

Act 4 The Crucible, Questions and answers. 100% Accurate. Latest update

What explanation does Cheever give for Parris' "mad look"? - ✓✓ He thinks it is caused by the cows. In other words, the cows are left wandering since their masters are in jail, and there is much contention in the town about ownership and the whole political scene.

What did Abigail do? - ✓✓ Abigail stole money from Parris and disappeared, reportedly left on a ship.

Parris says, "You cannot hang this sort. There is danger for me." What "sort" does he mean, and what is the danger to him? - ✓✓ Because Proctor, Rebecca, Elizabeth, Martha and others were upstanding citizens, generally respected in the community (as opposed to Sarah Good who was a beggar woman), people were truly doubtful of their connections with the devil. Since Parris was so involved with the prosecution of these individuals, he was beginning to get threats on his life.

Explain Danforth's reason that a pardon would not be just. - ✓✓ If he had pardoned the remaining accused, the people who had been hanged would have died in vain, unjustly. Rather than admit that the court could have been wrong and therefore admit the others may have been hanged unjustly, he thought it better to continue hanging people so all accused would get the same treatment from the court. His logic was peculiar to say the least.

Why has Hale come back to Salem? - ✓✓ Hale has come back to Salem to encourage the accused to confess and save their lives against the evolutionary thrust that created it Torey proposes a model that brings into a single focus all the elements that make up the puzzle how the brain works its functional components and their interactions how language evolved and how syntax evolved out of the semantic substrate by way of neural transactions and why the mind endowed brain deceives itself with entelechy type impressions Torey first traces the language linked emergence of the mind the subsystem of the brain that enables it to be aware of itself He then explores this system how consciousness works why it is not transparent to introspection and what sense it makes in the context of evolution The consciousness revolution and the integrative focus of neuroscience have made it possible to make concrete formerly mysterious ideas about the human mind Torey s model of the mind is the logical outcome of this highlighting a coherent and meaningful role for a reflectively aware humanity Arthur Miller - Death of a Salesman/The Crucible Stephen Marino,2015-08-16 Arthur Miller was one of the most important American playwrights and political and cultural figures of the 20th century Both Death of a Salesman and The Crucible stand out as his major works the former is always in performance somewhere in the world and the latter is Miller s most produced play As major modern American dramas they are the subject of a huge amount of criticism which can be daunting for students approaching the plays for the first time This Reader s Guide introduces the major critical debates surrounding the plays and discusses their unique production histories initial theatre reviews and later adaptations The main trends of critical inquiry and scholars who have purported them are examined as are the views of Miller himself a prolific self critic CliffsNotes on Miller's The Crucible Denis M.
