English With An Accent:

English with an Accent Rosina Lippi-Green, 1997 In English with an Accent Rosina Lippi Green examines American attitudes towards language exposing the way in which language is used to maintain and perpetuate social structures

English with an Accent Rusty Barrett, Jennifer Cramer, Kevin B. McGowan, 2022-11-30 Since its original publication in 1997 English with an Accent has inspired generations of scholars to investigate linguistic discrimination social categorization social structures and power This new edition is an attempt to retain the spirit of the original while enriching and expanding it to reflect the greater understanding of linguistic discrimination that it has helped create This third edition has been substantially reworked to include An updated concept of social categories how they are constructed in interaction and how they can be invoked and perceived through linguistic cues or language ideologies Refreshed accounts of the countless social and structural factors that go into linguistic discrimination Expanded attention to specific linguistic structures language groups and social domains that go beyond those provided in earlier editions New dedicated chapter on American Sign Language and its history of discrimination QR codes linking to external media stories and other forms of engagement beyond the text A revamped website with additional material English with an Accent remains a book that forces us to acknowledge and understand the ways language is used as an excuse for discrimination The book will help readers to better understand issues of cross cultural communication to develop strategies for successful interactions across social difference to recognize patterns of language that reflect implicit bias and to gain awareness of how mistaken beliefs about language create and nurture prejudice and discrimination

English with an Accent Rosina Lippi-Green, 2012-03-15 Since its initial publication English with an Accent has provoked debate and controversy within classrooms through its in depth scrutiny of American attitudes towards language Rosina Lippi Green discusses the ways in which discrimination based on accent functions to support and perpetuate social structures and unequal power relations This second edition has been reorganized and revised to include new dedicated chapters on Latino English and Asian American English discussion questions further reading and suggested classroom exercises updated examples from the classroom the judicial system the media and corporate culture a discussion of the long term implications of the Ebonics debate a brand new companion website with a glossary of key terms and links to audio video and images relevant to the each chapter's content English with an Accent is essential reading for students with interests in attitudes and discrimination towards language

Thinking with an Accent Pooja Rangan, 2023-02-21 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press's Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more Everyone speaks with an accent but what is an accent Thinking with an Accent introduces accent as a powerfully coded yet underexplored mode of perception that includes looking listening acting reading and thinking This volume convenes scholars of media literature education law language and sound to theorize accent as an object of inquiry an interdisciplinary method and an embodied practice Accent does more than just denote identity from algorithmic bias and corporate pedagogy to migratory poetics and the politics of comparison accent mediates global economies of discrimination and desire Accents happen between bodies and media They negotiate power and invite attunement These essays invite the reader to think with an accent to practice a dialogical and multimodal inquiry that can yield transformative modalities of knowledge action and care Review of "English with an Accent: Language, Ideology, and Discrimination in the United States" by Lippi-Green Laura Götz, 2017-06-19 Literature Review from the year 2016 in the subject American Studies Linguistics grade 1 3 University of Potsdam course English in the U S language English abstract This research paper is a review of Lippi Green s book on American Accents It simultaneously covers geographical accents as well as social and cultural accents within the United States It finishes with a theoretical position and points of critique by the author Writing With An Accent Edvige Giunta, 2016-04-30 Mary Cappello Louise DeSalvo Sandra M Gilbert Maria Mazziotti Gillan Carole Maso Agnes Rossi These are some of the best known Italian American writers today They are part of a literary tradition with mid twentieth century roots that began to develop in earnest in the late 1970s and early 1980s During those decades a number of Italian American women such as Helen Barolini began to publish books that depicted their perspectives on life through the critical lenses of gender class and ethnicity At the end of the twentieth century this literature finally blossomed into a fully fledged cultural movement that also took into account issues of sexuality age illness and familial and societal abuse Writing with an Accent takes a look at this vibrant literary movement by discussing those first writers of the 1970s and 1980s as well as later authors At the center of Edvige Giunta s Writing with an Accent is the literal notion of accent the marker of linguistic and cultural difference that separates and identifies recent immigrants to the United States In this study an accent symbolically embodies the differences and creative strategies through which contemporary Italian American women writers engage Italian American culture in works of fiction poetry and memoir Giunta also looks at the links between the literature and art music film and video produced by contemporary Italian American women The literature of the Italian American women in Writing with an Accent is shaped by the complicated connections these authors maintain with their cultural origins but also and perhaps more importantly by their feminist consciousness and politicized sense of ethnic identity Writing with an Accent celebrates and explores a group of authors who characteristically mix the joy and pain of Italian American life to paint a multifaceted picture of Italian American women and their complex place in U S culture A New Perspective for the Use of Dialect in African American Spirituals Felicia Raphael Marie Barber, 2021-10-06 A New Perspective for the Use of Dialect in African American Spirituals History Context and Linguistics investigates the use of the African American English AAE dialect in the musical genre of the spiritual Perfect for conductors and performers alike this book traces the history of the dialect its use in early performance practice and the sociolinguistic impact of the AAE dialect in the United States Felicia Barber explores AAE s development during the African Diaspora and its correlations with Southern States White English SSWE and examines the dialect s perception and how its weaponization has impacted the performance of the genre itself She provides a synopsis of research on the use of dialect in spirituals from the past century through the analysis of written scores recordings and research She identifies common elements of early performance practice and provides the phonological and grammatical features identified in early practice This book contains practical guide for application of her findings on ten popular spiritual texts using the International Phonetic Alphabet IPA It concludes with insights by leading arrangers on their use of AAE dialect as a part of the genre and practice

Stigmatized on Screen
Lindsey Clouse, 2022-06-27 This book reveals how marginalized communities and women are underrepresented on our screens and too often depicted in stereotypical ways This is doubly true for marginalized speakers those who speak traditionally nonstandard dialects Lindsey Clouse examines the origins of linguistic prejudice and how our public schools perpetuate the myth of bad English By dissecting the 500 top grossing films of the last 20 years Clouse exposes how speakers of Black English Southern U S English Spanish influenced English and gendered speech patterns are represented underrepresented misrepresented and mocked Clouse analyzes hundreds of films and characters to reveal how filmmakers and audiences work together to reinforce negative beliefs about stigmatized dialects and the people who speak them and reveals how those beliefs stack up against decades of linguistic research She concludes by showing that these portrayals translate to real life linguistic discrimination and discusses the ways in which we can combat this often hidden prejudice Scholars of introductory sociolinguistics american dialect studies and media studies will find this book of particular interest

The Documentary Audit Pooja Rangan, 2025-07-01 Documentary films are often celebrated with aural metaphors they give voice to the voiceless and ask the public to listen But when did listening become synonymous with social justice How exactly do documentaries train audiences to listen when they ask them to right historic wrongs or hold power to account The Documentary Audit challenges the association of listening with accountability and charts oppositional modes of listening otherwise Pooja Rangan develops a framework for understanding how documentary practices have under the mantle of accountability provided a moral cover for listening habits that are used to profile exclude and incarcerate From the British Crown s promotional films to Zoom meeting recordings from disability informed filmmaking in Japan to forensic efforts to expose anti Palestinian violence in Hebron Rangan explores how historical and contemporary practitioners have challenged and refused the lures of normative documentary listening habits in order to listen with an accent listen in crip time and listen like an abolitionist Through an interdisciplinary approach that bridges documentary and sound studies while considering raciolinguistics disability access and legal forensics Rangan demonstrates how the question of listening is central to the study of documentary Far from being a neutral ethic The Documentary Audit shows listening creates the reality it purports to verify with transformative political possibilities

million strong constitute approximately 35 percent of the U S population a percentage that declines slightly each year They matter very much to discussions of race ethnicity and gender in the US due to their numbers and the enormous influence they have wielded and continue to wield In this highly original and readable work Dominic Pulera offers the broadest and most balanced treatment of the white male experience in America to date He contends that virtually all white males are sharing the American dream with women and people of color in response to the nation s changing demographics and the multicultural mindset that informs policies and attitudes in our nation Some white males are sharing the dream voluntarily others are doing so involuntarily The author also explores the heterogeneity of white male America taking into account such factors as age ethnicity ideology social class regional background occupational status and sexual orientation This timely work relies on a broad range of sources including extensive field research and hundreds of interviews along with the best primary and secondary sources available It includes original historical treatments discussion of contemporary dynamics and comparative material that takes into account the experiences of peoples in other countries In doing so Pulera places white males in the context of America s ongoing transition from a predominantly white country to one where people of color are increasingly numerous and consequently becoming more visible Dominic J Pulera is an independent scholar who lectures and writes about issues related to race ethnicity and gender In the wake of his first book Visible Differences Why Race Will Matter to Americans in the Twenty First Century he spoke at 13 universities on 4 continents and appeared on a one hour segment of Book TV C Span He has been a frequent guest on radio and television programs in Atlanta Baltimore Chicago Detroit Los Angeles Philadelphia and Washington D C World Englishes Kingsley Bolton, Braj B. Kachru, 2006

Encyclopedic Graded Grammar Vol 2 , Language Learning and the Mother Tongue Sara Greaves, Monique De Mattia-Viviès, 2022-06-30 Innovative and interdisciplinary in approach this book explores the role of the mother tongue in second language learning It brings together contributions from a diverse team of authors to showcase a range of Francophone perspectives from the fields of linguistics psychology cross cultural psychiatry psychoanalysis translation studies literature creative writing the neurosciences and more The book introduces a major new concept the Mother tongue and shows its relevance to language learning and pediatrics in a multicultural society The first chapter explores this concept from different angles and the subsequent chapters present a range of theoretical and practical perspectives including counselling case studies literary examples and creative plurilingual pedagogies to highlight how this theory can inform practical approaches to language learning Engaging and accessible readers will find new ideas and methods to adopt to their own thinking and practices whether their background is in language and linguistics psychiatry psychology or neuroscience Identity, Agency and the Acquisition of Professional Language and Culture Ping Deters, 2011-07-21 This unique work analyzes the crisis in modern society building on the ideas of the Frankfurt School thinkers Emphasizing social evolution and learning processes it argues that crisis is mediated by social class conflicts and collective learning the results of which are embodied in constitutional and public law First the work outlines a new categorical framework of critical theory in which it is conceived as a theory of crisis It shows that the Marxist focus on economy and on class struggle is too narrow to deal with the range of social conflicts within modern society and posits that a crisis of legitimization is at the core of all crises It then discusses the dialectic of revolutionary and evolutionary developmental processes of modern society and its legal system This volume in the Critical Theory and Contemporary Society by a leading scholar in the field provides a new approach to critical theory that will appeal to anyone studying political sociology political theory and law
