Dust The Archive And Cultural History Encounters:

Dust Carolyn Steedman, 2001 In this witty engaging and challenging book Carolyn Steedman has produced a highly original and sometimes irreverent investigation into the development of modern history writing Dust is about the practice and writing of history Dust considers the immutable stubborn set of beliefs about the material world past and present inherited from the nineteenth century with which modern history writing attempts to grapple Drawing on over five years worth of her own published and unpublished writing the author has produced a sustained argument about the way in which history writing belongs to the currents of thought shaping the modern world Steedman begins by looking at the attention paid to the archive by those working in the humanities and social sciences in recent years what has become known as the practice of archiving By definition the archive is the repository of that which will not go away and the book goes on to suggest that just like dust the matter of history can never go away or be erased Historians who want to think about what it is they do will find this work enlightening and this book is essential reading for all undergraduates and postgraduates studying historiography and history and theory Dust Carolyn Steedman, 2002 Intersectional Encounters in the Nineteenth-Century Archive Rachel Bryant Davies, Erin Johnson-Williams, 2022-08-11 Rachel Bryant Davies and Erin Johnson Williams lead a cast of renowned scholars to initiate an interdisciplinary conversation about the mechanisms of power that have shaped the nineteenth century archive to ask What is a nineteenth century archive broadly defined This landmark collection of essays will broach critical and topical questions about how the complex discourses of power involved in constructions of the nineteenth century archive have impacted and continue to impact constructions of knowledge across disciplinary boundaries and beyond academic confines The essays written from a range of disciplinary perspectives grapple with urgent problems of how to deal with potentially sensitive nineteenth century archival items both within academic scholarship and in present day public facing institutions which often reflect erotic colonial and imperial racist sexist violent or elitist ideologies Each contribution grapples with these questions from a range of perspectives Musicology Classics English History Visual Culture and Museums and Archives The result is far reaching historical excavation of archival experiences Schriftordnungen im Wandel Tobias Hodel, 2020-06-25 Kl ster gelten als wichtige Produzenten und Konsumenten von Schrift im Mittelalter Im Kloster K nigsfelden 1309 durch die Habsburger gegr ndet war der Schriftgebrauch von Beginn an zentral sei es f r den geistlichen Betrieb der beiden Konvente der Klarissen und Franziskaner f r die Verwaltung der zahlreichen G ter oder aber zur Demonstration von Ordnungsmacht wie sie die Stifterin Agnes von Ungarn durch Schriftst cke vornahm Aufgrund der sich wandelnden Einfl sse von au en ver nderte sich das schriftliche Ordnungssystem im Kloster Mithilfe von Abschriftensammlungen und durch Dorsualnotizen r ckten Dokumente in neuen Kontext und wurden zu Vermittlern von Rechtsanspr chen Im Zuge der Reformation und der Aufl sung des Klosters verfolgte Bern schlie lich mit der erstmaligen Zusammenf hrung des Bestandes eine Neuordnung des Schriftguts um sich als

Saving Cinema Caroline Frick, 2011-01-21 The importance of media preservation has in recent years achieved much broader public recognition From the vaults of Hollywood and the halls of Congress to the cash strapped museums of developing nations people are working to safeguard film from physical harm But the forces at work aren t just physical The endeavor is also inherently political What gets saved and why What remains ignored Who makes these decisions and what criteria do they use Saving Cinema narrates the development of the preservation movement and lays bare the factors that have influenced its direction Archivists do more than preserve movie history they actively produce and codify cinematic heritage At the same time digital technologies have produced an entirely new reality one that resists the material artifact driven approach that is the gold standard of preservation in the Western world As it has become increasingly easy to capture and access moving images increasing evidence of something many archivists have known for years has emerged industrial and training films amateur travel diaries and even family videos are critical public resources It has also raised question about the role of the profession Is access equivalent to preservation and if it is how should archivists alter their activities The time is ripe for a reconsideration of the politics and practices of preservation Saving Cinema is the book to guide that conversation The Routledge Hispanic Studies Companion to Colonial Latin America and the Caribbean (1492-1898) Yolanda Martínez-San Miguel, Santa Arias, 2020-11-29 The Routledge Hispanic Studies Companion to Colonial Latin America and the Caribbean 1492 1898 brings together an international team of scholars to explore new interdisciplinary and comparative approaches for the study of colonialism Using four overarching themes the volume examines a wide array of critical issues key texts and figures that demonstrate the significance of Colonial Latin America and the Caribbean across national and regional traditions and historical periods This invaluable resource will be of interest to students and scholars of Spanish and Latin American studies examining colonial Caribbean and Latin America at the intersection of cultural and historical studies transatlantic postcolonial and decolonial studies and critical approaches to archives and materiality This timely volume assesses the impact and legacy of colonialism and coloniality Moroccan Other-Archives Brahim El Guabli, 2023-04-25 Winner 2024 L Carl Brown AIMS Book Prize in North African Studies Honorable Mention 2024 MELA Book Awards Finalist 2024 ASA Best Book Prize Moroccan Other Archives investigates how histories of exclusion and silencing are written and rewritten in a postcolonial context that lacks organized and accessible archives The book draws on cultural production concerning the years of lead a period of authoritarianism and political violence between Morocco's independence in 1956 and the death of King Hassan II in 1999 to examine the transformative roles memory and trauma play in reconstructing stories of three historically marginalized groups in Moroccan history Berbers Imazighen Jews and political prisoners The book shows how Moroccan cultural production has become an other archive a set of textual sonic embodied and visual sites that recover real or reimagined voices of these formerly suppressed and silenced constituencies of Moroccan society Combining theoretical discussions with close reading of literary works the book reenvisions both archives and the nation in postcolonial Morocco By producing other archives Moroccan cultural creators transform the losses state violence inflicted on society during the years of lead into a source of civic engagement and historiographical agency enabling the writing of histories about those Moroccans who have been excluded from official documentation and state sanctioned histories The book is multilingual and interdisciplinary examining primary sources in Amazigh Berber Arabic Darija and French and drawing on memory studies literary theory archival studies anthropology and historiography In addition to showing how other archives are created and operate El Guabli elaborates how language gender class race and geographical distribution are co constitutive of a historical and archival unsilencing that is foundational to citizenship in Morocco today

Skepticism's Pictures Melissa Lo, 2023-05-26 In seventeenth century northern Europe as the Aristotelian foundations of scientia were rocked by observation experiment confessional strife and political pressure natural philosophers came to rely on the printed image to fortify their epistemologies and none more so than Ren Descartes In Skepticism's Pictures historian of science Melissa Lo chronicles the visual idioms that made sustained revised and resisted Descartes's new philosophy

Drawing on moon maps political cartoons student notebooks treatises on practical mathematics and other sources Lo argues that Descartes transformed natural philosophy with the introduction of a new graphic language that inspired a wide range of pictorial responses shaped by religious affiliation political commitment and cultural convention She begins by historicizing the graphic vocabularies of Descartes's Essais and Principia philosophiae and goes on to analyze the religious and civic volatility of Descartes's thought which compelled defenders such as Jacques Rohault and Wolferd Senguerd to reconfigure his pictures according to their local visual cultures and stimulated enemies such as Gabriel Daniel to unravel Descartes's visual logic with devastating irony In the epilogue Lo explains why nineteenth century French philosophers divorced Descartes's thought from his pictures creating a modern image of reason and a version of philosophy absent visuality
