

The background of the book cover is a classical painting. It depicts a scene of decadence and excess. In the center, a large, muscular, nude male figure stands on a raised platform, looking towards the viewer. He is surrounded by a group of people in classical attire. Some are reclining on the floor, while others are standing. The setting is a grand hall with large columns and a high ceiling. The overall tone is one of opulence and moral decay.

From Dawn to Decadence Jacques Barzun, 2001-05 From Dawn To Decadence chronicles a detailed account of our history since 1500 from what Western Man wrought from the Renaissance and Reformation down to the present day From Dawn to Decadence Jacques Barzun, 2001-05-15 Highly regarded here and abroad for some thirty works of cultural history and criticism master historian Jacques Barzun has now set down in one continuous narrative the sum of his discoveries and conclusions about the whole of Western culture since 1500 In this account Barzun describes what Western Man wrought from the Renaissance and Reformation down to the present in the double light of its own time and our pressing concerns He introduces characters and incidents with his unusual literary style and grace bringing to the fore those that have Puritans as Democrats The Monarch s Revolution The Artist Prophet and Jester show the recurrent role of great themes throughout the eras The triumphs and defeats of five hundred years form an inspiring saga that modifies the current impression of one long tale of oppression by white European males Women and their deeds are prominent and freedom even in sexual matters is not an invention of the last decades And when Barzun rates the present not as a culmination but a decline he is in no way a prophet of doom Instead he shows decadence as the creative novelty that will burst forth tomorrow or the next day Only after a lifetime of separate studies covering a broad territory could a writer create with such ease the synthesis displayed in this magnificent volume From Dawn to Decadence Jacques Barzun, 2000 American Architecture Leland M.
