Towards inclusive teachers Judith 't Gilde, 2023-09-29 Research on inclusive education should consider the key players teachers Based on three qualitative case studies of subject teachers working in integration classes at secondary schools in Vienna this book answers the question how inclusive education affects processes of professionalisation in teachers The biographical approach places the subject teachers and their biography at the centre of their professionalisation resulting in interesting descriptions that give the reader insights into their world The author introduces inclusive education and compares its implementation in Austria and the Netherlands She addresses teacher professionalism in general and relates it to the concepts of Bildung and Bildungsgangforschung The documentary method is explained and illustrated with the three case studies Their reconstruction shows how professionalisation in relation to working in integration classes is an individual process motivated by personal experiences and closely linked to ideas about one's role as a teacher. Concluding the author relates the results to international findings and gives suggestions for implementing inclusive education. Die Studie wurde im Jahr 2022 ausgezeichnet mit dem Dissertationspreis der österreichischen Gesellschaft für Forschung und Entwicklung im Bildungswesen FEB. Educational Psychology S.N. Rao, 2002. The basic approach of the book is that educational psychology is a scientific study of the psychological problems of educational practice. The educational psychologist in this context has the role of a specialist who provides the necessary technical advice to educational planners, administrators and teachers in helping them to achieve their objectives. The book follows this point of view in presenting the subject matter to the reader and aims to fulfill the need of a quality Indian text meeting the requirements of students and teachers in the faculties of psychology and education. The book aims to cover the field of educational psychology and strives to present a comprehensive book from the psychological point of view not available in India to study the subject in its appropriate perspective. In addition to the discussion of conventional topics, much attention has been bestowed on such vital issues as teaching for values, scholastic achievement, adjustment, disadvantaged students, discipline and guidance needs related to education. The students would find the discussion stimulating and useful. Encyclopedia of Educational Leadership and Administration Fenwick W. English, 2006-02-16.
