Expectancy Theory Of Motivation Motivating By Altering

Robert Holzmann

Expectancy Theory Of Motivation Motivating By Altering:

Religiöse Erfahrung und Entscheidungsfindung Katharina Karl, 2015-03-01 Was bewegt jüngere Menschen sich angesichts vielfältiger Optionen einem Orden oder einer geistlichen Gemeinschaft anzuschließen? Dieser Fragestellung geht der vorliegende Band nach. In einer qualitativ empirischen Studie wird die Konstruktion narrativer Identität des Ordensnachwuchses analysiert. Dazu werden fünfzig junge Menschen, die sich für einen Beitritt zu einer Gemeinschaft entschieden haben, zu ihrer Motivation, Entscheidungsfindung sowie ihren religiösen Schlüsselerfahrungen befragt, und ihre Selbsterzählungen biografiesensibel ausgewertet. Die Ergebnisse bieten nicht nur wichtige Impulse für die Weiterentwicklung der kirchlichen Berufungspastoral. Sie besitzen ebenso einen hohen pastoral und religionssoziologischen Wert und erhellen die individuelle und soziokulturelle Situation des Glaubens zu Beginn des 21. Jahrhunderts. Produktrückrufe in der deutschen Automobilindustrie Michael van Venrooy, 2015-04-20 Michael van Venrooy entwickelt ein Faktorenmodell, das die verhaltenswissenschaftlich relevanten Kriterien für eine erfolgreiche und zeitnahe Umsetzung von Produktrückrufen in der deutschen Automobilindustrie in ein verhaltenstheoretisches Modell integriert. Bei einer quantitativen Analyse realer Rückrufdaten identifiziert der Autor drei Hauptgruppen von Rückrufteilnehmern, deren motivationale Beweggründe er mit Hilfe qualitativer Ansätze erforscht. Im Zuge der Analysen wird deutlich, dass der Erfolg eines Rückrufes nicht durch die Entscheidung zum Produktrückruf, sondern vielmehr durch komplexe motivationale Kommunikations- und verstandnisrelevante Problematiken getrieben wird. Das Faktorenmodell zeigt diese auf und integriert sie in einen Handlungsablauf der Entscheidungsfindung durch die Konsumenten und gibt wichtige Einblicke in die Denk- und Handlungsweisen der Betroffenen. Betrug und Korruption im Experiment Robert Holzmann, 2016-02-08 Robert Holzmann richtet den Fokus seiner Untersuchungen auf Compliance als sozialen Problembereich und schließt eine Brücke zwischen existierenden sozialwissenschaftlichen Erkenntnissen zu ethischem Fehlverhalten und der betrieblichen Praxis. Auf Basis einer stringent metaanalytischen Vorgehensweise verdichtet der Autor hierfür bisherige Erkenntnisse der experimentellen Moralpsychologie zur Ableitung konkreter Handlungsempfehlungen. Wirtschaftskriminelle und ethische Verfehlungen belasten nicht nur den kurzfristigen Erfolg von Unternehmen, sondern untergraben auch deren langfristige Reputation und Vertrauenswürdigkeit. Durch umfassende und kostenintensive Compliance-Programme versuchen sich Unternehmen deswegen vor solchen Risiken zu schützen. Continuous and Embedded Learning for Organizations Jon M. Quigley, Shawn P. Quigley, 2020-06-24 There is considerable connection between growth of the personnel in the organization and the ability for the company to compete over time. Looking outside for help, training may be required, but looking within for opportunities for enhanced training and growth will foster a continually improving and growing organization. This book examines the opportunities for learning within the organization and its activities along with the connection to motivation. Additionally, it provides information on the characteristics of organizations that are able to quickly disseminate along with approaches for improving this.

distribution of that learning throughout the organization Leadership Theories and Case Studies Garry Wade McGiboney, 2018-07-27 Effective leadership does not occur by chance Leaders must be trained and groomed for the daunting responsibility of leading organizations Research shows that half of the people currently in leadership positions will fail Why they fail and what can be done to prevent failure are the main subjects of this book It shows that effective leadership is possible and illustrates why and how based on research and case studies from an epidemiological perspective The epidemiological word determinant is used frequently and is a word that no other book on leadership uses Epidemiologists work from two basic principles namely that all diseases have determinants and that diseases do not occur randomly In other words there are always causes for diseases and patterns that describe how diseases spread Effective and ineffective leadership always have determinants that are not randomly distributed the impacts are uniformly and deeply spread throughout an organization Like the epidemiologists this book not only identifies leadership determinants but also provides research based antidotes at the end of each chapter along with a summary of the most salient points in the chapter This book offers examples of leadership and governance from the non profit sector businesses public and private education higher education and other organizations highlighting over 50 case studies to illustrate concepts about leadership ICA 2019 Sri Hastjarjo, Dorien Kartikawangi, Loina Lalolo Krina Perangin-angin, Kundharu Saddhono, Robbi Rahim, 2021-02-08 The advance technological development has led to the revolution on the way people communicating People things and systems now are all connected in cyberspace and optimal results obtained by artificial intelligence AI exceeding the capabilities of humans fed back to physical space This process brings new value to industry and society in ways not possible previously To explore and examine it the proceedings comprise themes 1 communication industry and beyond that focused on the concept of personalization to the next level of mass personalization in the communication fields 2 social cultural and its implications that explore communities based on interest religion or shared identify to achieve a forward looking society whose members have mutual respect for each other transcending the generations and lead an active and enjoyable life 3 the digitization of content that focuses on the process of converting information into a digital format where the big data becomes the central of this area that make easier to preserve access and share information to people worldwide but implied by the competencies and ethics 4 governance politics and good public governance that explore the way public control others and participate to all governance related activities for encouraging transparency and public accountability politics and democracy 5 entrepreneurship that focuses on the endorsement of technological based innovation that give opportunity to create and develop an initiative effected to society from a scale up start up to a global level or become a social entrepreneur using the technology as a place to break a social change and 6 special issues exploring interests in global regional national and local level Dos and Don'ts of Completing the Ed.D. Organizational Entrepreneurship, Politics and the Political Carine Farias, Pablo Fernandez, Daniel Hjorth, Robin Holt, 2020-12-17

Entrepreneurship as the creation of new organizations has globally become an appealing call for individuals and governments alike Too often still it is simply associated with the idea of enterprise thus sustaining a pervasive politics of homo economicus agents living a measured life in competition based individuality Organizational Entrepreneurship Politics and the Political disconnects entrepreneurship from the politics of enterprise to more fully explore its potential to resist the economic and ethical demand of the enterprise to be instrumentally innovative and instead to disrupt and disturb the established order As such entrepreneurship is seen as inevitably political it is a constant attempt at declassifying existing structures and institutions de normalizing practices and sensemaking to make room for and initiate the new The chapters invite the readers to revisit key concepts in entrepreneurship studies opportunity motivation identity experimentation creative destruction and experimentation by approaching them through a political process lens This book offers a new conceptual repertoire and vocabulary that reconnects entrepreneurship studies with the socio political dimensions of organization creation opening up multiple possibilities for understanding and questioning the meanings and effects of entrepreneurship in society Combining philosophical reflections with organizational and processual perspectives this book will be of interest to academics students and researchers in the areas of business social and political entrepreneurship organization studies and management The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the Entrepreneurship and Regional Development

Motivation, Effort, and the Neural Network Model Theodore Wasserman, Lori Wasserman, 2020-10-27 Our understanding of how the human brain operates and completes its essential tasks continues is fundamentally altered from what it was ten years ago We have moved from an understanding based on the modularity of key structural components and their specialized functions to an almost diametrically opposed highly integrated neural network model based on a vertically organized brain dependent on small world hub principles This new understanding completely changes how we understand essential psychological constructs such as motivation Network modeling posits that motivation is a construct that describes a modified aspect of the operation of the human learning system that is specifically designed to cause a person to pursue a goal Anthropologically and developmentally these goals were initially basic including things like food shelter and reproduction Over the course of time and development they develop into a complex web of extrinsic and then intrinsic goals objectives and values The core for all of this development is the inborn flight or fight reaction has been modified over time by a combination of inborn human temperamental characteristics and life experiences This process of modification is in part based on the operation of a network based error prediction network working in concert with the reward network to produce a system of ever evolving valuations of goals and objectives These valuations are never truly fixed They are constantly evolving being modified and shaped by experience The error prediction network and learning related networks work in concert with the limbic system to allow affect laden experiences to inform the process of valuation These networks operating in concert produce a cognitive process we call motivation Like most networks the motivation system of networks is recruited when the task demands of the situation require them Understanding motivation from this perspective has profound implications for many scientific disciplines in general and psychology in specific Psychologically this new understanding will alter how we understand client behavior in therapy and when being evaluated This new understanding will provide direction for new therapeutic intervention for a variety of disorders of mental health It will also inform testing practices concerning the evaluation of effort and malingering This book is not a project in reductionism It is the polar opposite A neural network understanding of the operation of the human brain allows for the integration of what has come before into a comprehensive and integrated model It will likely provide the basis for future research for years to come

The Theory and Practice of Change Management John Hayes, 2018-01-24 John Hayes bestselling textbook combines a scholarly discussion of change management with a host of practical tools and techniques It provides future managers with all the skills they need to diagnose the need for change and to ensure its successful implementation The book's unique underpinning framework views change as a purposeful and constructed sequence of events rather than something chaotic and unmanageable Its hands on approach includes a number of Change Tools that students can apply to various scenarios an array of case studies and examples based on real life organisations worldwide and video interviews with experienced change practitioners who share their insights on key topics The book will be essential reading for final year business undergraduates as well as MBA and postgraduate students who are taking modules in change management or organisational change It is also ideal for change practitioners and consultants New to this Edition Two new chapters on ethical change management practice A new chapter on value innovation A new section showing how the book supports employability skills Brand new international case studies and examples including the Volkswagen emissions scandal the collapse of BHS and company culture at Uber A free to access website featuring audio visual Tutorials with narration by the author lecturer slides detailed briefings on the book's case studies and much more
