A Christmas Ghost Story Kim Newman,2024-10-08 From the acclaimed author of Anno Dracula the perfect gift for those who love the dark fantastic imaginations of Neil Gaiman and T Kingfisher this is a nightmarish tale of a haunted Christmas set deep in the British countryside not too long ago Cosy traditions are made twisted and terrifying as a mother and son grapple with their painful past December 1st Angie and her teenage son Rust prepare for Christmas stringing fairy lights around their isolated home on the Somerset levels and decorating a tree with traditional ornaments The first door of the advent calendar is opened but the chocolate inside tastes off Rust receives his first Christmas card it s unsigned and the message is pinch punch first of the month The robin chirruping on a bough in a snowy woodland picture looks like a nasty piece of work The cards keep coming one each day and each more sinister than the last and a frightened Angie recalls The Cards a seasonal TV show from her childhood that featured similar happenings and while she remembers it vividly there is no evidence that it was ever broadcast Christmas cheer is gradually poisoned with cruels instead of carols the turkey rotting in the fridge unwelcome visits from the Merciless Gentlemen and the Jingle Basterds and Rust becoming increasingly unwell Angie begins to wonder if her childhood Christmases were in fact as joy filled as she remembers A frightening tale of seasonal dread from a master of horror PARENTS WANTED! Divine Discourse Nicholas Wolterstorff,1995-10-05 Prominent in the canonical texts and traditions of Judaism Christianity and Islam is the claim that God speaks Nicholas Wolterstorff argues that contemporary speech action theory when appropriately expanded offers us a fascinating way of interpreting this claim and showing its intelligibility He develops an innovative theory of double hermeneutics along the way opposing the current near consensus led by Ricoeur and Derrida that there is something wrong headed about interpreting a text to find out what its author said Wolterstorff argues that at least some of us are entitled to believe that God has spoken Philosophers have never before in any sustained fashion reflected on these matters mainly because they have mistakenly treated speech as revelation
