Translating Others (Volume 1) Theo Hermans, 2014-04-08 Both in the sheer breadth and in the detail of their coverage the essays in these two volumes challenge hegemonic thinking on the subject of translation Engaging throughout with issues of representation in a postmodern and postcolonial world Translating Others investigates the complex processes of projection recognition displacement and othering effected not only by translation practices but also by translation studies as developed in the West At the same time the volumes document the increasing awareness the the world is peopled by others who also translate often in ways radically different from and hitherto largely ignored by the modes of translating conceptualized in Western discourses The languages covered in individual contributions include Arabic Bengali Chinese Hindi Irish Italian Japanese Latin Rajasthani Somali Swahili Tamil Tibetan and Turkish as well as the Europhone literatures of Africa the tongues of medieval Europe and some major languages of Egypt s five thousand year history Neighbouring disciplines invoked include anthropology semiotics museum and folklore studies librarianship and the history of writing systems Contributors to Volume 1 Doris Bachmann Medick Cosima Bruno Ovidi Carbonell Martha Cheung G Gopinathan Eva Hung Alexandra Lianeri Carol Maier Christi Ann Marrill Paolo Rambelli Myriam Salama Carr Ubaldo Steconci and Maria Tymoczko

Topics and Concepts in Literary Translation Roberto A. Valdeón, 2020-06-29 This book explores literary translation in a variety of contexts The chapters showcase the research into literary translation in North America Europe and Asia Written by a group of experienced researchers and young academics the contributors study a variety of languages including English Spanish Italian Chinese French Japanese Dutch German and Swedish use a wide range of approaches including quantitative review of literary translations transfictional approaches to translation and a review of concepts such as paratexts intralingual translation intertextuality and retranslation and aim to expand on existing debates on translation and translation studies as a discipline The chapters aim to provide a panorama of the variety of topics and interests of contemporary translation studies as well as problematize some of the concepts and approaches that seem to have become the only accepted acceptable model in some academic quarters This book was originally published as a special issue of Perspectives Studies in Translation Theory and Practice

Glamour, 2003

Translating and Interpreting Conflict Myriam Salama-Carr, 2007 The relationship between translation and conflict is highly relevant in today s globalised and fragmented world and this is attracting increased academic interest This collection of essays was inspired by the first international conference to directly address the translator and interpreter s involvement in situations of military and ideological conflict and its representation in fiction The collection adopts an interdisciplinary approach and the contributors to the volume bring to bear a variety of perspectives informed by media studies historiography literary scholarship and self reflective interpreting and translation practice The reader is presented with compelling case studies of the embeddedness of translators and interpreters either on the ground or as portrayed in fiction and of their roles in mediating memorizing or rewriting conflict

Transfiction: Characters in Search of Translation Studies Marko Miletich, 2023 This book explores the uses of translation translators and interpreters in fiction as a gateway to introduce issues related to Translation Studies The volume follows recent scholarship on Transfiction a term used to describe the portrayal of translation both a topic and a motif as well as translators and interpreters in fiction and film It expands on the research by Kalus Kaindl Karleheinz Splitzl Michael Cronin and Rosemary Arrojo among others Although the volume reflects the preoccupation with translator visibility it concentrates on the importance of power struggles within the translatorial task The volume could be an invaluable tool to be used for pedagogical purposes to discuss theoretical aspects within Translation and Interpreting Studies
