B. Hutchens,2020-07-22

Throughout the twentieth century in Poland various ideologies attempted to keep queer voices silent whether those ideologies were fascist communist Catholic or neo liberal Despite these pressures there existed a vibrant transgressive trend within Polish literature that subverted such silencing This book provides in depth textual analyses of several of those texts covering nearly every decade of the last century and includes authors such as Witold Gombrowicz Marian Pankowski and Olga Tokarczuk winner of the 2018 Nobel Prize in Literature Jack J B Hutchens demonstrates the subversive power of each work showing that through their transgressions they help to undermine nationalist and homophobic ideologies that are still at play in Poland today Hutchens argues that the transgressive reading of Polish literature can challenge the many binaries on which conservative heteronormative ideology depends in order to maintain its cultural hegemony Reading the Environment Dominika Oramus, 2025-09-04 Reading the Environment Olga Tokarczuk's Fiction aims at analysing the dynamics of reading fiction in the context of accelerating climate change This volume proposes an environment oriented model of reading and applies it to a well defined corpus all existing English translations of Olga Tokarczuk's fiction These are Primeval and Other Times House of Day House of Night Drive Your Plow Over the Bones of the Dead Flights The Books of Jacob and The Empusium Removed from the immediate cultural context of a single author these novels give a representative sample of contemporary literature read by Anglophone people of diverse national backgrounds who live in different localities but share one endangered planet whether they realise it or not The book charts five ways in which our reading protocols have shifted the way of interconnectedness the way of nature/cultures the way of sympoiesis the way of Earth Island and the way of the beginning of the Anthropocene This book is written for an academic audience postgraduates researchers and academics specializing in Environmental Humanities Ecocriticism World Literature Post Modern Literature and Climate Fiction

Disrespected Neighbo(u)rs Uwe Zagratzki, 2018-07-27 Neighbourly relations frequently position a self against an Other This is the case for both individuals and nations and indeed within the various cultural groups of a nation Our racial ethnic social or gender identities are often created in demarcating ourselves by stereotyping the Other Disrespect of the immediate neighbour based on stereotypical pre conceptions and cultural biases may lie dormant for a long time and then as shown in recent conflicts around the globe suddenly surface due to changed economic and political conditions Media including films and fictional as well as non fictional texts feature prominently in producing propagating and maintaining cultural difference and stereotypes in ideologically effective ways This volume analyses representations from various angles as it comprises articles dealing with ethnic groups and neighbourhoods from three world areas as well as genres and media instrumental to their respective cultural stereotyping This focus on literary and media representations of the neighbourly Other from miscellaneous cultural environments results in a comprehensive understanding of analogies and differences in the mechanisms of production and perception of stereotypes Addressing the manifold discourses at the heart of stereotyping the familiar Other the book also points to their far reaching repercussions on lived cultural practices New Women's Writing in Russia, Central and Eastern Europe Rosalind Marsh, 2020-12-07 Since the late 1980s there has been an explosion of women's writing in Russia Central and Eastern Europe greater than in any other cultural period This book which contains contributions by scholars and writers from many different countries aims to address the gap in literature and debate that exists in relation to this subject We investigate why women's writing has become so prominent in post socialist countries and enquire whether writers regard their gender as a burden or on the contrary as empowering We explore the relationship in contemporary women's writing between gender class and nationality as well as issues of ethnicity and post colonialism

The Prophecy and Other Stories Drago Jancar, 2009-03-05 These newly collected short stories reveal a master at the top of his game Drago Jancar possesses an acute understanding of the human psyche enabling his stories to resonate beyond their particular milieu This collection features seven pieces drawn from four different collections that together present the struggle of individuals against powerful forces The characters try to make sense of a world of shifting borders and changing names that make the idea of a homeland either literal or figurative a dream rather than a reality
