

Since the earthquake here in this day I wonder how many lives I could have saved if I had gone through Lianren's gate of benevolence and wisdom.

Li-Ming

Every so often I hear of a promising new student accepted into Calhoun's School. Someone like Ming, a young woman from Taiwan, is perhaps the most recent of these individuals. She is said to possess an almost incredible aptitude for greater knowledge and an incredible ability to fight. I only hope that, as the years wear on, she also learns to use her own power with wisdom and wisdom.

Lacion

Lacion is the ill-forgotten son of Mephane. Unlike his name, Lacion, he served his father without question (at least, he appeared to do so). At the behest of the Prince Felix, Lacion came to the world of humanity and fought the Trium, a seemingly benevolent war that, in reality, seemed to turn the hearts of mankind to darkness. Mephane was then back on the side of the noble spiritual leaders calling for the Prince.

It should be noted that Lacion assumed a mortal guise for this task. Indeed, the books of Felix describe him as a charismatic and wise man with a taste for nothing a thousandth as the legends. Only later, when the legendary Ulterior of Darnard and his followers attacked the Trium, did Lacion reveal his true demonic form. No even the demonic creature present could not withstand the might of the legendary arms.

Maghla

A person of dark nature and low birth, around Maghla and her origins I know she is practiced in the art of witchcraft, and I know also that she leads the Gnomes, a cult that has settled on the mountains of the Trium. There is nothing she would not do—no one she would not sacrifice—to oppose the hands of the Burning Hell. Beyond these something being the somewhat past remains a mystery.
