ALA to live up to its creed of equality for all This was not easy during the 1950s and 1960s during segregation Using interviews with Josey and his contemporaries as well as several archival sources library educator Renate Chancellor analyzes Josey's leadership particularly within modern day racial currents During his professional career spanning over fifty years 1952 2002 Josey worked as a librarian 1953 1966 an administrator of library services 1966 1986 and as a professor of library science 1986 1995 He also served as President of the American Library Association and perhaps his most notable achievement he successfully drafted a resolution that prevented state library associations from discriminating against African American librarians This essentially ended segregation in the ALA Josey's transformative leadership provides a model to tackle today's civil rights challenges both in and outside the library profession. This authoritative work, copublished by the Association for Library and Information Science Education (ALISE), documents for the historical record a significant period of history that is underexplored in the scholarly literature. The target audience for this book are researchers, historians, LIS educators, and students interested in understanding the complex struggle for civil and human rights in professional organizations.

Pioneers in Librarianship
 Christian A. Nappo, 2024-02-28
Pioneers in Librarianship profiles sixty notable librarians who made significant contributions to the field. Librarians chosen for inclusion in this volume met one or more of these three criteria: The librarian conceived a new method for improving library services; invented their own method of book cataloging; or devised an administrative system for libraries to operate under. The librarian is historically famous because he/she was notable historically. The librarian was the first woman or minority to make significant achievements within the field of LIS. The achievements of the librarians profiled here are important because they shaped the field. Many of their theories, ideas, and contributions are still being utilized in libraries today. Librarians profiled here include Melvil Dewey, Carla Hayden, S. R. Ranganathan, Justin Winsor, Charles Coffin Jewett, Katharine Sharp, Pura Belpré, Allie Beth Martin, and John Cotton Dana.
