Research Handbook of Finance and Sustainability Sabri Boubaker, Douglas Cumming, Duc Khuong Nguyen, 2018. The severe consequences of the global financial crisis 2008-2009 and numerous accounting frauds and financial scandals over the last fifteen years have led to calls for more ethical and responsible actions in all economic activities including consumption, investing, governance and regulation. Despite the fact that ethics in business and corporate social responsibility rules have been adopted in various countries, more efforts have to be devoted to motivate and empower more actors to integrate ethical behavior and rules in making business and managerial decisions. The Research Handbook of Finance and Sustainability will provide the readers but particularly investors, managers and policymakers with comprehensive coverage of the issues at the crossroads of finance, ethics and sustainable development as well as proposed solutions while focusing on three different levels: corporations, investment funds and financial markets.

Principles of Financial Accounting Ian Gillespie, Richard Lewis, Kay Hamilton, 2004. Providing a grounding in the main techniques and underlying concepts involved in the preparation and analysis of accounting statements and their application to various forms of business organization, this title develops ideas progressively and is illustrated through worked examples.
