I am very pleased to greet you, alumni and alumnae of the Faculty of Pharmacy of the University of Santo Tomas, Manila, who are based in the United States of America and Canada.

As you come together in Las Vegas for a homecoming, you might find it strange to “come home” on foreign soil. Nonetheless, you will rejoice in seeing and being with old friends, schoolmates and a few former professors. You will reminisce happy and unforgettable moments of the past. You will marvel at everyone’s and your own personal and professional success and achievements. You will realize how good life has been to you all. And deep within, you will acknowledge that, to a large or even a small measure, UST helped bring you to where you are now. That Thomasian heritage is what actually beats and is what you carry in your hearts, wherever you may be. So, when you gather in Las Vegas for this homecoming, I like to think that you will indeed have “come home”, because home is where the heart is.

Best wishes, and may UST always “keep us in beauty in truth and virtues impassioned embrace”, so that we remain ever her “valiant legion imbued with unending grace” (UST Hymn).

Dartmouth Alumni Magazine, 1959 We Are What We Remember Laura Mattoon D'Amore, Jeffrey Meriwether, 2013-01-16 Commemorative practices are revised and rebuilt based on the spirit of the time in which they are re created. Historians sometimes imagine that commemoration captures history but actually commemoration creates new narratives about history that allow people to interact with the past in a way that they find meaningful. As our social values change race gender religion sexuality class our commemorations do too. We Are What We Remember The American Past Through Commemoration analyzes current trends in the study of historical memory that are particularly relevant to our own present our biases our politics our contextual moment and strive to name forgotten overlooked and denied pasts in traditional histories. Race gender and sexuality for example raise questions about our most treasured myths where were the slaves at Jamestowne How do women or lesbians protect and preserve their own histories when no one else wants to write them. Our current social climate allows us to question authority and especially the authoritative definitions of nation patriotism and heroism and belonging. How do we uncommemorate things that were miscommemorated in the past How do we repair the damage done by past commemorations. The chapters in this book contributed by eighteen emerging and established scholars examine these modern questions that entirely reimagine the landscape of commemoration as it has been practiced and studied before. The Diversity Machine Frederick R. Lynch, 2017-07-05 Diversity has become the turn of the century buzzword. Republican and Democratic leaders ritually chant diversity is our strength and corporate CEOs talk about the need to create a workforce that looks like America.
