

Secured By Design (SBD) New Schools 2014 Application & Checklist

Secured by Design (SBD) is a minimum standard for security. Applicants should make themselves familiar with the relevant sections of the website www.securedbydesign.com and consult their local Crime Prevention Design Adviser (CPDA) for site specific information and follow the application process outlined below. Please note that the CPDA is sometimes referred to as the Architectural Liaison Officer (ALO) or Designing Out Crime Officer (DOCO).

You are strongly advised to contact the local CPDA to discuss the development before completing this application checklist, submitting a planning application or completing a Design and Access Statement.

The checklist element of this application is a guide only and does not reference all of the requirements and recommendations of SBD Schools. Also, in many cases, the final requirements for achieving SBD certification for the school will not be known until you have met with the CPDA. Therefore this application MUST be read in conjunction with the full SBD Schools document and a meeting arranged with the CPDA. The bracketed numbers refer to some of the clauses and sub clauses in the SBD Schools document.

Should the local planning authority require Secured by Design certification under a planning condition then the development must meet the full requirements of both sections 1 and 2 of the SBD Schools guidance document.

Developers wishing to market this school development as "Secured by Design" may only do so if compliance with both sections 1 and 2 of the SBD Schools guidance document has been achieved or a Secured by Design Pre-Build Agreement has been completed. Should you wish to enter into an SBD Pre-Build Agreement please notify the CPDA who will in turn contact the relevant Secured by Design Development Officer for your area.

Please tick the appropriate boxes to indicate compliance, but note that additional or alternative measures, which are subject to the local crime risks, may be required by the CPDA. These alternative and additional measures will be notified to you in writing. Please also note that unless you are informed otherwise by the CPDA in writing you will be expected to achieve all of the applicable requirements as outlined in the SBD Schools document.

Without first gaining advice, opportunities for designing out crime have often been lost by the time a development scheme has gained planning permission. Applicants should be aware that whilst late applications for Secured by Design may be considered by the CPDA, the development may not meet the requirements of SBD if the design, layout or specification is unsatisfactory.

Daylighting and Integrated Lighting Design Christopher Meek, Kevin Van Den Wymelenberg, 2014-10-17 Daylighting and Integrated Lighting Design provides architects building designers and students clear direction for the successful inclusion of daylight and integrated electric light in buildings. It presents design teams with the performance analysis resources, energy saving estimates and user satisfaction results they need in order to make informed decisions regarding daylighting and lighting design. Written by two well known experts in the field the book provides critical geometric and material relationships along with proven design process activities offered in a quick reference format with sufficient context to address the range of associated issues present in any building project both the fundamentals and applications which cover design concepts and practice activities applicable to all integrated lighting projects specific directives for how the concepts covered are applied in a range of common design scenarios including architectural rules of thumb instructions for ensuring visual comfort and preferred approaches for electric lighting control integration. In demonstrating these necessary insights to designers the authors employ an iterative analysis of common daylighting patterns and illustrate and annotate both successful and unsuccessful examples via built form and simulation. Part of the PocketArchitecture series this is the ideal pocketbook for any designer serious about reducing the energy impact of their buildings.

Considerations for Effective Building Lighting Energy Utilization Illuminating Engineering Society of North America, 1987 Passive Solar Architecture David Bainbridge, Ken Haggard, 2011-08-18 New buildings can be designed to be solar oriented naturally heated and cooled naturally lit and ventilated and made with renewable sustainable materials no matter the location or climate. In this comprehensive overview of passive solar design two of America's solar pioneers give homeowners architects designers and builders the keys to successfully harnessing the sun and maximizing climate resources for heating cooling ventilation and daylighting. Bainbridge and Haggard draw upon examples from their own experiences as well as those of others of more than three decades to offer both overarching principles as well as the details and formulas needed to successfully design a more comfortable healthy and secure place in which to live laugh dance and be comfortable. Even if the power goes off Passive Solar Architecture also discusses greener and more sustainable building materials and how to use them and explores the historical roots of green design that have made possible buildings that produce more energy and other resources than they use. Energy Research Abstracts, 1995 Lighting Redesign for Existing Buildings Craig DiLouie, 2020-12-18 In Lighting Redesign for Existing Buildings veteran journalist and educator Craig DiLouie identifies opportunities to both save energy and improve lighting performance in existing buildings.
