Toonder,Bettina van Hoven,2012 A variety of productions and representations of Canadian identities are the central theme that runs through this book The different contributions explore imagined spaces by considering Canadian music poetry and novels they engage with political space by addressing various ways in which the people of Canada have made claims to different regions in the distant and recent past and they address lived spaces and their actual and symbolic meanings It is an unusual book as it encompasses the writings by those studying the arts and literature as well as writings by social scientists and it includes both English and French speaking scholars The richness that can be found in this multitude of perspectives and approaches to exploring Canadian space is characteristic of the way in which Canadian Studies is practiced nowadays It is therefore an appropriate volume to celebrate 20 years of Canadian Studies in the Netherlands Children's Books in Print, 2007, 2006 Exploring the Second Language Mental Lexicon David Singleton, 1999-02-11 Unlike many recent books on L2 vocabulary and processing this volume does not set out to offer a complex perspective of the L2 lexicon but rather represents a sustained attempt to come to grips with some very basic questions clustered around the relationship between the L2 mental lexicon and the L1 mental lexicon It provides a substantial review of L1 and L2 lexical research issues such as similarities and differences between the conditions of L1 and L2 acquisition the respective roles of form and meaning in L1 and L2 processing and the degree of separation integration between L1 and the L2 lexical operations New research into the L2 lexicon from the Trinity College Dublin Modern Languages Project is considered in the latter part of the volume
