Betrayal in the City F. D. Imbuga, 1987 Betrayal in the City first published in 1976 and 1977 was Kenya's national entry to the Second World Black and African Festival of Arts and Culture in Lagos Nigeria The play is an incisive thought provoking examination of the problems of independence and freedom in post colonial African states where a sizeable number of people feel that their future is either blank or bleak In the words of Mosese one of the characters It was better while we waited Now we have nothing to look forward to We have killed our past and are busy killing our future Page 4 of cover

Notes on Francis Imbuga's Betrayal in the City Laban Erapu, 1979 Revising Betrayal in the City by Francis Imbuga Aidan Williams, Francis Imbuga, 1989 Notes on Francis Imbuga's Laban Erapu, 1970 Aminata , Postcolonial African Writers Siga Fatima Jagne, Pushpa Naidu Parekh, 2012-11-12 This reference book surveys the richness of postcolonial African literature The volume begins with an introductory essay on postcolonial criticism and African writing then presents alphabetically arranged profiles of some 60 writers including Chinua Achebe Nadine Gordimer Bessie Head Doris Lessing Tsitsi Dangarembga Tahbar Ben Jelloun among others Each entry includes a brief biography a discussion of major works and themes that appear in the author's writings an overview of the critical response to the author's work and a bibliography of primary and secondary sources These profiles are written by expert contributors and reflect many different perspectives The volume concludes with a selected general bibliography of the most important critical works on postcolonial African literature

Kenya National Assembly Official Record (Hansard) , 2009-07-22 The official records of the proceedings of the Legislative Council of the Colony and Protectorate of Kenya the House of Representatives of the Government of Kenya and the National Assembly of the Republic of Kenya Decolonization & Independence in Kenya, 1940-93 Bethwell A. Ogot, William Robert Ochieng', 1995 This is a sharply observed assessment of the history of the last half century by a distinguished group of historians of Kenya At the same time the book is a courageous reflection in the dilemmas of African nationhood Professor B A Ogot says The main purpose of the book is to show that decolonization does not only mean the transfer of alien power to sovereign nationhood it must also entail the liberation of the worlds of spirit and culture as well as economics and politics The book also raises a more fundamental question that is How much independence is available to any state national economy or culture in today's world It asks how far are Africa's miseries linked to the colonial past and to the process of decolonization In particular the book raises the basic question of how far Kenya is avoidably neo colonial And what does neo colonial dependence mean The book answers these questions by discussing the dynamic between the politics of decolonization the social history of class formation and the economics of dependence The book ends with a provocative epilogue discussing the transformation of the post colonial state from a single party to a multi party system A Guide to Francis Imbuga's Betrayal in the City Wahome Mutahi, 1988 Betrayal in the City F. D. Imbuga, 1976 African Literatures in the Eighties , 2023-12-21 Matatu is a journal on African literatures and societies dedicated to interdisciplinary dialogue between literary and cultural studies historiography the social sciences and cultural anthropology Matatu is animated by a lively interest in African culture and literature including the Afro Caribbean that moves beyond worn out clichés of cultural authenticity and national liberation towards critical exploration of African modernities The East African public transport vehicle from which Matatu takes its name is both a component and a symbol of these modernities based on Western these days usually Japanese technology it is a vigorously African institution it is usually regarded with some anxiety by those travelling in it but is often enough the only means of transport available it creates temporary communicative communities and provides a transient site for the exchange of news storytelling and political debate Matatu is firmly committed to supporting democratic change in Africa to providing a forum for interchanges between African and European critical debates to overcoming notions of absolute cultural ethnic or religious alterity and to promoting transnational discussion on the future of African societies in a wider world Matatu will be published as journal as of 2016 All back volumes are still available in print

Cultural Production and Change in Kenya Kimani Njogu, Garnette Oluoch-Olunya, 2007 Art Culture and Society Vol 1 is the first in a series of books to be published by Twaweza Communications on the relationship between art and society with special reference to Kenya It is part of a cultural leadership initiative being undertaken by the organization through a reexamination of the arts as they are produced and studied This volume brings together important reflections on the arts and is a major step in encouraging dialogue on the relationship between creativity and the human condition in the region Significantly it creates a space for university based academics to engage in dialogue with artists and writers based outside institutions of higher learning The conversations will bridge the gap between the two domains for knowledge production and enrich creative enterprise in Kenya in theory and practice As the essays in this collection show the present global situation demands a way to conceptualise and theorise an ever growing cultural interconnectedness sometimes manifested in art and interconnectedness that draws from a myriad of cultures and experiences Through the bridges of contact and cultural exchange distant images are mediated and brought closer to us They are reinterpreted and modified In the final analysis culture is shown to be an important aspect of human creativity but separateness and boundedness is contested Instead culture is shown to be malleable and fluid The essays bring in a new freshness to our reading of the creative arts coming out of Kenya

Food and Theatre on the World Stage Dorothy Chansky, Ann Folino White, 2015-06-12 Putting food and theatre into direct conversation this volume focuses on how food and theatre have operated for centuries as partners in the performative symbolic and literary making of meaning Through case studies literary analyses and performance critiques contributors examine theatrical work from China Japan India Greece Italy France Germany England the United States Chile Argentina and Zimbabwe addressing work from classical popular and contemporary theatre practices The investigation of uses of food across media and artistic genres is a burgeoning area of scholarly investigation yet regarding representation and symbolism literature and film have received more attention than theatre while performance studies scholars have taken the lead in examining the performative aspects of food events This collection looks across dramatic genres historical periods and cultural contexts and at food in all of its socio political material complexity to examine the particular problems and potentials of invoking and using food in live theatre The volume considers food as a transhistorical global phenomenon across theatre genres addressing the explosion of food studies at the end of the twentieth century that has shown how food is a crucial aspect of cultural identity Higher Education Leadership and Governance in the Development of the Creative and Cultural Industries in Kenya Akuno, Emily, Ondieki, Donald

Otoyo, 2017-05-05 The role of higher education in establishing structures and procedures in society and industry is clearly articulated in scholarly discussions The narrative has recently taken a new momentum in Kenya with acknowledgement of the creative industry involves many youth as an area that impacts on the economy In unravelling the link between higher education and industry the authors focus on leadership and governance in higher education and its expected and perceived contribution to the shaping of the creative industry Through analysis of cases the authors interrogate the processes and structures that govern the teaching and practice of the creative subjects noting how these affect the creative industry in Kenya This book approaches the creative disciplines from the perspectives of the students lecturers and university administrators The three voices provide a balanced view of what higher creative arts education in Kenya is The multiple authorship of the book further provides a balanced account of the development of these disciplines in higher education and their growth in industry The key concepts here are the development of the creative industry and how higher education should contribute to the same Tintinnabulation of Literary Theory Andrew Nyongesa, 2018-09-23 There can never be literary growth in the contemporary world which is devoid of literary criticism this is the backbone of literary theory Literature is no longer a mere narration of stories and prudent literary writers know that great literature is based on theoretical frameworks which give their works an edge in the intellectual world In this book Tintinnabulation of Literary Theory Traversing Genres to Contemporary Experience Andrew Nyongesa demonstrates how five theoretical frameworks namely Marxism Feminism Postcolonialism Psychoanalysis and Stylistic are applied to genres of literature The last chapter shows how theory has moved away from the lecture hall to real life experience The book is a practical guide to university students and tutors of literature in their undying desire to embrace Literary Criticism Student Encyclopedia of African Literature Douglas Killam, Alicia L. Kerfoot, 2007-12-30 African literature is a vast subject of growing output and interest Written especially for students this book selectively surveys the topic in a clear and accessible way Included are roughly 600 alphabetically arranged entries on writers genres and major works Many entries cite works for further reading and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography Africa is a land of contrasts and of diverse cultures and traditions It is also a land of conflict and creativity The literature of the continent draws upon a fascinating body of oral traditions and lore and also reflects the political turmoil of the modern world With the increased interest in cultural diversity and the growing centrality of Africa in world politics African literature is figuring more and more prominently in the curriculum This book helps students learn about the African literary achievement Written expressly for students this book is far more accessible than other reference works on the subject Included are nearly 600 alphabetically arranged entries on authors such as Chinua Achebe Athol Fugard Buchi Emecheta Nadine Gordimer and Wole Soyinka major works such as Things Fall Apart and Petals of Blood and individual genres such as the novel drama and poetry Many entries cite works for further reading and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography

The Columbia Guide to East African Literature in English Since 1945 Simon Gikandi, Evan Mwangi, 2007-04-24 The Columbia Guide to East African Literature in English Since 1945 challenges the conventional belief that the English language literary traditions of East Africa are restricted to the former British colonies of Kenya Uganda and Tanzania Instead these traditions stretch far into such neighboring countries as Somalia and Ethiopia Simon Gikandi and Evan Mwangi assemble a truly inclusive list of major writers and trends They begin with a chronology of key historical events and an overview of the emergence and transformation of literary culture in the region Then they provide an alphabetical list of major writers and brief descriptions of their concerns and achievements Some of the writers discussed include the Kenyan novelists Grace Ogot and Ngugi wa Thiong'o Ugandan poet and essayist Taban Lo Liyong Ethiopian playwright and poet Tsegaye Gabre Medhin Tanzanian novelist and diplomat Peter Palangyo Ethiopian novelist Berhane Mariam Sahle Sellassie and the novelist M G Vassanji who portrays the Indian diaspora in Africa Europe and North America Separate entries within this list describe thematic concerns such as colonialism decolonization the black aesthetic and the language question the growth of genres like autobiography and popular literature important movements like cultural nationalism and feminism and the impact of major forces such as AIDS HIV Christian missions and urbanization Comprehensive and richly detailed this guide offers a fresh perspective on the role of East Africa in the development of African and world literature in English and a new understanding of the historical cultural and geopolitical boundaries of the region

Ong'wen: Stronger than Faith, 2023-06-27 Few events in Kenya's recent history have captured the imagination of the nation as those of the period from the late 1970s Between the pages of this memoirs is a history of that period which is hardly taught in our schools and is fast receding into the holes of the insignificant as a younger generation takes over The history of that era like that of all the eras that have made this country needs to be preserved by those who witnessed and participated in it In Stronger Than Faith Oduor Ong'wen adds clarity to the politics of an important but dark era of our history It adds clarity to why that era is not entirely gone
