Drifting House Krys Lee:

Drifting House Krys Lee, 2012-01-17 A haunting and unforgettable debut spanning the last seventy years of Korean history including the BBC Short Story Prize shortlisted story The Goose Father Alternating between the lives of Koreans struggling through seventy years of turbulent post World War II history in their homeland and the communities of Korean immigrants grappling with assimilation in the United States Krys Lee's haunting debut story collection Drifting House weaves together intricate tales of family and love abandonment and loss on both sides of the Pacific In the title story children escaping famine in North Korea are forced to make unthinkable sacrifices to survive The tales set in America reveal the immigrants unmoored existence playing out in cramped apartments and Koreatown strip malls from the abandoned wife in A Temporary Marriage who enters into a sham marriage to find her kidnapped daughter to the makeshift family in At the Edge of the World which is fractured when a shaman from the old country moves in next door Drifting House Krys

Lee, 2012-02-02 An unflinching portrayal of the Korean immigrant experience from an extraordinary new talent in fiction Spanning Korea and the United States from the postwar era to contemporary times Krys Lee's stunning fiction debut Drifting House illuminates a people torn between the traumas of their collective past and the indignities and sorrows of their present In the title story children escaping famine in North Korea are forced to make unthinkable sacrifices to survive The tales set in America reveal the immigrants unmoored existence playing out in cramped apartments and Koreatown strip malls A makeshift family is fractured when a shaman from the old country moves in next door An abandoned wife enters into a fake marriage in order to find her kidnapped daughter In the tradition of Chang-rae Lee's Native Speaker and Jhumpa Lahiri's Interpreter of Maladies Drifting House is an unforgettable work by a gifted new writer How I Became a North Korean

Krys Lee, 2016-08-16 Yongju is an accomplished student from one of North Korea's most prominent families Jangmi on the other hand has had to fend for herself since childhood most recently by smuggling goods across the border families Danny is a Chinese American teenager of Korean descent whose parents left China when he was nine his quirks and precocious intelligence have long marked him as an outcast among his peers and he yearns for the China of his youth These three disparate lives converge when each of them travels to the region where China borders North Korea Danny to visit his mother who is working as a missionary there Yongju to escape persecution after his father is killed at the hands of the Dear Leader himself and Jangmi to protect her unborn child As they struggle to survive in a place where danger seems to close in on all sides in the form of government informants husbands thieves abductors and even missionaries they come to form a kind of adopted family The novel transports the reader to one of the most complex and threatening environments in the world and explores how humanity persists even in the most dire of circumstances Cooked Up, 2015-03-16 Food can bring together families communities and cultures It is the essence of life and yet our relationships with one another can be most fraught at the dinner table This perpetually fascinating subject has inspired a unique collection of fiction including flash fiction essay

Immigration Structures and Immigrant Lives David W. Haines, 2017-10-20 Immigration Structures and Immigrant Lives provides a concise comprehensive interdisciplinary introduction to United States immigration and immigrants The book is presented in two parts Part I addresses the history structure dynamics and politics of United States immigration from colonial times to the present Part II focuses on the lives of immigrants with separate chapters examining the immigrant struggle simply to live the challenges and opportunities of work in America the different beliefs and commitments that fortify immigrants in their new lives and the many different ways in which immigrants come to belong in the United States The introduction and epilogue bracket the United States experience within a broader consideration of human mobility and current global migration trends and issues Tables case examples and a timeline help illuminate both the general shape of immigration and the details of immigrant life This text is accompanied by an ancillary package of digital tables and illustrations in order to enhance the learning experience of both the instructors and students

Modern Korea: All That Matters Andrew Salmon, 2014-08-29 In no nation on earth has history accelerated with such speed as in Korea A medieval dynasty at the end of the 19th century it underwent a traumatic colonization then in its hour of liberation was divided by the great powers at the end of World War II Devastated by a fratricidal war the peninsula has remained divided ever since South Korea is the greatest national success story of the 20th century From the ashes of war it transformed itself against the odds and against much advice into an industrial powerhouse and thriving democracy Now a high tech wonderland it is undergoing social and cultural transformations that add further layers to its dynamic DNA North Korea is an economic social and political disaster successful only at totalitarianism Having transmogrified from a blood and iron communist dictatorship into a bizarre neo fascist monarchy it is a black hole at the heart of Asia Engulfed by paranoia the regime presides over a malnourished populace a 1 1 million man army and a nuclear arsenal From nuclear missiles to Samsung smartphones from assassins to salarymen from Kim Il sung to Psy this is the extraordinary story of the flashpoint peninsula that dominates talk in boardrooms and newsrooms Korea the author argues provides two stark benchmarks for national development Epic success and catastrophic failure And its final chapter has yet to be written By the Book Pamela Paul, 2014-10-28 Sixty five of the world's leading writers open up about the books and authors that have meant the most to them Every Sunday readers of The New York Times Book Review turn with anticipation to see which novelist historian short story writer or artist will be the subject of the popular By the Book feature These wide ranging interviews are conducted by Pamela Paul the editor of the Book Review and here she brings together sixty five of the most intriguing and fascinating exchanges featuring personalities as varied as David Sedaris Hilary Mantel Michael Chabon Khaled Hosseini Anne Lamott and James Patterson The questions and answers admit us into the private worlds of these authors as they reflect on their work habits reading preferences inspirations pet peeves and recommendations By the Book contains the full uncut interviews offering a range of experiences and observations that deepens readers understanding of the literary sensibility and the writing process It also features dozens of sidebars that reveal the commonalities and conflicts among the participants underscoring those influences that are truly universal and those that remain matters of individual taste For the devoted reader By the Book is a way to invite sixty five of the most interesting guests into your world It's a book party not to be missed The Majesties Tiffany Tsao, 2020-08-06 When your sister murders three hundred people you can't help but wonder why Tiffany Tsao's visceral debut reads a bit like Crazy Rich Asians if the book began with familicide instead of romance CrimeReads Gwendolyn and Estella are as close as sisters can be But now Gwendolyn is lying in a coma the sole survivor after Estella poisons their entire family As Gwendolyn struggles to regain consciousness she desperately retraces her memories trying to uncover the moment that led to such a brutal act Journeying from the luxurious world of Indonesia's rich and powerful to the spectacular shows of Paris Fashion Week and the melting pot of Melbourne's student scene The Majesties is a haunting novel about the dark secrets that can build a family empire and bring it crashing down Tiffany Tsao was born in San Diego California and lived in Singapore and Indonesia through her childhood and young adulthood A graduate of Wellesley College and the University of California Berkeley where she earned a PhD in English she has taught and researched literature at Berkeley the Georgia Institute of Technology and the University of Newcastle Australia She holds an affiliation with the Indonesian Studies Department at the University of Sydney Her works include short fiction poetry literary criticism and translations and have been published in Transnational Literature Asymptote Mascara Literary Review LONTAR Comparative Literature Literature and Theology and the anthology Contemporary Asian Australian Poets

The Hen Who Dreamed she Could Fly Sun-mi Hwang, 2014-02-27 Bewitching Independent A very special little book I absolutely loved it NYT bestselling author Lisa See THE UNFORGETTABLE KOREAN BESTSELLER CAPTIVATING READERS ACROSS THE WORLD This is the story of a hen named Sprout No longer content to lay eggs on command only to have them carted off to the market she glimpses her future every morning through the barn doors where the other animals roam free and comes up with a plan to escape into the wild and to hatch an egg of her own An anthem for individuality and motherhood

The Hen Who Dreamed She Could Fly has captivated millions of readers in Korea Now the novel is making its way around the world where it has the potential to inspire generations of readers the way Jonathan Livingston Seagull or The Alchemist have And with Nomoco s evocative illustrations throughout this first English language edition beautifully captures the journey of an unforgettable character in world literature Bewitching a fabular bestseller told from the point of view of a homeless hen which will make grown men and women cry Independent White Cloud Mountain Grace Chia,2021 All her life Audrey has done what is expected of her following her father s footsteps into the civil service the iron rice bowl of Singapore When a chance opportunity arises to attend a writing retreat in the Wonju mountains of South Korea she grabs it not knowing what to expect Unexplainable things soon start happening to her while a long buried memory surfaces threatening to unravel her calm and carefully orchestrated world The Great Leader and the Fighter Pilot Blaine Harden,2015-03-17 From the New York Times bestselling author of Escape From Camp 14 Blaine Harden tells the riveting story of Kim Il Sung s rise to power and the brave North Korean fighter pilot who escaped the prison state and delivered the first MiG 15 into American hands In The Great Leader and the Fighter Pilot New York Times bestselling author Blaine Harden tells the riveting story of how Kim Il Sung grabbed power and plunged his country into war against the United States while the youngest fighter pilot in his air force was playing a high risk game of deception and escape As Kim ascended from Soviet puppet to godlike ruler No Kum Sok noisily pretended to love his Great Leader That is until he swiped a Soviet MiG 15 and delivered it to the Americans not knowing they were offering a 100 000 bounty for the warplane the equivalent of nearly one million dollars today The theft just weeks after the Korean War ended in July 1953 electrified the world and incited Kim s bloody vengeance During the Korean War the United States brutally carpet bombed the North killing hundreds of thousands of civilians and giving the Kim dynasty as Harden reveals the fact based narrative it would use to this day to sell paranoia and hatred of Americans Drawing on documents from Chinese and Russian archives about the role of Mao and Stalin in Kim s shadowy rise as well as from never before released U S intelligence and interrogation files Harden gives us a heart pounding escape adventure and an entirely new way to understand the world s longest lasting totalitarian state Tales of Two Planets John Freeman,2020-08-04 Building from his acclaimed anthology Tales of Two Americas beloved writer and editor John Freeman draws together a group of our greatest writers from around the world to help us see how the environmental crisis is hitting some of the most vulnerable communities where they live In the past five years John Freeman previously editor of Granta has launched a celebrated international literary magazine Freeman s and compiled two acclaimed anthologies that deal with income inequality as it is experienced In the course of this work one major theme came up repeatedly Climate change is making already dire inequalities much worse devastating further the already devastated But the problems of climate change are not restricted to those from the less developed world Galvanized by his conversations with writers and activists around the world Freeman engaged with some of today s most eloquent storytellers many of whom hail from the
