Social Work with Minority Groups Prospera Tadam, 2021-09-28 This book brings together several valuable papers from different parts of the world addressing social work with minorities in the areas of disability sexuality race and ethnicity Collectively these make an important contribution to developing theory and practice awareness of how social work education with minority groups is framed evidenced and experienced The perspectives and different strands of work presented within this book offer new insights and a better understanding of how a diverse set of social justice issues confronting social work education have led to the development of different types of interventions both in the classroom and in practice contexts The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal Social Work Education

Vygotsky at Work and Play Lois Holzman, 2016-12-14 Vygotsky at Work and Play is an intimate portrayal of the Vygotskian inspired approach to human development known as social therapeutics and the psychology of becoming Holzman provides an accessible practical philosophical portrayal of a unique performance based methodology of development and learning that draws upon a fresh reading of Vygotsky This expanded edition includes new content dealing with how Lev Vygotsky s work can be applied to profound social issues of our times including worsening police community relations authoritarianism in schools the medical model approach to social emotional life and the erosion of play in Western cultures Holzman also weaves together Vygotsky s discoveries with qualitative case studies from organizations that practice the approach in psychotherapy offices classrooms outside of school programs corporate workplaces and virtual learning environments The new edition of

Vygotsky at Work and Play poses a practical critical challenge to more traditional conceptions and methods of psychology and education introducing performance as a new ontology and the author's own activist research performance as a new way to do psychology It is an essential read for researchers and professionals in educational and developmental psychology psychotherapy cultural historical activity social science performance studies and education

Teacher's Stories, Teacher's Lives Carola Conle, 2006 In this book we demonstrate a mode of teacher education that is practical in a non technical sense and relies on Dewey's notion of curriculum as the reconstruction of experience We present a curriculum that emerged through collaborative self reflection and seeks to reconstruct personal histories of schooling As four former preservice teachers and their instructor we engaged in jointly constructed autobiographical inquiry in order to generate data on our own past and on our current histories of teaching and learning We wanted to illuminate parts of our lives in schools that until now belonged to our normal and taken for granted past We did this in order to enjoy certain degrees of awareness and choice as to which of our living stories to reinforce and which to let run out in our classrooms today
