Best British Short Stories 1939:

Fiction of the New Statesman, 1913-1939 Bashir Abu-Manneh, 2011-10-10 Fiction of the New Statesman is the first study of the short stories published in the renowned British journal the New Statesman. This book argues that New Statesman fiction advances a strong realist preoccupation with ordinary everyday life and shows how British domestic concerns have a strong hold on the working class and lower middle class imaginative output of this period. The Best British Short Stories of ... Edward Joseph O'Brien, John Cournos, 1940 Art and Commerce in the British Short Story, 1880-1950 Dean Baldwin, 2015-10-06 The short story was a commercial phenomenon which took off in the late nineteenth century and lasted through to the rise of television and film. Baldwin uses a wide variety of sources to show how economic factors helped to dictate how and what a wide variety of authors wrote. The Best British Short Stories of ..., 1929 Best British Short Stories and the Yearbook of the British, Irish, and Colonial Short Story Edward Joseph Harrington O'Brien, John Cournos, 1926 The Best British Short Stories of 1926 Edward Joseph O'Brien, 1926 Women's Periodicals and Print Culture in Britain, 1918-1939 Catherine Clay, 2017-11-22 This collection of new essays recovers and explores a neglected archive of women's print media and dispels the myth of the interwar decades as a retreat to home and duty for women.

The Formation of an Irish Literary Canon in the Mid-Twentieth Century Wei H. Kao, 2012-02-03 This scholarly study of the formation of the Irish literary canon in the first half of the twentieth century provides fascinating and often surprising insights into the ways in which different educational institutions responded to the political and historical changes taking place as Ireland moved from colonial to postcolonial status. Dr. Wei H. Kao discusses not only what was included on school and university curriculum but also writers who were excluded in particular women writers who appeared to interrogate a male nationalist agenda for the representation of Ireland. Emeritus Professor C. L. Innes. The writers discussed include Daniel Corkery, J. G. Farrell, Denis Johnston, Mary Lavin, Iris Murdoch, Kate O'Brien, Frank O'Connor, Liam O'Flaherty, and James Plunkett.

Copyright Office, 1941 The Best British Short Stories, 1939 Edward Joseph Harrington O'Brien, 1939 The Cambridge Companion to the American Short Story Michael J. Collins, Gavin Jones, 2023-05-25 This Companion offers students and scholars a comprehensive introduction to the development and the diversity of the American short story as a literary form from its origins in the eighteenth century to the present day. Rather than define what the short story is as a genre or defend its importance in comparison with the novel, this Companion seeks to understand what the short story does, how it moves through national space, how it is always related to other genres and media, and how its inherent mobility responds to the literary marketplace and resonates with key critical themes in contemporary literary studies. The chapters offer authoritative introductions and reinterpretations of a literary form that has re-emerged as a major force in the twenty-first century public sphere dominated by the Internet. The Woman Who Rode Away and Other Stories D. H. Lawrence, 2002-08-08 These thirteen short stories were written between 1924 and 1928 Eleven were collected in The Woman Who Rode Away 1928 though The Man Who Loved Islands appeared in the American edition only and the other two in The Lovely Lady 1933 An unpublished fragment A Pure Witch is also included

Henry Handel Richardson Vol 2 Edited By Clive Probyn and Bruce Steele, 2013-07-17 The publication of Henry Handel Richardson's correspondence will be a major event in Australian scholarly publishing It will be the first time any Australian literary writer has had his/her correspondence published in its entirety The letters of Henry Handel Richardson deposited in the National Library of Australia in Canberra and in the Mitchell Library in Sydney were opened in March 1996 to unrestricted access after a fifty year period of closed access The executrix of the HHR estate has determined however that none of the letters may be published in whole or in part until after Probyn and Steele's edition of the complete correspondence has been released At present there are approximately 1800 unpublished manuscript letters to and from HHR of which at least 1000 are in her own hand They form a correspondence between Australia England Germany Italy and the USA for the period 1874 to 1946 Within the total number there are two quite distinct and major sub groups the first 1910-14 being a collection of both sides of the correspondence between HHR and the French translator of Maurice Guest Paul Solanges the second 1911-46 letters between HHR and Mary A Kernot of Melbourne As well as the letters held in the National and Mitchell libraries the editors possess an entire sequence of letters from William Heinemann to HHR and her husband John George Robertson detailing the publication history of Ultima Thule the final volume of The Fortunes of Richard Mahoney the trilogy which cemented her international reputation They are adding to the collection almost monthly but have reason to believe that about 90% of the extant letters are now in their possession The letters as might be expected shed much new light on HHR's biography her artistic methods her personal life her friendships and antagonisms her response to Australian readers and to expatriation and her efforts to maintain a literary life apart from her personal life The series includes HHR's earliest letter her student days in Leipzig the publication of Maurice Guest The Getting of Wisdom The Fortunes of Richard Mahoney The End of a Childhood and The Young Cosima and her experience of life in wartime England Some of the most vivid letters describe her schooldays the biographical context for The Getting of Wisdom her memories of the Australian bush her relationship with Vance and Nettie Palmer her meetings with Miles Franklin her views on contemporary writing and life in wartime England In particular the letters to and from Solanges are packed with information about the writing the autobiographical roots and the meaning of Maurice Guest The letters to Kernot provide constant linkages between life in England and Australia during the most formative period for modern Australian literature including the negotiations for HHR's Nobel Prize nomination

Henry Handel Richardson Vol 1 Probyn, Clive, Steele, Bruce, 2013-07-17 This three volume set marks the first time any Australian literary writer has had his/her correspondence published in its entirety The letters of Henry Handel Richardson were opened in March 1996 to unrestricted access but none of the letters may be published until this edition of the complete correspondence has been released At present there are approximately 1800 unpublished manuscript letters to and from HHR which form a correspondence between Australia England German Italy and the USA for the period 1874 to 1946 The letters shed much new light on HHR s biography her artistic methods her personal life her friendships and antagonisms her response to Australian readers and to expatriation and her efforts to maintain a literary life apart from her personal life They include HHR s earliest letter and trace her student days in Leipzig the publication of Maurice Guest The Getting of Wisdom The Fortunes of Richard Mahoney The End of a Childhood and The Young Cosima and her experience of life in wartime England Some of the most vivid letters describe her schooldays the biographical context for The Getting of Wisdom her memories of the Australian bush her relationship with Vance and Nettie Palmer her meetings with Miles Franklin and her views on contemporary writing The letters to Mary Kernot provide constant linkages between life in England and Australia during the most formative period for modern Australian literature including the negotiations for HHR s Nobel Prize nomination British Short Fiction in the Early Nineteenth Century Tim Killick,2016-05-23 In spite of the importance of the idea of the tale within Romantic era literature short fiction of the period has received little attention from critics Contextualizing British short fiction within the broader framework of early nineteenth century print culture Tim Killick argues that authors and publishers sought to present short fiction in book length volumes as a way of competing with the novel as a legitimate and prestigious genre Beginning with an overview of the development of short fiction through the late eighteenth century and analysis of the publishing conditions for the genre including its appearance in magazines and annuals Killick shows how Washington Irving s hugely popular collections set the stage for British writers Subsequent chapters consider the stories and sketches of writers as diverse as Mary Russell Mitford and James Hogg as well as didactic short fiction by authors such as Hannah More Maria Edgeworth and Amelia Opie His book makes a convincing case for the evolution of short fiction into a self conscious intentionally modern form with its own techniques and imperatives separate from those of the novel R.
