How Can I Help Stories And Reflection On Service Ram Dass:

How Can I Help? Ram Dass, Paul Gorman, 2011-12-21 Discover how giving of yourself can lead to some of the most joyous moments in your life in a book that deserves a special place on that shelf reserved for truly practical wisdom Harold Kushner author of When Bad Things Happen to Good People Not a day goes by without our being called upon to help one another at home at work on the street on the phone We do what we can Yet so much comes up to complicate this natural response Will I have what it takes How much is enough How can I deal with suffering And what really helps anyway In this practical helper's companion the authors explore a path through these confusions and provide support and inspiration for us in our efforts as members of the helping professions as volunteers as community activists or simply as friends and family trying to meet each other's needs Here too are deeply moving personal accounts A housewife brings zoo animals to lift the spirits of nursing home residents a nun tends the wounded on the first night of the Nicaraguan revolution a police officer talks a desperate father out of leaping from a roof with his child a nurse allows an infant to spend its last moments of life in her arms rather than on a hospital machine From many such stories and the authors' reflections we can find strength clarity and wisdom for those times when we are called on to care for one another

Making Waves and Riding the Currents Charles Halpern, 2009-01-22 I met Charles Halpern when as president of the Nathan Cummings Foundation he supported a rich and productive dialogue between prominent Tibetans here in Dharamsala and representatives of the world Jewish community Such imaginative initiatives are typical of a life dedicated to positive social change In this new book Making Waves and Riding

How Can I Help? Ram Dass, Paul Gorman, 1985-03-12 Personal accounts of how individuals can interact with people and the world around them trying to meet each other's needs
