

A stylized illustration of a woman's face and hair. The woman has dark skin, large expressive eyes with blue eyeliner, and full lips. Her hair is dark and voluminous, with a section of it styled in a braid that curves over her shoulder. The background is a deep red with a wavy, wood-grain-like texture. Below the hair, there is a pattern of overlapping purple and pink circles, and at the bottom, a dark silhouette of a city skyline with various buildings and a tall tower.

Cooke, 2022-09-13 A bold reorientation of art history that bridges the divide between fine art and material culture through an examination of objects and their uses Art history is often viewed through cultural or national lenses that define some works as fine art while relegating others to the category of craft Global Objects points the way to an interconnected history of art examining a broad array of functional aesthetic objects that transcend geographic and temporal boundaries and challenging preconceived ideas about what is and is not art Avoiding traditional binaries such as East versus West and fine art versus decorative art Edward Cooke looks at the production consumption and circulation of objects made from clay fiber wood and nonferrous base metals Carefully considering the materials and process of making and connecting process to product and people he demonstrates how objects act on those who look at use and acquire them He reveals how objects retain aspects of their local fabrication while absorbing additional meanings in subtle and unexpected ways as they move through space and time In emphasizing multiple centers of art production amid constantly changing contexts Cooke moves beyond regional histories driven by geography nation state time period or medium Beautifully illustrated Global Objects traces the social lives of objects from creation to purchase and from use to experienced meaning charting exciting new directions in art history The Bookseller, 1894 Publisher and Bookseller, 1894 Vols for 1871 76 1913 14 include an extra number The Christmas bookseller separately paged and not included in the consecutive numbering of the regular series Learning Zulu Mark

Sanders, 2016-03-22 Why are you learning Zulu When Mark Sanders began studying the language he was often asked this question In Learning Zulu Sanders places his own endeavors within a wider context to uncover how in the past 150 years of South African history Zulu became a battleground for issues of property possession and deprivation Sanders combines elements of analysis and memoir to explore a complex cultural history Perceiving that colonial learners of Zulu saw themselves as repairing harm done to Africans by Europeans Sanders reveals deeper motives at work in the development of Zulu language learning from the emergence of the pidgin Fanagalo among missionaries and traders in the nineteenth century to widespread efforts in the twentieth and twenty first centuries to teach a correct form of Zulu Sanders looks at the white appropriation of Zulu language music and dance in South African culture and at the association of Zulu with a martial masculinity In exploring how Zulu has come to represent what is most properly and powerfully African Sanders examines differences in English and Zulu language press coverage of an important trial as well as the role of linguistic purism in xenophobic violence in South Africa Through one person s efforts to learn the Zulu language Learning Zulu explores how a language s history and politics influence all individuals in a multilingual society African Theology, Philosophy, and Religions Julius Gathogo, Chammah J. In so doing, Soske combines intellectual, political, religious, urban, and gender history to tell a story that is global in reach while remaining grounded in the everyday materiality of life under apartheid. Even as Indian independence provided black South African intellectuals with new models of conceptualizing sovereignty, debates over the place of the Indian diaspora in Africa, the also colonized, other forced a reconsideration of the nation's internal and external boundaries. In response to the traumas of Partition and the 1949 Durban Riots, a group of thinkers in the ANC, centered in the Indian Ocean city of Durban and led by ANC president and Nobel Peace Prize winner Albert Luthuli, developed a new philosophy of nationhood that affirmed South Africa's simultaneously heterogeneous and fundamentally African character. Internal Frontiers is a major contribution to postcolonial and Indian Ocean studies and charts new ways of writing about African nationalism.
