Challenging the Deprofessionalisation of Teaching and Teachers

John Buchanan, 2020-10-01. This book explores how best to invest in and nurture teachers. It examines deprofessionalisation and reprofessionalisation in the recent developments in the understanding of teaching and learning, including the effects of standardizing teaching, education shaped by student satisfaction data, and basic skills tests. The book focuses on the Australian context and takes on an international perspective. It investigates fundamental issues affecting teacher quality, morale, attrition, and retention; learner and teacher autonomy; and assessment and evaluation. It encourages teachers and teacher educators to assert centrality to teachers and question and challenge outside forces that suppress teacher autonomy and associated agency and creativity. It challenges administrators and educational jurisdictions to rethink their assumptions on their own capacities and limitations and teachers' capabilities to shape education in optimal ways and the impact of outcomes of the decisions they make.

Whistling Dixie

Wilber W. Caldwell, 2025-05-15. Whistling Dixie is an exploration of the mysteries of human speech. This book attempts to approach the subject of language in a distinctly personal way by analyzing individual personal speech patterns and then attempting to relate that intimate analysis to the vast global tapestry of languages, dialects, and accents, as well as to the past and future evolution of human speech itself. Author Wilber Caldwell begins with the origins of human speech and continues with the history of the English language and its dialects, a discussion of American English and its dialects, ending with in-depth examinations of the speech patterns vocabularies and accents of the American South in general of the speech patterns of Southerners around him and finally of his own personal speech habits These are the informed observations of a careful listener who has spent eighty years listening to Southerners speak Wilber Caldwell s journey from the lilting drawl of the Georgia Piedmont all the way back to the first human spoken word is a fascinating ride Toldot ,2003 Hindi course Linguaphone Institute (London),1976
