Falling Leaves The True Story Of An Unwanted Chinese Daughter:

Falling Leaves Adeline Yen Mah, 1998-02-18 Yet wealth and position could not shield young Adeline from a childhood of appalling emotional abuse at the hands of her own family Falling Leaves Return to Their Roots Adeline Yen Mah, 1999 Set against the turbulent political times and the collision of East and West in 1930 s China this autobiography describes the complexities of Adeline Yen Mah s relationships with her stepmother and siblings and the trauma of her parents deaths

Falling Leaves Return to Their Roots Adeline Yen Mah, 1999 The autobiography of a Chinese woman growing up unwanted in a wealthy Shanghai family in the midst of political turmoil Beaten by her siblings harshly treated by her stepmother and finally sent away to school this is a true story of neglect Yet it is written with the suspense and emotional force of a novel set against a backdrop of collision between the East and West and in the eloquence of its telling and the dignity of its indomitable protagonist is finally uplifting Falling Leaves Adeline Yen Mah, 2003-06 Falling Leaves Return to Their Roots Adeline Yen Mah, 1997 The story of an unwanted Chinese daughter growing up during the Communist Revolution blamed for her mother s death ignored by her millionaire father and unwanted by her Eurasian step mother A story of greed hatred and jealousy a domestic drama played against the extraordinary political events in China and Hong Kong Written with the emotional force of a novel but with a vividness drawn from a personal and political background FALLING LEAVES has become a surprise bestseller all over the world Chinese Cinderella Adeline Yen Mah, 2009-02-05 Rediscover the A Puffin Book series and bring the best loved classics to a new generation including this 25th anniversary edition of Chinese Cinderella complete with a special introduction by Julia Eccleshare Born into the world with her story already written and woven with bad luck Adeline turns her attention to school where she discovers that she is a talented writer much to Father s disapproval Writer You are going to starve But with a pen in her hand she can t help but wonder what it would be like to be a writer no an author It won t be easy but Adeline must have the courage to rewrite her story

Falling Leaves Adeline Yen Mah, 2001 Adeline Yen Mah s childhood in China during the civil war was a time of fear isolation and humiliation This was not caused by the upheaval of war but by the cruelty she suffered at the hands of members of her own family The moving true story of a young girl s determination to survive the pain of a lonely childhood Falling Leaves Adeline Yen Mah, 1999 The Chinese aphorism falling leaves return to their roots captures the essence of the psychological journey Adeline Yen Mah undertook when she decided to confront and recount her life story Adeline s years of mental and physical abuse began when her mother died shortly after giving birth to her leaving Adeline to suffer under a cold and manipulative stepmother whose sadistic acts were never questioned by her husband Adeline s only refuge was her beloved Aunt Baba a remarkable woman who rebelled against traditional Chinese custom founded the Shanghai Women s bank and lavished encouragement and affection on her niece Eventually Adeline traveled to London to study medicine then made a new life for herself in the United States But her horrific childhood continued to haunt her until at last she was able to examine and accept her roots With a powerful voice that illuminates the complexities of Chinese society and family relationships throughout all cultures Falling Leaves is a work of startling heartfelt intimacy Falling Leaves - the True Story of an Unwanted Chinese Daughter Adeline Yen Mah,1997 Falling Leaves Return to Their Roots ,2008 This book is the life story and family history of Adeline Yen Mah Adeline was born in China at a time of great change and trouble At the same time she suffered terrible unkindness from the members of her own family Falling Leaves is a story of pain and fear but also of hope as Adeline fights for her independence Chinese Cinderella Adeline Yen Mah,2001 The daughter of a wealthy Hong Kong businessman describes her very difficult childhood and the psychological abuse she suffered at the hands of her stepmother Falling Leaves Return to Their Roots Adeline Yen Mah,1998-03-05 New 25th Anniversary Edition _____ I am still haunted by Mah s memoir Riveting A marvel of memory Poignant proof of the human will to endure Amy Tan bestselling author of The Joy Luck Club 1940s Shanghai As the civil war rages on and China falls under communist rule young Adeline lives in constant fear Not of the war but of her family blamed for the death of her mother she is rejected by her father and abused by her cruel stepmother With the help of her aunt Adeline escapes to the United States where she finds love happiness and success But will that be enough to quell a lifelong yearning for acceptance or will she return to the family that rejected her years ago Falling Leaves Return to their Roots is both the enthralling story of a Chinese family in a time of political upheaval and a moving account of one girl s unrelenting will to survive _____ Falling Leaves is a terrible and riveting family history It is also a story about endurance and the cost it can exact Gripping Daily Telegraph An illuminating account of the destructive nature of family relationships set against a backdrop of China in change Mail on Sunday An act not of vengeance or bitterness but of catharsis Sunday Telegraph The Lost Daughters of China Karin Evans,2008-10-02 In 1997 journalist Karin Evans walked into an orphanage in southern China and met her new daughter a beautiful one year old baby girl In this fateful moment Evans became part of a profound increasingly common human drama that links abandoned Chinese girls with foreigners who have traveled many miles to complete their families At once a compelling personal narrative and an evocative portrait of contemporary China The Lost Daughters of China has also served as an invaluable guide for thousands of readers as they navigated the process of adopting from China However much has changed in terms of the Chinese government s policies on adoption since this book was originally published and in this revised and updated edition Evans addresses these developments Also new to this edition is a riveting chapter in which she describes her return to China in 2000 to adopt her second daughter who was nearly three at the time Many of the first girls to be adopted from China are now in the teens China only opened its doors to adoption in the 1990s and this edition includes accounts of their experiences growing up in the US and in some cases of returning to China in search of their roots Illuminating the real life stories behind the statistics The Lost Daughters of China is an unforgettable account of the red thread that winds from China s orphanages to loving families around the globe Asian American Autobiographers

Guiyou Huang, 2001-05-30 Asian Americans have made many significant contributions to industry science politics and the arts At the same time they have made great sacrifices and endured enormous hardships This reference examines autobiographies and memoirs written by Asian Americans in the twentieth century Included are alphabetically arranged entries on 60 major autobiographers of Asian descent Some of these such as Meena Alexander and Maxine Hong Kingston are known primarily for their writings others such as Daniel K Inouye are known largely for other achievements which they have chronicled in their autobiographies Each entry is written by an expert contributor and provides a reliable account of the autobiographer's life reviews major autobiographical works and themes including fictionalized autobiographies and autobiographical novels presents a meticulously researched account of the critical reception of these works and closes with a bibliography of primary and secondary sources An introductory essay considers the history and development of autobiography in American literature and culture and discusses issues and themes vital to Asian American autobiographies and memoirs such as family diaspora nationhood identity cultural assimilation racial dynamics and the formation of the Asian American literary canon The volume closes with a selected bibliography

Begin Here Rocio G. Davis, 2007-01-31 An analytically innovative work Begin Here widens the current critical focus of Asian North American literary studies by proposing an integrated thematic and narratological approach to the practice of autobiography It demonstrates how Asian North American memoirs of childhood challenge the construction and performative potential of national experiences This understanding influences theoretical approaches to ethnic life writing expanding the boundaries of traditional autobiography by negotiating narrative techniques and genre and raising complex questions about self representation and the construction of cultural memory By examining the artistic project of some fifty Asian North American writers who deploy their childhood narratives in the representation of the individual processes of self identification and negotiation of cultural and national affiliation this work provides a comprehensive overview of Asian North American autobiographies of childhood published over the last century Importantly it also attends to new ways of writing autobiographies employing comics blending verse prose diaries and life writing for children and using relational approaches to self identification among others

Falling Leaves, Watching the Tree Adeline Yen Mah, 2002 The author discusses various aspects of Chinese culture and traditions including Buddhism the I Ching Confucius and others and tells stories from her life as a child in China and later a doctor in England and America

British Asian Fiction Neil Murphy, Wai-chew Sim, 2008 In this outstanding collection of essays editors Neil Murphy and Wai chew Sim seek not so much to demarcate the field of British Asian fiction but to offer due acknowledgment of the artistic merit of the works of selected authors and simultaneously register their cultural significance This volume demonstrates in situ the virtues of commentary that engages in a substantial manner with formal and aesthetic considerations even as it implicates the discourses of alterity that dominate contemporary cultural criticism Additionally the essays delineate the complex subject positions explored by authors and texts and focus on the way writers negotiate the exigencies of their location within and between different social formations. If it is the case that British literature can no longer be discussed in monocultural terms because of the impact of the writers under consideration, it is also the case that the diverse trans-cultural positions they explore are often less specified than proclaimed. Addressing difference, commensurability, and form-related notions of truth/content, these essays enlarge our understanding of the range of British and affiliated identities as well as the cultural contexts from which they arose.

Working as academics and critics from Singapore, a useful vantage point, Murphy and Sim have extended the parameters of British Asian to include not just writers from South Asia as is traditionally the case, but writers whose parents or who themselves have migrated to Britain from other regions of Asia, for example Japan, Hong Kong, and Malaysia. This initiative has made it possible for professors Murphy and Sim to bring together first an interestingly varied group of authors among them those who came to prominence in the 1980s: Salman Rushdie, Timothy Mo, Kazuo Ishiguro, as well as their younger contemporaries Meera Syal, Romesh Gunasekera, Monica Ali, Hari Kunzru, Ooi Yang May, and second, a broad and diverse range of novels that span Timothy Mo's Sour Sweet (1982) and Tariq Ali's A Sultan in Palermo (2005), the fourth volume in his Islam quintet.

Encyclopedia of Life Writing
Margaretta Jolly, 2013-12-04. First published in 2001. This is the first substantial reference work in English on the various forms that constitute life writing. As this term suggests, the Encyclopedia explores not only autobiography and biography proper, but also letters, diaries, memoirs, family histories, case histories, and other ways in which individual lives have been recorded and structured. It includes entries on genres and subgenres, national and regional traditions from around the world, and important autobiographical writers, as well as articles on related areas such as oral history, anthropology, testimonies, and the representation of life stories in non-verbal art forms.

East Main Street, Shilpa Dave, LeiLani Nishime, Tasha Oren, 2005-05. From henna tattoo kits available at your local mall to faux-Asian fashions, housewares, and fusion cuisine, from the new visibility of Asian film, music, video games, and anime to the current popularity of martial arts motifs in hip-hop, Asian influences have thoroughly saturated the U.S. cultural landscape and have now become an integral part of the vernacular of popular culture.
