Ethnic Conflict In Uganda Political Science:

Political Science in Africa, 2023-12-28 Bringing together African and international scholars this book gives an account of the present state of the discipline of political science in Africa generating insights into its present and future trajectories and assessing the freedom with which it is practiced Tackling subjects including the decolonization of the discipline political scientists as public intellectuals and the teaching of political science this diverse range of perspectives paints a detailed picture of the impact and relevance of the political science discipline on the continent during the struggles for democratization and the influence it continues to exert today

Ethnic Politics and State Power in Africa Philip Roessler, 2016-12-15 Why are some African countries trapped in vicious cycles of ethnic exclusion and civil war while others experience relative peace In this groundbreaking book Philip Roessler addresses this question Roessler models Africa's weak ethnically divided states as confronting rulers with a coup civil war trap sharing power with ethnic rivals is necessary to underwrite societal peace and prevent civil war but increases rivals capabilities to seize sovereign power in a coup d'état How rulers respond to this strategic trade off is shown to be a function of their country's ethnic geography and the distribution of threat capabilities it produces Moving between in depth case studies of Sudan and the Democratic Republic of the Congo based on years of field work and statistical analyses of powersharing coups and civil war across sub-Saharan Africa the book serves as an exemplar of the benefits of mixed methods research for theory building and testing in comparative politics

Handbook of Ethnic Conflict Dan Landis, Rosita D. Albert, 2012-02-14 Although group conflict is hardly new the last decade has seen a proliferation of conflicts engaging intrastate ethnic groups It is estimated that two thirds of violent conflicts being fought each year in every part of the globe including North America are ethnic conflicts Unlike traditional warfare civilians comprise more than 80 percent of the casualties and the economic and psychological impact on survivors is often so devastating that some experts believe that ethnic conflict is the most destabilizing force in the post Cold War world Although these conflicts also have political economic and other causes the purpose of this volume is to develop a psychological understanding of ethnic warfare More specifically Handbook of Ethnopolitical Conflict explores the function of ethnic religious and national identities in intergroup conflict In addition it features recommendations for policy makers with the intention to reduce or ameliorate the occurrences and consequences of these conflicts worldwide

The Logic of Ethnic and Religious Conflict in Africa John F. McCauley, 2017-04-27 This book explains why conflicts in Africa are sometimes ethnic and sometimes religious and why a conflict might change from ethnic to religious even as the opponents remain fixed Conflicts in the region are often viewed as either tribal or Muslim Christian seemingly rooted in deep seated ethnic or religious hatreds Yet as this book explains those labels emerge as a function of political mobilization It argues that ethnicity and religion inspire distinct passions among individuals and that political leaders exploit those passions to achieve their own strategic goals when the institutions of the state break down To support this argument the book relies on a novel experiment conducted in Cote d'Ivoire and Ghana to demonstrate that individual preferences change in ethnic and religious contexts. It then uses case illustrations from Cote d'Ivoire, Nigeria and Sudan to highlight the strategic choices of leaders that ultimately shape the frames of conflict.

The Anthropology of Africa: Challenges for the 21st Century Nchoji Nkwi, 2015-02-02. In 1999 August 30 September 2 the Pan African Anthropological Association PAAA marked the 10th anniversary of its creation by holding its 9th Annual Conference in Yaounde, Cameroon, the city and country of its birth. The conference themed 'The Anthropology of Africa: Challenges for the 21st Century' was attended by some seventy participants, mostly African. Among the international participants was Dr Sydel Silverman, President of the Wenner Gren Foundation, at the time a long-term partner of the PAAA; she was present at the inaugural conference in 1988. The conference proceedings were initially published in 2000 with very limited circulation. Given the continued relevance of the papers presented and in view of the call by the President of the PAAA for African anthropologists to reunite anthropological theory and practice in the teaching programmes of African universities, the PAAA is pleased to republish the proceedings of its landmark 9th Annual Conference. The book consists of forty-three chapters divided into eight parts, namely: i. teaching anthropology in the decades ahead; ii. Health Challenges: HIV/AIDS; iii. Anthropological Perspectives; iv. NGOS: Use and Misuse of Anthropology; v. Anthropological Focus on Environment; vi. Some Applied Issues in Anthropology; vii. The African Family in Crisis; viii. Ethnicity and Ethnic Conflicts; and ix. Population issues and anthropology: Fertility Crisis. Paul Nkwi concludes his introduction to the volume with these words: 'The Anthropology of Africa will remain for a long time fundamentally applied if it is to meet the challenges of the 21st Century.'

Ethnic Groups in Conflict, Updated Edition With a New Preface Donald L. Horowitz, 2001-04-09. Drawing material from dozens of divided societies, Donald L. Horowitz constructs his theory of ethnic conflict, relating ethnic affiliations to kinship and intergroup relations to the fear of domination. A groundbreaking work when it was published in 1985, the book remains an original and powerfully argued comparative analysis of one of the most important forces in the contemporary world.

Facing Ethnic Conflicts Andreas Wimmer, Richard J. Goldstone, Donald L. Horowitz, Ulrike Joras, Conrad Schetter, 2004-08-20. Ethnic conflict is the major form of mass political violence in the world today, and it has been since World War II. Dramatic acts of terrorism and calculated responses to them may distract the attention of policymakers and the public, but ethnic and nationalist conflict continues to pose the greatest challenge to peace and security across the globe. Causes of such conflict and ideas about how to address it are hotly debated in the literature that has emerged over the past fifteen years. This volume offers a unique overview of research and policy approaches to ethnic conflicts. It is the first book to bring together experienced policymakers and key scholars from all disciplines. They debate how to best understand the rise and escalation of ethnic conflict, assess different strategies for peacemaking, mediation and reconciliation, and evaluate the prospects for conflict management through institutional design. In contrast with a more enthusiastic assessment of the willingness and capacity to successfully intervene in ethnic conflict, this volume documents the new realism that has emerged over the past decade It recognizes the complex and protracted nature of such conflicts and demands a multifaceted case by case approach sustained by long term political engagement Published in co operation with the Center for Development Research University of Bonn Annual World Bank Conference on Development Economics 1998 Boris Pleskovic, Joseph E. Stiglitz, 1999 The 1998 Annual World Bank Conference on Development Economics the tenth anniversary was held at the Bank on April 20 21 1998 The discussions focused on four areas of inquiry 1 the role of geography in countries success 2 the role of effective competition and regulatory policies 3 the causes of financial crises and ways to prevent them and 4 the effects of ethnic diversity on democracy and growth The welcoming address by World Bank President James D Wolfensohn the opening remarks by chief Economist Joseph Stiglitz and the tenth anniversary address by the International Monetary Fund Deputy Managing Director Stanley Fischer all focused both on the role of the conference and on the changing perspectives for development Routledge Handbook of Peacebuilding and Ethnic Conflict Jessica Senehi, Imani Michelle Scott, Sean Byrne, Thomas G. Matyók, 2022-08-22 This handbook offers a comprehensive analysis of peacebuilding in ethnic conflicts with attention to theory peacebuilder roles making sense of the past and shaping the future as well as case studies and approaches Comprising 28 chapters that present key insights on peacebuilding in ethnic conflicts the volume has implications for teaching and training as well as for practice and policy The handbook is divided into four thematic parts Part 1 focuses on critical dimensions of ethnic conflicts including root causes gender external involvements emancipatory peacebuilding hatred as a public health issue environmental issues American nationalism and the impact of the COVID 19 pandemic Part 2 focuses on peacebuilders roles including Indigenous peacemaking nonviolent accompaniment peace leadership in the military interreligious peacebuilders local women and young people Part 3 addresses the past and shaping of the future including a discussion of public memory heritage rights and monuments refugees trauma and memory aggregated trauma in the African American community exhumations after genocide and a healing centered approach to conflict Part 4 presents case studies on Sri Lanka s postwar reconciliation process peacebuilding in Mindanao the transformative peace negotiation in Aceh and Bougainville external economic aid for peacebuilding in Northern Ireland Indigenous and local peacemaking and a continuum of peacebuilding focal points The handbook offers perspectives on the breadth and significance of peacebuilding work in ethnic conflicts throughout the world This volume will be of much interest to students of peacebuilding ethnic conflict security studies and international relations War and Conflict in Africa Paul D. Williams, 2013-04-26 After the Cold War Africa earned the dubious distinction of being the world s most bloody continent But how can we explain this proliferation of armed conflicts What caused them and what were their main characteristics And what did the world s governments do to stop them In this fully revised and updated second edition of his popular text Paul Williams offers an in depth and wide ranging assessment of more than six hundred armed conflicts which took place in Africa from 1990 to the present day from the continental catastrophe in the Great Lakes region to the sprawling conflicts across the

Sahel and the web of wars in the Horn of Africa Taking a broad comparative approach to examine the political contexts in which these wars occurred he explores the major patterns of organized violence the key ingredients that provoked them and the major international responses undertaken to deliver lasting peace Part I Contexts provides an overview of the most important attempts to measure the number scale and location of Africa s armed conflicts and provides a conceptual and political sketch of the terrain of struggle upon which these wars were waged Part II Ingredients analyses the role of five widely debated features of Africa s wars the dynamics of neopatrimonial systems of governance the construction and manipulation of ethnic identities questions of sovereignty and self determination as well as the impact of natural resources and religion Part III Responses discusses four major international reactions to Africa s wars attempts to build a new institutional architecture to help promote peace and security on the continent this architecture s two main policy instruments peacemaking initiatives and peace operations and efforts to develop the continent War and Conflict in Africa will be essential reading for all students of international peace and security studies as well as Africa s international relations

Who Intervenes? David Carment, Patrick James, Zeynep Taydas, 2006 The book includes a comparative analysis of five case studies India and Sri Lanka Somalia and Ethiopia Malaysia and the Thai Malay a non intervention the immediate aftermath of the breakup of Yugoslavia and Greece and Turkey with Cyprus The case histories produce strong support for the relevance of the typology and catalysts Ethnic composition institutional constraint and ethnic affinity and cleavage are very useful factors in distinguishing both the likelihood and form of intervention

Ethnicity and Sociopolitical Change in Africa and Other Developing Countries Santosh C. Saha, 2008-03-07 This edited collection of essays answers a basic question posed by contemporary discourse on state building How might people's identification with a particular ethnic group matter Essays in this book use an integrated multi disciplinary approach to understanding regional and local community culture and socio political development in developing countries especially in Sub Saharan Africa to argue that the state as well as civil society confers on cultural differences a legitimacy that can be achieved in no other way but by positive cooperation Contributors from different countries look at local patterns in state building and modernization as they have unfolded over the course of the last fifty years They claim that the people and ethnic groups in most developing countries adhere to a concept of popular sovereignty that testifies that aspects of positive and moral ethnicity can contribute to social change as in China economic development as in India or in a democratization process as in Rwanda and Burundi The eventual methodological assumption made by these essays presumes that ethnic conflicts in such countries as Cyprus Turkey India and Rwanda have no moral sanction ethnicity has not assumed a political ideology One conclusion reached by the contributors is that some form of accommodation between opposing ethnically diversified groups as well as between state and ethnic elements is feasible

Ethnic Party Bans in Africa Matthijs Bogaards, Matthias Basedau, Christof Hartmann, 2013-09-13 In Sub Saharan Africa the spread of democracy since the 1990s has been accompanied by the proliferation of bans on ethnic political parties A majority of constitutions in the region explicitly prohibit political parties to organize on the basis of race ethnicity religion region and other socio cultural attributes More than a hundred political parties have been dissolved suspended or denied registration on these grounds This book documents the experience with ethnic party bans in Africa traces its origins examines its record and answers the question whether ethnic party bans are an effective and legitimate instrument in the
