Between The Devil And The Deep Blue Sea Between 1 By April:

Winged Sentinels Janice Wormworth, Cagan H. Sekercioglu, 2011-07-04 The ability of the birds to show us the consequences of our own actions is among their most important and least appreciated attributes Despite the free advice of the birds we do not pay attention said Marjory Stoneman Douglas in 1947 From ice dependent penguins of Antarctica to songbirds that migrate across the Sahara birds responses provide early warning signs of the impact of climate change Winged Sentinels Birds and Climate Change uses colourful examples to show how particular groups of birds face heightened threats from climate change and to explore how we can help birds adapt in a warming world Generously illustrated with colour photographs the book is a fascinating insight into what climate change means for birds and the potential consequences of ignoring these warning signs Louis Armstrong Laurence Bergreen, 2012-08-08 Louis Armstrong was the founding father of jazz and one of this century's towering cultural figures yet the full story of his extravagant life has never been told Born in 1901 to the sixteen year old daughter of a slave he came of age among the prostitutes pimps and rag and bone merchants of New Orleans He married four times and enjoyed countless romantic involvements in and around his marriages A believer in marijuana for the head and laxatives for the bowels he was also a prolific diarist and correspondent a devoted friend to celebrities from Bing Crosby to Ella Fitzgerald a perceptive social observer and in his later years an international goodwill ambassador And of course he was a dazzling musician From the bordellos and honky tonks of Storyville New Orleans's red light district to the upscale nightclubs in Chicago New York and Hollywood Armstrong's stunning playing gravelly voice and irrepressible personality captivated audiences and critics alike Recognized and beloved wherever he went he nonetheless managed to remain vigorously himself Now Laurence Bergreen's remarkable book brings to life the passionate courageous and charismatic figure who forever changed the face of American music Atlantic Families Sarah M. S. Pearsall, 2008-11-27 The growth of the Atlantic world led to the separation of many families Sarah Pearsall explores their lives and letters revealing the sometimes shocking stories of those divided by sea and argues that it was these transatlantic bonds much more than the American Revolution that reshaped contemporary ideals about marriage and the family Rebels Rising Benjamin L. Carp, 2007-08-22 Looking at the physical environments of cities as political catalysts Carp contends that what began as interaction negotiation conflict and compromise in churches taverns wharves and city streets developed into a wider political awareness and collaborative political action Ethical Dilemmas of Migration Jean-Claude Garcia-Zamor, 2018-03-15 This book discusses the ethical dilemmas of migration in the era of globalization Centered on the recent influx of large numbers of migrants and refugees to the United States and Europe and viewed through the lens of the 2016 World Humanitarian Summit and the United Nations Summit on Refugees and Migrants this book focuses on the problems posed by globalized migration and analyzes proposed responses Using prominent ethical theories and moral principles such as Utilitarianism duty justice and integrity the book proposes a framework for analyzing decision making by migrants and policymakers and formulating equitable policies to address the migration crisis Drawing attention to the ethical dilemmas that migrants and policymakers experience this book fills a gap in the literature and enriches it adding to the economic political and human rights issues that are traditionally part of the migration discussion Appropriate for students and scholars of ethics policy and political science this book is also meant to be of use to practitioners and decision makers faced with similar decisions

Traces the history of labor unions in the United States including the first labor strike in Jamestown the impact of the Great Depression on labor unions and the challenges unions face today Captain Alex MacLean Don MacGillivray, 2008-11-01
Alex MacLean was the inspiration for the title character in Jack London's bestselling novel The Sea Wolf Originally from Cape Breton MacLean sailed to the Pacific side of North America when he was twenty one and worked there for thirty five years as a sailor and sealer His achievements and escapades while in the Victoria fleet in the 1880s laid the foundation for his status as a folk hero But this biography reveals more than the construction of a legend Don MacGillivray opens a window onto the sealing dispute brought the United States and Britain to the brink of war with Canadian sealing interests frequently enmeshed in espionage scientific debate diplomatic negotiations and vexing questions of maritime and environmental law

The Politics of Historical Memory and Commemoration in Africa Cassandra Mark-Thiesen, Moritz Mihatsch, Michelle Sikes, 2021-12-06
Essays in Memory of Jan Georg Deutsch The volume observes some of the principles that drove Prof Jan Georg Deutsch's research highlighting present day politics for the way they shape historical remembrance learning from people on the ground through fieldwork and oral history and bringing various parts of the African continent into discussion with one another From Cape Town to Charlottesville many societies are grappling with historical consciousness and the production of public memory In particular how and why societies remember and forget what should serve as symbols of collective memory and whether there exists space for multiple memory cultures are questions being vigorously debated once again These discussions present particular challenges not only to official memory bound to ideological constructions of nationhood but also to the teaching of history and its links to social justice movements The volume re-centres Africa and African history in memory studies with each chapter drawing parallels to comparable cases in Africa and the world An underlying assumption is that what can be learned from the politics of historical memory in Africa will have relevance for contemporary politics globally and for understanding how memories can be mobilised for political ends
