Queer Politics in Times of New

Authoritarianisms Somak Biswas,Rohit K Dasgupta,Churnjeet Mahn,2024-02-15 Queerness remains a central fault line in contemporary South Asia Colonial era anti sodomy laws codified in Article 377 of the penal codes in India Bangladesh and Pakistan or Article 365 in Sri Lanka exemplify the shared imperial lineages of the region as also their long postcolonial afterlives Across South Asia and the world new authoritarianisms have reignited old fault lines around sexuality New media technologies have increasingly connected diasporic space with mainland South Asia globalising queer networks Yet these trajectories are necessarily discontinuous In the last two decades whilst there has been an explosion of LGBTQ visibility most notably in South Asian film television and new media this visibility has come with mainstream ideological agendas which do not especially represent the diversity of queer lives in South Asia along key identities of caste class religion and region This book seeks to encourage critical thinking by suggesting ways in which notions of culture neoliberalism nationalism and queerness in the context of new authoritarianisms are disentangled The chapters in this volume take up these questions and offer critical imaginings of sexual politics and its imbrication with popular culture and authoritarian politics within contemporary South Asia The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of South Asian Popular Culture

British Asian Fiction Neil Murphy, Wai-chew Sim, 2008 In this outstanding collection of essays editors Neil Murphy and Wai chew Sim seek not so much to demarcate the field of British Asian fiction but to offer due acknowledgment of the artistic merit of the works of selected authors and simultaneously register their cultural significance This volume demonstrates in situ the virtues of commentary that engages in a substantial manner with formal and aesthetic considerations even as it implicates the discourses of alterity that dominate contemporary cultural criticism Additionally the essays delineate the complex subject positions explored by authors and texts and focus on the way writers negotiate the exigencies of their location within and between different social formations If it is the case that British literature can no longer be discussed in monocultural terms because of the impact of the writers under consideration it is also the case that the diverse trans cultural positions they explore are often less specified than proclaimed Addressing difference commensurability and form related notions of truth content these essays enlarge our understanding of the range of British and affiliated identities as well as the cultural contexts from which they arose Working as academics and critics from Singapore a useful vantage point Murphy and Sim have extended the parameters of British Asian to include not just writers from South Asia as is traditionally the case but writers whose parents or who themselves have migrated to Britain from other regions of Asia for example Japan Hong Kong and Malaysia This initiative has made it possible for professors Murphy and Sim to bring together first an interestingly varied group of authors among them those who came to prominence in the 1980s Salman Rushdie Timothy Mo Kazuo Ishiguro as well as their younger contemporaries Meera Syal Romesh Gunsekera Monica Ali Hari Kunzru Ooi Yang May and second a broad and diverse range of novels that span Timothy Mo's Sour Sweet 1982 and Tariq Ali's A Sultan in Palermo 2005 the fourth volume in his Islam quintet

Writing Violence and Buddhism in Sri Lanka Nimmi N. Menike, 2022-04-19 This book examines the idea of violence in the context of religion and literature It addresses the question of freedom and peace and violence with reference to the Buddhist nationalist discourse in Sri Lanka against the backdrop of Shyam Selvadurai's novel The Hungry Ghosts The book discusses love compassion emancipation ethics and responsibility through the concepts of identity deconstruction and decolonization to view religion as language or writing With a blend of philosophical insights from Emmanuel Levinas Jacques Derrida Maurice Blanchot and Mahatma Gandhi on ideas of being and the other differences nonviolence and forgiveness it insists on the ethical exigency of reinventing Buddhism in Sri Lanka

Delving into some the central motifs of Selvadurai's novel suffering desire hate and vengeance it questions popular Sinhala Buddhist readings to argue for the promise of inclusive and diverse approaches towards various groups linguistic communities women and homosexuality This book will be useful for scholars and researchers of literature and languages South Asian literature literary criticism and theory linguistics cultural studies philosophy religion Buddhist studies diaspora studies and Sri Lankan literature and sociology Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,1995 Book Review Index ,1997

Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation Las heridas de la ausencia M^a Jesús Rodríguez Hernández,2020-09-23 Este volumen desentraña las claves del vínculo entre poesía y nostalgia al tiempo que identifica los tipos de discurso y la retórica de innumerables poemas impulsados por ella a lo largo de los últimos cien años en la poesía anglo norteamericana de Canadá y Estados Unidos El campo de estudio es lo suficientemente amplio como para alumbrar resultados esclarecedores en torno a varias cuestiones de relevancia tales como los modos en que la nostalgia gestiona la ausencia y la pérdida su capacidad para construir relatos consistentes sobre la memoria la identidad y el pasado sobre el territorio y el sentimiento de pertenencia En su conjunto esta obra descubre la poesía de nostalgia como un corpus esencial de reflexión en torno a la percepción de la ausencia la pérdida y lo imposible y acerca de las posibilidades del lenguaje al enfrentarse a cuestiones que se le resisten bien por ser muy difíciles de concretar dentro de los límites de lo conceptual o bien porque expresarlas mediante la palabra se percibe como insatisfactorio
