Imagining a Place for Buddhism Anne E. Monius, 2001-12-06 While Tamil speaking South India is celebrated for its preservation of Hindu tradition other religious communities have played a significant role in shaping the region's religious history Among these non Hindu communities is that of the Buddhists who are little understood because of the scarcity of remnants of Tamil speaking Buddhist culture Here focusing on the two Buddhist texts in Tamil that are complete a sixth century poetic narrative and an eleventh century treatise on grammar and poetics Monius sheds light on the role of literature and literary culture in the formation articulation and evolution of religious identity and community and become homeless With a traditionally celibate clergy Asian Buddhism is often regarded as a world renouncing religion inimical to family life This edited volume counters this view showing how Asian Buddhists in a wide range of historical and geographical circumstances relate as kin to their biological families and to the religious families they join Using contemporary and historical case studies as well as textual examples contributors explore how Asian Buddhists invoke family ties in the intentional communities they create and use them to establish religious authority and guard religious privilege The language of family and lineage emerges as central to a variety of South and East Asian Buddhist contexts With an interdisciplinary Pan Asian approach Family in Buddhism challenges received wisdom in religious studies and offers new ways to think about family and society Between East and West R. A. Donkin, 2003 Up to including the Age of Discoveries the wealth of the East was thought in Europe to consist primarily of spices aromatics Cloves nutmeg mace sandalwood all were thought to come from a few small islands in easternmost Indonesia which no European reached before 1500 Yet supplies of these luxury products were reaching China India western Asia the Mediterranean lands more than a thousand years earlier This study of Moluccan spices opens with their natural history nomenclature the discovery of the Islands by Europeans near the opposing controversial limits of Spanish Portuguese jurisdiction Donkin traces the expanding interest long distance trade in cloves nutmeg sandalwood first to India then to the adjacent Arabo Persian world The medieval West China lay on the margins of diffusion the former in touch with the Levant the latter with the trading world of South East Asia

Family in Buddhism Liz Wilson, 2013-08-06 The Buddha left his home and family and enjoined his followers to go forth

Jaini, 2024-07-26 Is a total renunciation of clothing a prerequisite to attaining spiritual liberation In Gender and Salvation Padmanabh S. Jaini brings to light previously untranslated texts centering on a centuries old debate between the two principal Jaina sects the Digambaras and the Svetambaras At the core of the debate is the question of whether gender based differences of biology and life experience shape or limit an individual's ability to accomplish the ultimate religious goal For the Digambaras the example of total nudity set by Mahavira 599-527 B.C. the central spiritual figure of Jainism mandates an identical practice for all who aspire to the highest levels of religious attainment For the Svetambaras the renunciation occurs purely on an internal level and is neither affected nor confirmed by the absence of clothes Both sects agree however that nudity is not permitted for women under any circumstances The Digambaras therefore believe that women cannot attain salvation while the Svetambaras believe they can Through their analysis of this dilemma the Jaina thinkers whose texts are translated here demonstrate a level of insight into the material and spiritual constraints on women that transcends the particular question of salvation and relates directly to current debates on the effects of gender in our own society This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1991

Hanegraaff,2018-09-24 This volume contains a collection of studies describing and analyzing stereotypes of women in the religions of Ancient Israel and Mesopotamia and in Zoroastrianism Judaism Medieval Christianity Islam Indian Sufism Hinduism Buddhism Tibetan religions and modern Neopaganism In all these traditions the stereotypes are based on generalizations which are socially culturally or religiously legitimized and which seem to have a lasting influence on society s conceptions of women They represent oversimplified opinions which are however regularly challenged by the women who are affected by them In all traditions the stereotypes are ambiguous either because women have challenged their validity or because historical developments in society have reshaped them They influence public opinion by emphasizing dominant views as a strategy to restrain women and to keep them controlled by the rules and morals of a male dominated society India's Ancient Past R.S.
