Gray, 2013 Disarm, Defund, Dismantle Shiri Pasternak, Kevin Walby, Abby Stadnyk, 2022 Canadian laws are just the police uphold the rule of law and treat everyone equally and without the police communities would descend into chaos and disorder These entrenched myths rooted in settler colonial logic work to obscure a hard truth the police do not keep us safe

This edited collection brings together writing from a range of activists and scholars whose words are rooted in experience and solidarity with those putting their lives on the line to fight for police abolition in Canada Together they imagine a different world one in which police power is eroded and dissolved forever one in which it is possible to respond to distress and harm with assistance and care Catalog of Copyright Entries ,1914 Unraveling the Gray Area Problem Luke Griffith,2023-12-15 In Unraveling the Gray Area Problem Luke Griffith examines the US role in why the Intermediate Range Nuclear Forces INF Treaty took almost a decade to negotiate and then failed in just thirty years The INF Treaty enhanced Western security by prohibiting US and Russian ground based missiles with maximum ranges of 500 to 5 500 kilometers Significantly it eliminated hundreds of Soviet SS 20 missiles which could annihilate targets throughout Eurasia in minutes Through close scrutiny of US theater nuclear policy from 1977 to 1987 Griffith describes the Carter administration s masterminding of the dual track decision of December 1979 the North Atlantic Treaty Organization NATO initiative that led to the INF Treaty The Reagan administration in turn overcame bureaucratic infighting Soviet intransigence and political obstacles at home and abroad to achieve a satisfactory outcome in the INF negotiations Disagreements between the US and Russia undermined the INF Treaty and led to its dissolution in 2019 Meanwhile the US is developing a new generation of ground based INF type missiles that will have an operational value on the battlefield Griffith urges policymakers to consider the utility of INF type missiles in new arms control negotiations Understanding the scope and consistency of US arms control policy across the Carter and Reagan administrations offers important lessons for policymakers in the twenty first century

Black Liberation Through the Marketplace Rachel S. Ferguson, Marcus M. Witcher, 2022-05-10 In this book we use the classical liberal lens to ask Americans on the political right to seriously reckon with America's deep racial pain much of which arises from violations of rights that conservatives say they deeply value such as property rights freedom of contract and the protection of the rule of law We ask those on the left to take a hard look at the failed paternalism and in some cases thoroughgoing racism of past progressive policy All Americans are asked to apply their concern for individual rights and constitutional order fairly to our historical record What readers will find are deep injustices against black Americans But they will also find black entrepreneurs overcoming amazing obstacles and a black community that has created flourishing institutions and culture Exhausted by extremism on both left and right a majority of Americans black and white love this country and want to do right by all of its citizens In Black Liberation Through the Marketplace readers will come away with a better understanding of black history and creative ideas for how to make this nation truly one with liberty and justice for all
