Fighters in the Blood Black' Robertson,2020-08-31 A retired RAF air marshal looks back on his career and the career of his World War II pilot father in this military memoir As this fascinating memoir unfolds moving backwards and forwards through time two parallel stories emerge one of a Second World War Spitfire ace whose flying career comes to a premature end when he s shot down and loses an eye the other of his progeny a second generation fighter pilot who eventually reaches the rank of air marshal The narrative is unique in its use of two separate and distinct voices The author s own reminiscences are interwoven with those his father recorded more than thirty years ago embellished by extracts from some 300 of his wartime letters Intensely personal and revealing controversial too at times this account is above all about people not least those with whom the author flew while serving with the USAF a tour marked by tragedy that said they proved altogether more friendly than the P 38 pilots who twice attacked his father in North Africa A daughter with dual citizenship subsequently helped him sustain his links with the US both while serving and afterwards in business The irony is that the son spent a lifetime training for the ultimate examination one that despite strictly limited preparation his father passed with flying colors To Black Robertson s eternal regret he was never able to put his own training to the test His father Robbie was awarded the DFC and retired as a flight lieutenant after five years or so He himself served for nearly thirty six years earned a Queen s Commendation an OBE and CBE and served as an ADC to HM The Queen But after reaching almost the top of the

A Natural History of the Emirates John A. Burt, 2023-10-31 For many people thoughts of the United Arab Emirates conjure images of ultramodern skyscrapers and rolling sand dunes However the Emirates are a rich mosaic of ecosystems and habitats that support surprisingly diverse communities of organisms and there is growing awareness of the importance of these previously underappreciated natural assets A Natural History of the Emirates provides a comprehensive overview of the unusual environmental setting of this young nation and surveys the major ecosystems and the marine and terrestrial organisms occurring across the nation From freshwater streams in the hyperarid Hajar Mountains to the world's most temperature tolerant coral reefs the UAE is home to an astounding variety of uniquely adapted organisms that are providing insights into climate change and how organisms cope with and respond to extreme environmental conditions The book closes with a section on human interactions with this unique environment and proposes initiatives to ensure the protection of these unique natural assets into the future This is an open access book Where Angels Travel There's Laughter and Trouble Christine Bruce, 2012-11 Three middle aged sisters Christine Shirley and Ellen have an opportunity to take off on a trip of a lifetime to The United Arab Emirates and Egypt This is the first time the three of us venture over to another country without our husbands or families Ellen's Brother in law who is in the Australian army and stationed in Abu Dhabi the capital of the United Arab Emirates asks her if she and his brother Mark want to visit he declines so Shirley and I decide to take the plunge and go with her Before we leave home our Aunt Sylvia gives each of them an angel pin with our birthstone to wear hoping this little token will keep us safe while away from Aussie land Little did they realise the powers they held There we take a few days trip up to the north of the country for a dolphin cruise and mountain tour with Rodger and Louise and their two sons then are dropped off in Dubai to spend a day and night exploring this great city While here we go to a water theme park where Ellen goes on one of the biggest slides outside of America we visit a Gold Souk to buy some beautiful pieces of jewellery Shirley and I get yelled at by a cranky taxi driver and are amazed at seeing The Burj one of the most expensive motels in the world Before we leave Dubai our taxi driver a friendly Indian guy this time gives us a quick tour of the city before our drive back to Abu Dhabi showing us a man made island being built and their beautiful Marina We were in awe at just how much construction was going on in this amazing city Travelled back to Abu Dhabi and visited the famous Emirates Palace and have afternoon tea with the Australian Ambassador's wife at the Australian Embassy My sister Shirley always wanted to see the Pyramids so decide to include this in our itinerary and the three of us travel by plane there with a few embarrassing moments on the way When we arrive in Cairo it wasn't how we expected it to be but overcame some stressful moments when we visit the Pyramids and Sphinx Thought a camel ride and a dinner cruise down the Nile River would be fun but got more than we bargained for Had a strange encounter with some really nice Egyptian guys in The Papyrus Museum Just the three of us took a road trip down the east coast of the country passing through Muscat Oman and Nizwa where we learnt to drive on the opposite side of the road not to talk to strange men after a bad experience with an Arab guy when asking him for directions and manage to get lost in the hills for a couple of hours due to detour signs Noticing a very low tyre on the car manage to make matters worse trying to fix it while being helped by 10 young guys and somehow find ourselves stuck in a narrow lane while exiting a car park Enjoyed looking around a number of souks markets buying great gifts and souvenirs We certainly got used to flights being cancelled or delayed but managed to keep it together after lots of group hugs plenty of laughing giggling and having a good cry I believe the angel tokens we wore every day had some sort of power and did bring us home safe
