Who Standard Acupuncture Point Locations:

WHO Standard Acupuncture Point Locations in the Western Pacific Region ,2008-06-05 Acupuncture has been practiced for more than 2500 years in the Western Pacific region and has become a global therapeutic method in recent decades However it was reported that acupuncturists differed by up to 25% in the acupuncture points they used raising doubts and uncertainty regarding the efficacy and safety of acupuncture treatment as well as causing difficulties in the fields of acupuncture research and education Member States therefore increasingly began to demand standardization in acupuncture point locations Responding to this request the WHO Western Pacific Regional Office initiated a project to reach consensus on acupuncture point locations and thus convened 11 serial meetings resulting in these guidelines This Standard acupuncture point locations in the Western Pacific Region stipulates the methodology for locating acupuncture points on the surface of the human body as well as the locations of 361 acupuncture points The Standard is applicable for teaching research clinical service publication and academic exchanges involving acupuncture The Principles and Practical Application of Acupuncture Point Combinations David Hartmann,2019-09-19 A foundation textbook explaining how point combinations work in acupuncture practice The book explains how each point works and how best to combine points for good clinical results Students and practitioners need to respond to clinical challenges in creative and flexible ways and this book guides them in the art of construction of effective treatment protocols Clinically useful combinations are presented throughout along with case studies showing the application of theory to practice Acupuncture – Basic Research and Clinical Application Gerhard Litscher,2018-10-09 This book is a printed edition of the Special Issue Acupuncture Basic Research and Clinical Application that was published in Medicines Integrating East Asian Medicine into Contemporary Healthcare E-Book Volker Scheid,Hugh MacPherson,2011-10-24 Traditional East Asian healthcare systems have moved rapidly from the fringes of healthcare systems in the West towards the centre over the past 50 years This change of status for traditional medicines presents their practitioners with both opportunities and challenges as the focus shifts from one of opposition towards one of integration into biomedically dominated healthcare systems Integrating East Asian Medicine into Contemporary Healthcare examines the opportunities and challenges of integrating East Asian medicine into Western healthcare systems from an interdisciplinary perspective Volker Scheid and Hugh MacPherson bring together contributions from acknowledged experts from a number of different disciplines including clinical researchers Chinese Medicine practitioners historians medical anthropologists experts in the social studies of science technology and medicine to examine and debate the impact of the evidence based medicine movement on the ongoing modernization of East Asian medicines The book considers the following questions What are the values goals and ethics implicit within traditional East Asian medical practices What claims to effectiveness and safety are made by East Asian medical practices What is at stake in subjecting these medical practices to biomedical models of evaluation What constitutes best practice How is it to be defined and measured What are the ideologies and politics behind the process of integration of East Asian medical practices into modern health care systems What can we learn from a variety of models of integration into contemporary healthcare Acupuncture in Modern Medicine Lucy L Chen,Tsung O. Cheng,2013-03-06 This book contains four integrated sections 1 Acupuncture Research 2 New Developments in Acupuncture 3 Acupuncture Therapy for Clinical Conditions and 4 Assessment and Accessibility in Acupuncture Therapy Section 1 provides updates on acupuncture research From acupuncture effects in modulation of immune system to the role of nitric oxide in acupuncture mechanisms chapters in this section offer readers the newest trends in acupuncture research Section 2 summarizes new developments in acupuncture The included chapters discuss new tools and methods in acupuncture such as laser acupuncture sham needles and new technologies Section 3 discusses acupuncture therapy for clinical conditions The chapters in this section provide comprehensive and critical views of acupuncture therapy and its application in common clinical practice Section 4 takes a new look at the issues related to assessment and accessibility in acupuncture therapy These issues are central to developing new standards for outcome assessment and policies that will increase the accessibility to acupuncture therapy When Traditional Medicine Met the World Health Organization Seung Hoon Choi,2025-02-05 Originating from ancient Chinese medicine Traditional East Asian Medicine TEAM has a history spanning more than two thousand years TEAM gained global recognition in the early 21st century with its inclusion in the World Health Organization s International Classification of Diseases 11th Revision ICD 11 This achievement is one result of the standardization efforts promoted by the author during a five year tenure as a Regional Adviser at WHO WPRO from 2003 At that time the standardization of TEAM encompassed standard terminology acupuncture point locations diagnostic classifications and clinical practice guidelines These initiatives have revolutionized TEAM This book provides a vivid account of the process presented as a journal WHO benchmarks for the practice of acupuncture ,2021-04-19 With the increasing use of acupuncture in clinical settings worldwide there is a need to develop benchmarks for the practice of acupuncture against which actual acupuncture treatment can be compared and evaluated This document presents a stepwise guidance for the administration of acupuncture treatment provides the minimum infrastructure requirements for delivering an acupuncture service and emphasizes the key elements for the safe practice of acupuncture This document offers a useful reference point to evaluate acupuncture practice which will benefit policymakers health workers education providers and the public in general It forms an integral part of the updated benchmark series targeting key modalities of traditional medicine intervention and contributing to the establishment of a reference toolkit for countries
