A Beginner's Guide to America by Roya Hakakian, 2021-03-16. A stirring, witty, and poignant glimpse into the bewildering American immigrant experience from someone who has lived it. Hakakian's love letter to the nation that took her in is also a timely reminder of what millions of human beings endure when they uproot their lives to become Americans by choice. The Boston Globe: "Into the maelstrom of unprecedented contemporary debates about immigrants in the United States, this perfectly timed book gives us a portrait of what the new immigrant experience in America is really like. Written as a guide for the newly arrived and providing practical information and advice, Roya Hakakian, an immigrant herself, reveals what those who settle here love about the country, what they miss about their homes, the cruelty of some Americans, and the unceasing generosity of others. She captures the texture of life in a new place in all its complexity, laying bare both its beauty and its darkness as she discusses race, sex, love, death, consumerism, and what it is like to be from a country that is in America's crosshairs. Her tenderly perceptive and surprisingly humorous account invites us to see ourselves as we appear to others, making it possible for us to rediscover our many American gifts through the perspective of the outsider. In shattering myths and embracing painful contradictions that are unique to this place, A Beginner's Guide to America is Hakakian's candid love letter to America."

Memoirs of Service Afloat, During the War Between the States Raphael Semmes, 2019-11-26 In Memoirs of Service Afloat During the War Between the States Raphael Semmes provides a compelling firsthand account of naval warfare during the American Civil War. Written with eloquent prose, the memoir blends vivid descriptions of naval battles with personal reflections showcasing the complexities of honor duty and the brutal realities of maritime conflict. Semmes's narrative is not merely a chronicle of events; it also serves as a critical commentary on the state of the Confederate Navy, illuminating the broader historical context of a nation divided. The literary style reflects both the romantic and pragmatic elements of 19th-century literature, revealing Semmes as both a participant and a perceptive observer of the tumultuous times in which he lived. Raphael Semmes, a prominent Confederate naval officer, commanded the CSS Alabama and played a significant role in the war's naval engagements. His background in law and his experiences at sea uniquely positioned him to portray the challenges and moral dilemmas faced by naval officers during wartime. Semmes's eloquence and insight stem from a deep sense of loyalty to the South as well as a genuine belief in the Confederate cause, making his memoir an invaluable resource for understanding the Navy's intricacies during the Civil War. This book is highly recommended for readers interested in American history, naval warfare, and personal narratives of the Civil War. Semmes's vivid storytelling and historical introspection provide an essential perspective on a pivotal moment in American history, making it a must-read for historians, students, and enthusiasts alike.

This special issue of Symbolism: An International Journal of Critical Aesthetics explores the trans-American dimensions of Latina/o literature in a trans-Atlantic context. Examining the theoretical implications suggested by the comparison of the global North/global South dynamics of material and aesthetic exchange, this volume highlights emergent Latina/o authors' texts and methodologies of interest in for comparative literary studies. In the essays, literary scholars address questions of the transculturation, translation, and reception of Latina/o literature in the United States and Europe. In the interviews, emergent Latina/o authors speak to the processes of creative writing in a transnational context. This volume suggests how the trans-American dialogues found in contemporary Latina/o literature elucidates trans-Atlantic critical dialogues.
