World Building:

World Building Joanna Gavins, Ernestine Lahey, 2016-06-30 World Building represents the state of the discipline in worlds based approaches to discourse collected together for the first time Over the last 40 years the text as world metaphor has become one of the most prevalent and productive means of describing the experiencing of producing and receiving discourse This has been the case in a range of disciplines including stylistics cognitive poetics narratology discourse analysis and literary theory The metaphor has enabled analysts to formulate a variety of frameworks for describing and examining the textual and conceptual mechanics involved in human communication articulating these variously through such concepts as possible worlds text worlds and storyworlds Each of these key approaches shares an understanding of discourse as a logically grounded cognitively and pragmatically complex phenomenon Discourse in this sense is capable of producing highly immersive and emotionally affecting conceptual spaces in the minds of discourse participants The chapters examine how best to document and analyze this and this is an essential collection for stylisticians linguists and narrative theorists Fantasy World-Building Mark Nelson, 2019-02-13 When artists and designers explore or create a fictional setting the milieu must be completely fleshed out explained and designed In this book comic and gaming art veteran Mark A Nelson explores and demonstrates his methods for fashioning visually stunning believable environments for fantasy creatures and characters Scores of images and step by step examples illustrate how variation and experimentation lead to fresh original designs for otherworldly beings their environments and their stories Nelson discusses how to find ideas and borrow from history to add the strength of realism to a fantasy world In describing the best ways to establish a habitat he offers specifics about climate terrain flora and wildlife He shares insights into founding societies in terms of their means of survival manner of warfare spiritual practices style of dress and levels of technology All visual creatives who work with imaginative material illustrators comic artists and writers will take a lively interest in this source of inspiration and practical knowledge In sixteen breezy yet surprisingly concise chapters he covers everything from visual problem solving to spirituality to warfare to transportation not with the idea of giving the reader lessons to copy by rote but rather as prompts to develop their own original concepts If I were suggesting three books every budding artist should have at their fingertips they would be Figure Drawing for All It's Worth by Andrew Loomis Imaginative Realism How to Paint What Doesn't Exist by James Gurney and most definitely Mark's Fantasy World Building Muddy Colors Reimagining Adult Education as World Building Aliko Nicolaides, Ahreum Lim, Neal Herr, Trisha Barefield, 2024-03-18 Reimagining Adult Education as World Building offers a new way of thinking about adult education by re-envisioning how adult education works It explores how the process of world building or the invention of a new world or a set of concepts can be translated into actual and feasible action when turning towards complex real life problems Cultivating contexts where adult educators can become change agents who recognize that the individual and community are intricately entangled demands that educators grow new capacities make new tools develop thicker networks and cultivate intentional links amongst each other to foster ecologies of transformation This book shows how educators can create an ecology or environment for transformative thinking where students can learn to collaborate and use world building tools to create new responses to current issues It begins by explaining the philosophical underpinnings of world building and the tools that translate pragmatic imagination into scaffolds for individual and collective capacity building It also illustrates how the worldbuilding protocol makes a difference in adult learning and how this pedagogical tool introduces the ecological approach to adult education Each chapter explores a practical case study showing how learners have applied worldbuilding tools to complex challenges Showing how to apply the world building protocol in a classroom setting this edited collection will be valuable to Adult Education scholars researchers practitioners and learning facilitators Rise of the New York Skyscraper, 1865-1913 Sarah Bradford Landau, Carl W. Time Travel in Popular Media Matthew Jones, Joan Ormrod, 2015-03-27 In recent years numerous films television series comic books graphic novels and video games have featured time travel narratives with characters jumping backward forward and laterally through time No rules govern time travel in these stories Some characters move by machine some by magic others by unexplained means Sometime travelers can alter the timeline while others are prevented from causing temporal aberrations The fluid forms of imagined time travel have fascinated audiences and prompted debate since at least the 19th century What is behind our fascination with time travel What does it mean to be out of one s own era How do different media tell these stories and what does this reveal about the media's relationship to time This collection of new essays the first to address time travel across a range of media answers these questions by locating time travel narratives within their cultural historical and philosophical contexts Texts discussed include Doctor Who The Terminator The Georgian House Save the Date Back to the Future Inception Source Code and others
