

The main illustration of the book cover depicts a charming house with a light-colored brick facade. A large, arched doorway is framed by a dark arch, leading to a bright red double door with multiple glass panes. To the left of the door is a small, round, white-framed window. To the right is a larger, multi-paned window with a blue frame. The roof is dark blue with a decorative white curved element above the door. In front of the door is a small garden bed with red flowers and two large, light-colored pots filled with red flowers. The title text is overlaid on the upper left portion of the house.
