Poetics, Ideology, Dissent Valentina Vetri, 2023-05-24 This book examines the translations carried out by Italian novelist Beppe Fenoglio one of the most important Italian writers of the twentieth century It stems from the acknowledgement that Beppe Fenoglio's translations have not been examined in the political cultural and ideological context in which they were produced but have been dismissed as a purely linguistic exercise The author examines Fenoglio's translations as culturally and ideologically informed artistic expressions in which Fenoglio was able to give voice to his dissent towards the mainstream ideology and poetics of his times often choosing authors and characters with whom he identified such as Shakespeare Milton and Marlowe The interaction between the theories of Translation Studies Literary Theory and Adaptation Studies foregrounds the centrality of the role of the translator showing how Fenoglio's ideology and poetics were clearly visible both in the selection of the texts he translated and in his translation strategies
