Betrayal Harold Pinter:

Betrayal Harold Pinter, 2014-01-07 One of the most essential artists produced by the twentieth century Pinter's work gets under our skin more than that of any living playwright New York Times Upon its premiere at the National Theatre Betrayal was immediately recognized as a masterpiece It won the Olivier Award for best new play and has since been performed all around the world and made into an Academy Award nominated film starring Jeremy Irons Ben Kingsley and Patricia Hodge Betrayal begins with a meeting between adulterous lovers Emma and Jerry two years after their affair has ended During the nine scenes of the play we move back in time through the stages of their affair ending in the house of Emma and her husband Robert Jerry's best friend Betrayal deals with the shifting balance of power in triangular relationships and with the pain of loss Pinter probes the corrosive nature of betrayal a world where pain and loss are explored with poetic precision Guardian Betrayal is an exquisite play brilliantly simple in form and courageous in its search for a poetry that turns banality into a melancholy beauty Newsweek There is hardly a line into which desire pain alarm sorrow rage or some kind of blend of feelings has not been compressed like volatile gas in a cylinder less stable than it looks The play's subject is not sex not even adultery but the politics of betrayal and the damage it inflicts on all involved Times UK
