Vanita, 2012-02-14 Explores the urban cosmopolitan sensibilities of Urdu poetry written in the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries in Lucknow Ruth Vanita analyzes Rekhti a type of Urdu poetry distinguished by a female speaker and a focus on women's lives and shows how it became a catalyst for the transformation of the ghazal Catalogue of Books Printed in the Bombay Presidency, 1871 The Imperial and Asiatic Quarterly Review and Oriental and Colonial Record, 1895 Beginning Apr 1895 includes the Proceedings of the East India Association Asiatic Review, 1895 Beginning in 1895 includes the Proceedings of the East India Association Asian Review, 1895 Beginning in 1895 includes the Proceedings of the East India Association The imperial and Asiatic quarterly review, 1895 A History of the Hindi Grammatical Tradition Tej Bhatia, 2021-12-06 Stories of Sahabah Muḥammad Zakariyyā, 1983 Asiatic Review Demetrius Charles Boulger, 1895 Beginning in 1895 includes the Proceedings of the East India Association How to Prosper the Islamic way, The Book Review, 1996 The Asiatic Quarterly Review, 1895 Contesting Power Douglas E. Haynes, Gyan Prakash, 1992 Riots rebellions and revolutions have always captured our attention But moments of upheaval do not contrast as strongly with normal times as many social historians sociologists and political scientists have assumed Offering examples from South Asia these essays examine subtle forms of the everyday resistance and varieties of the everyday use of power that mark the patterns of ordinary life in the region These essays are part of a larger effort to understand the history of subordination in India They focus on peasants and urban laborers courtesans and merchants sometimes employing unconventional sources and methods

By depicting a rich variety of non confrontational forms of resistance and contestatory behaviors the authors challenge our usual assumptions about the overt nature of resistance to dominant powerholders Taken together the essays suggest that we must consider a much wider range of socio cultural practices if we wish to understand how the world of dominated groups is constrained modified and conditioned by power relations Identifying the everydayness of resistance in social life thus reveals a social structure formed from a constellation of contradictory and contestatory processes rather than a seamless functional whole At the same time struggle is portrayed as something that is constantly being conditioned by the structures of social and political power As the editors note neither domination nor resistance is autonomous the two are entangled together so that it becomes difficult to analyze one without discussing the effects of the other

Languages and Literary Cultures in Hyderabad Kousar J Azam,2017-08-09 There is great interest in recent scholarship in the study of metropolitan cultures in India as evident from the number of books that have appeared on cities such as Delhi Mumbai Chennai and Kolkata Though Hyderabad has a rich archive of history scattered in many languages very few attempts have been made to bring this scholarship together The papers in this volume bring together this scholarship at one place They trace the contribution of different languages and literary cultures to the multicultural mosaic that is the city of Hyderabad

How it has acquired this uniqueness and how it has been sustained is the subject matter of literary cultures in Hyderabad. This work attempts to trace some aspects of the history of major languages practiced in the city. It also reviews the contribution of the various linguistic groups that have added to the development not just of varied literary cultures but also to the evolution of an inclusive Hyderabadi culture. The present volume, it is hoped, will enthuse both younger and senior scholars and students to take a fresh look at the study of languages and literary cultures as they have evolved in India's cities and add to the growing scholarship of metropolitan cultures in India.
