HAIR TODAY, GONE TOMORROW

"I started to lose my hair when I was 16. It kept on falling out and my confidence went. The other blokes had great mops of hair. It was the fashion in the Seventies. By the time I was 21 it was so bad that, when I saw this ad in the paper for a private hair clinic, I went along. I asked them how much hair they thought I would lose and they said probably just a little at the corners, and they could fill it in with some hair grafts.

"With these hair grafts I had to have a local anesthetic. It was so painful. They took bits of hair from the side and back, and replanted them into cuts made in the balding patch. The operation is very unpleasant, especially when the anesthetic needles are stuck into your scalp. But more hair fell out, and I need more grafts. Over the next three years, I had more grafts, but it couldn't keep up with the hair loss. I had all these implants in front, and a bald patch behind. It looked worse than before and my life was falling apart.

"My engagement was called off. My fiancée never commented about my hair, but I just didn't feel worthy of her. I was so fed up I went to another clinic. This time a salesman "consultant" came to my home. He suggested more grafts, and something called a scalp reduction. I had four of these operations over the next eighteen months. A piece of skin was taken from my scalp, and the skin on either side was lifted and pulled inwards to be joined together with stitches. I had to have a week off work after each operation because I couldn't even smile. Even now my head feels tight around my temples.

"This time I felt better, and looked better. But the hair loss persisted. It left patches and gaps. All the time the clinic kept promising me a full head of hair. I was drinking heavily. Sometimes as many as nine pints of beer a night, seven nights a week. It was the only way I could relax and feel confident with girls. I became so depressed that I was sent to see a psychiatrist.

"But I kept on with the grafts. This was at the same clinic. In the end I developed scars that wouldn't go away. They tried twice at the clinic to scrape the scar tissue away, but each time the scars returned. Then they tried steroid injections, but that didn't work either. Then I started to really worry about the hair at the back of my head. I'd had so
