The wire's razor sharp, so some quick tension is it all it takes to get a clean cut. The testicles and sack plop neatly into the collection pan, and I'm off to my next patient while the other girls handle cleanup."

Stewart, 2020-09-23 With its focus on recent detective series featuring female investigators this collection analyzes the authors treatment of current social political and economic problems in Spain and beyond in addition to exploring interrelations between gender globalization the environment and technology The contributions here reveal the varied ways in which the use of a series allows for a deeper consideration of such issues in addition to permitting the more extensive development of the protagonist investigator and her reactions to and methods of dealing with personal and professional challenges of the twenty first century In these stories the authors employ strategies that break with long standing conventions developing crime fiction in unexpected ways incorporating elements of science fiction the supernatural and the historical novel as well as varied geographical settings small towns provincial cities and rural communities beyond the urban environment all of which contributes to the reinvigoration of the genre Imagining Neoliberal Globalization in Contemporary World Fiction Michael Walonen, 2018-04-27 We are in the midst of the third tectonic social transformation in human history Our current transition toward greater forms of transnational interconnection consumption and finance driven rather than production based capitalism digital information and cultural flows and the attendant large scale social and ecological consequences of these are drastically remaking our world cultural producers from across the globe are seeking to make sense of and provide insights into these complex changes

Imagining Neoliberal Globalization in Contemporary World Fiction takes a broad cross cultural approach to analyzing the literature of our increasingly transnationalized world system considering how its key constituent features and local level manifestations have been thematized and imaginatively seized upon by literary fiction produced from the perspective of the periphery of the capitalist world system

Textual renderings of globalization are not simply second order approximations of it but constitutive elements of globalization that condition how it will be understood and responded to and so coming to terms with the narrativizations of globalization is vital scholarly work as among other things it allows us to see to what extent it is currently possible to imagine alternatives to globalization's more baleful aspects

This work will be of interest to students and scholars across a range of areas including contemporary literary cultural studies globalization studies international relations and international political economy

Contemporary Women's Gothic Fiction Gina Wisker, 2016-11-04

This book revives and revitalises the literary Gothic in the hands of contemporary women writers

It makes a scholarly lively and convincing case that the Gothic makes horror respectable and establishes contemporary women's Gothic fictions in and against traditional Gothic

The book provides new engaging perspectives on established contemporary women Gothic writers with a particular focus on Angela Carter Margaret Atwood and Toni Morrison

It explores how the Gothic is malleable in their hands and is used to demythologise oppressions based on difference in gender and ethnicity

The study presents new Gothic work and new nuances critiques of dangerous complacency and radical questionings of what is safe and conformist in works as diverse as Twilight Stephenie Meyer and A Girl Walks Home Alone at Night Ana Lily Amirpur as well as by Anne Rice and Poppy Brite

It also introduces and critically explores postcolonial vampire and neohistorical Gothic and women s ghost stories

Alien Zone II Annette Kuhn, 1999 Science fiction cinema is too often left at the margins of serious critical film study While a handful of films are the subject of general theoretical works the genre as a whole and especially its cinematic aspects are neglected in favor of straightforward considerations of character and narrative Alien Zone 2 redresses this imbalance by looking at the ways in which contemporary science fiction cinema transforms the themes and conventions of the genre itself In many ways a companion volume to Alien Zone it pursues theoretical issues opened up in the earlier book but also explores fresh territory with an eye that is both reflective and interventionist Visionary cities psycho cybernetics internet fandom the convergence of science fiction literature and science fiction film and bodybuilder stardom are all brought under its gaze Contributors Will Brooker Scott Bukatman Catherine Constable David Desser Barry Keith Grant Brooks Landon Linda Mizejewski Vivian Sobchack Claudia Springer Janet Staiger Garrett Stewart

Masculine Identity in the Fiction of the Arab East since 1967 Samira Aghacy,2009-12-08 This book offers an exploration of masculinity in the literature of the Arab East Lebanon Jordan Palestine Syria and Iraq in the context of a specific set of anxieties about gender roles and sexuality in Arab societies While gender studies in the area have focused primarily on the situation of women the treatment of Arab men as gendered subjects has fallen behind Samira Aghacy's rich analysis presents gender relations not within a fixed biological mold but rather as a complex phenomenon fraught with ambivalence and operating within particular historical and geopolitical settings Through a series of close readings of twenty contemporary Arabic novels Aghacy presents a mosaic of masculinities that challenges the generally held view of an essentialized archetypal Arab man and that mirrors a contested vision of manliness where men figure in diverse sociocultural environments This groundbreaking work reveals the volatile nature of masculinity and its inextricability from femininity
