Emotions, Mobilisations and South Asian Politics Amélie Blom,Stéphanie Tawa Lama-Rewal,2019-07-09 This book highlights the role of emotions in the contentious politics of modern South Asia It brings new methodological theoretical and empirical insights to the mutual constitution of emotions and mobilisations in India Pakistan and Bangladesh As such it addresses three distinct but related questions what do emotions do to mobilisations What do mobilisations do to emotions Further what does studying emotions in mobilisations reveal about the political culture of protest in South Asia The chapters in this volume emphasise that emotions are significant in politics because they have the power to mobilise They explore a variety of emotions including anger resentment humiliation hurt despair and nostalgia and also enchantment humour pleasure hope and enthusiasm The interdisciplinary research presented here shows that integrating emotions improves our understanding of South Asian politics while conversely focusing on South Asia helps retool current thinking on the emotional dynamics of political mobilisations The book offers contextual analyses of how emotions are publicly represented expressed and felt thus shedding light on the complex nature of protests power relations identity politics and the political culture of South Asia This cutting edge research volume intersects South Asian studies emotion studies and social movement studies and will greatly interest scholars and students of political science anthropology sociology history and cultural studies and the informed general reader interested in South Asian politics

The Book of Ghazals Aman Hindustani, Litent, 2014-05-04 The primary aim of this book is to enable its audience in composing ghazals including writing lyrics and setting music melody to it The book is unique and original in that it introduces the history of ghazal elaborates its technical structure and provides guidance on setting a musical score The book also incorporates some of my compositions over the past four decades 18 Urdu ghazals and 1 Nazm in a collection that my ghazal loving friends affectionately call Diwan e Aman in the lighter vein The impetus and inspiration behind these compositions are the rubayaths of the famous Persian poet Omar Qayyam and the ghazals of Hazrat Amir Khusrau I am greatly indebted to those immortal poets It is the outcome of my humble effort to strike a golden mean between using easily understandable language drawing from the depths of literature and maintaining originality
