Advances in Enterprise Engineering V Antonia Albani, Jan Dietz, Jan Verelst, 2011-05-04. This book constitutes the proceedings of the first Enterprise Engineering Working Conference EEWC held in Antwerp, Belgium, May 16-17, 2011. EEWC aims at addressing the challenges that modern and complex enterprises are facing in a rapidly changing world. The participants of the working conference share the belief that dealing with these challenges requires rigorous and scientific solutions focusing on the design and engineering of enterprises. The goal of EEWC is to stimulate interaction between the different stakeholders: scientists as well as practitioners interested in making Enterprise Engineering a reality. The 8 papers presented were carefully reviewed and selected for inclusion in the book. EEWC 2011 had 24 submissions of which 8 were accepted for publication. The topics of the papers encouraged active participation in interesting discussions and the exchange of ideas and stimulated future cooperation among the participants. This made EEWC a real working conference contributing to the further development of Enterprise Engineering as a mature discipline. The topics covered include designing organizations with DEMO, combining DEMO with other methods and studies in enterprise architecture.

Advances in Global Sourcing. Models, Governance, and Relationships Ilan Oshri, Julia Kotlarsky, Leslie P. Willcocks, 2013-09-12. This book contains 13 papers from the 7th Workshop on Global Sourcing held in Val d'Isère, France, during March 11-14, 2013, which were carefully reviewed and selected from 40 submissions. They are based on a vast empirical base brought together by leading researchers in information systems, strategic management and operations. This volume is intended for students, academics and practitioners interested in research results and experiences on outsourcing and offshoring of information technology and business processes. The topics discussed represent both client and supplier perspectives on sourcing of global services, combine theoretical and practical insights regarding challenges that both clients and vendors face and include case studies from client and vendor organizations.
